

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1892.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The Columbian Exercises at Condon.

On last Friday morning, 21st inst., and the four hundredth anniversary of the landing of Columbus on the Western Hemisphere, the sun rose bright and clear and sent his beams far across the Condon hills. The many school children were up almost as soon as Old Sol, in expectancy for the exercises of the day. Long before noon many teams came from the surrounding country, and the town presented something of a holiday appearance, with flags flying from all over town, and at noon the anvils boomed out a rousing salute in honor of the day.

At 2 o'clock p. m. the military company marched to the school house with colors flying, where were assembled the school and quite a number of citizens and old soldiers. Prof. Hill, principal of the school and Miss Anna Clarke, assistant, then arranged the school in the form of a "hollow square," and the military formed line in rear.

Mr. C. Dannehan, a veteran of the war, assisted by other old soldiers, then raised the flag over the school house and paid a brief tribute to the stars and stripes. Then the school in unison greeted the flag and pledged their allegiance to it. They executed a pretty military salute, and with the assistance of all present, sent up a rousing cheer. All who were able then entered the building and for about two hours listened to a very interesting program rendered by the pupils, consisting of essays, recitations and music. The exercises were voluntary on the part of the grammar class, and well rendered, the essays showing that the pupils have a pretty thorough knowledge of the history of Columbus.

One of the prettiest sights we have seen for a long time was the school marching from the school house to town, over 100 pupils marching in column of two, from little tots up to young ladies and gentlemen, with our flag waving over them, formed indeed a pretty picture and demonstrated that we have a school to be proud of.

Too much praise cannot be given Prof. Hill for his labors in preparing for and carrying out the program. One thing has been clearly proven—Condon is decidedly fortunate in having so able and energetic an educator at the head of its school, with an equally able and accomplished assistant. If, as is usually the case, there are any fault-finding croakers in this district, they should be transferred to the northern extremity of North America, where their bones will in future ages be found with those of pre-historic animals, and people will wonder what kind of animals they were. All honor to our worthy teachers!

In the evening the Literary Society held its regular weekly meeting at the church, and was well attended. The exercises were of interesting order and were much appreciated by the audience, the general tendency of the program being in remembrance of Columbus.

The features of the evening deserving especial mention were the reading by Miss Anna Clarke and oration by Prof. Hill.

These meetings of the society promise to be the most pleasant features of our winter's entertainment.

After the society adjourned, those who enjoy dancing repaired to Downing's hall and had a very pleasant time until the small hours of the clock. So ended the festivities of the 21st.

That was a great "stiff" some one gave the Journal man last week, that caused him to find the enormous "mare's nest" in the Scott Donaldson case. The only truth in his entire effusion was that Donaldson was arrested. No charge of forgery was brought against the man; the complaint against him was for obtaining goods under false pretense, preferred by Halstead, Rinehart & Co., and a note was given for the amount, $17.50. John Maddock secured the note, and that's all there was to it. None of our business men cashed any of his checks, nor were they asked to do so. Squire Clark used excellent judgment in turning him loose. A number of similar trifling cases have been brought before the grand jury and were all thrown out. By holding Donaldson until April would have cost the county several hundred dollars unnecessary expense. The Journal's rooster ought to fill up again and hunt for another "mare's nest."

Notice to Teachers.

Notice is hereby given that the regular quarterly examination of candidates for teachers certificates for Gilliam county, both for county and state certificates, and for state and life diplomas, will be held at Condon, beginning Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1892, at 1 o'clock p. m. All candidates must be on hand at the beginning of the examination. Dated at Fossil this 20th day of Oct., 1892. L. PARKER, Co. School Supt.

Strayed, one black yearling colt, star in forehead, brand T-heart (design of a heart with a letter T over it) on left shoulder. I will pay the above reward for the delivery of this colt to me at Ajax, this county; or will pay $5 to any one who will shut him up and notify me of the fact. ANDREW PALMER.

Treasurer's Notice.

All county warrants registered prior to July 1, 1892, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases on and after this date. HERBERT HALSTEAD, County Treasurer. Dated Oct. 14, 1892.

Legality Literature.

Henry Nott is improving his residence by re-modeling, painting, etc.

Columbus day was celebrated in grand style at the various school houses in this section Friday.

B. T. Snell and son have gone to the mountains for lumber with which Wm. will build a barn on his place.

Miss Hattie Phillips is very sick with scarlet fever. A number of scholars have quit school on account of the disease.

Judging from appearances we will have another wedding before long—on Rock creek. Can you guess who the lucky one is?

F. G. Goulsby, formerly of this place, now of Murray, Idaho, was here this week looking after his interests in this section, and has left again for his home.

L. O. Ralston, our enterprising merchant, is having a dwelling house built adjoining the store. He says we must all come to the "house-warming" when it is completed.

Messrs. John Phillips and Fred Douglas left this week for the mountains, to spend a couple of weeks shooting at the festive deer. We understand they took a few hams along so as to not be entirely out of meat for eating purposes.

J. M. Johns, one of the popular merchants of Olex, is visiting his relatives at Baker City this week. Messrs. Ralston & Johns are untiring in their efforts to please their numerous customers, and by keeping a complete stock of everything and selling at the lowest prices, they now get all the trade from this section that formerly went to Arlington.

The marriage of Mr. Arthur Willis and Miss Ella Blake of Eight Mile took place at one o'clock Thursday, 20th inst., at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being performed by Rev. King in the presence of a few friends. Wm. Patburg acted as best man and Miss Mary Blake as bridesmaid. A social dance was given in the evening at the Murray house, where Mr. Willis and his young wife will reside in future. Both the young people are quite popular, and their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous career.

Jack Frost has been making himself very familiar up here along about 5 o'clock in the morning.

Immigrants still keep on knocking the bumps out of the roads, apparently oblivious to the rapid approach of winter.

Mackey, the photographer, has pitched his tent among us for a few days, and is making splendid pictures from some faces that are homely enough to fight a bulldog with.

Dr. Nicklin has been switching around amongst our inhabitants for several days overflowing, as usual, with republican-ism.

Hon. H. E. Hayes, the people's party representative, delivered several powerful lectures here Saturday, to large and enthusiastic crowds. In consequence Weaver will carry Lone Rock precinct—which will of course elect him.

Peace seems to prevail among our people again, since Justice Clark set his mill a-grinding—up what pepper was left from last week's "grist." Jas. Coleman was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to about $30. Nettie Robinson got out of the scrape somehow. It is hoped this will have a tendency to put a stop to such conduct.

Greeting to "Squib!" Glad to see you back again in the juicy columns of the "Civilizer."

Val Wheeler is making excellent progress with the new school house. It is a handsome building.

Miss Putnam, who recently came out from Iowa, is in charge of a private school here, which began Monday, 17th inst.

Gene Gilman started to Webfoot Saturday, "Cowboy" to the contrary notwithstanding. He still has a few head of "kine" upon the range.

A Lost Check.

I lost a check near Fossil Monday, dated Oct. 24, 1892, drawn in my favor, from Lamb & Putnam, on Ladd & Tilton's bank, Portland, for $37.81, number of check being 189. I hereby caution the public to not cash said check.

ED. A. PUTNAM, Fossil, Or.

The Famous Ross Bucks.

We have for sale here at Arlington 300 head of these noted bucks, both Grades and Thoroughbreds. Sheep owners will find these bucks to be the very best, and were the choice of 2000 head. They are noted for the dense wool, length of staple and whiteness of yolk, and will increase the weight of your fleeces two pounds to the sheep. Will be in Arlington from Oct. 3 to 25th, 1892. COFFIN & McFARLAND.

Photographs Enlarged.

I will enlarge photographs in crayon at very low prices—to suit the times, as follows: For size 8x10 inch, $3.90; 11x14 with frame, $5.90; 20x25, in a 6-inch-deep frame, $19.50. I guarantee my work in every respect.
