A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired, and if you wish the paper continued you should remit the amount as soon as possible.

GLOBOSITIES.

Mrs. Walt Rinehart of Mayville is visiting her relatives at Condon.

Geo. W. Rinehart made a business trip to Arlington Wednesday.

Charley Gross of Athena is visiting old friends about Condon this week.

H. B. Hendricks is over in the Antelope country on an insuring expedition.

Banker Joe Thomas and Mr. Arnot, a cattle-buyer of Montana, were in our city the first of the week.

Rev. Wise will preach at Lone Rock next Sunday, morning and evening—if trains make connections.

The Globe has several thousand blanks—mortgage and warranty deeds, chattel mortgage, etc., for sale cheap.

Eugene Guard; Gaiety Mathews left Tuesday, 18th inst., for Mayville, Gilliam county, via the McKenzie route.

Hon. C. N. Thornbury of The Dalles, formerly receiver of the land office at that place, died Friday night, at a ripe old age.

An exchange says that rich men who do odd things are called eccentric. Poor men who do the same things are called damps.

Wm. Cole, the pleasant young man who is living on Sheriff Wilcox's place on Butte creek, visited friends here several days this week.

Mrs. S. A. Winzenried and two children, who have been visiting relatives in Lane county the last two months, returned Saturday to Condon.

The Globe is indebted to Mrs. John Hawk of Thirtymile and Wm. Ross of Mayville for samples of as fine Early Rose potatoes as ever came out of the ground.

President Harrison's wife died at the White House in Washington Tuesday morning, after an illness of several months, the result of a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Putnam and little son came over Sunday from Fossil and visited their relatives at Condon and vicinity. Mrs. Putnam will remain with her mother, Mrs. Meek, a few days.

Born, Monday morning, Oct. 24, 1892, to the wife of H. Frank Downer of Rock creek, a bouncing baby boy. All parties doing well, including Frank, who wears a smile broad enough to stunt the growth of corn.

The president has signed the proclamation opening to settlement the surplus lands of the Crow Indian reservation in Montana, aggregating 1,800,000 acres. They will be open to settlement at once.

Shed Grider and Henry Hoss finished Wiley Miller's beautiful new residence this week. We need more such buildings in town like those of Miller Bros. It encourages others to put up good buildings also.

Jas. Cameron arrived home this week with his sheep, all in excellent condition. John Jackson, who was reported lost, turned up all o k a few days ago, having been "loosed" a couple of days in the wilds of Grant county.

Mrs. Chas. Slater and sister, Miss Mary Gillihan, left Monday for a couple of weeks' visit with relatives on Sanvie's Island. Charley expects to batch, and says if any of his friends want a square meal, now is the time to visit him.

Mrs. W. L. Barker and Mrs. Geo. W. Knox received the sad intelligence on Wednesday that their mother, Mrs. Wm. Cornett, was very sick at her home in Portland. They started at once to visit her, Mr. Knox accompanying them to Arlington.

Dr. Weldon expects to leave Condon to-day—Friday—for his home at Arlington. During his short stay here he has turned out a large amount of as fine dental work as can be found in any city. Everybody are pleased with his excellent work and low prices.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson has purchased Mont Ward's half interest in the large new Knox & Ward livery stable at Condon. The stable is doing a large business, and Mr. Johnson has made an excellent investment. Mr. Ward is yet undecided as to what business he will engage in.

Married, at Condon, Wednesday, Oct. 26, 1892, at the residence of Mrs. Mary Brown, Mr. John Hanna to Miss Orilla E. Boren, both of the Rock creek country. Squire Clark performed the ceremony, and the newly-wedded pair rattled off towards home as happy as two little doves.

Grant County News: John Muldrick received a telegram Sunday night to the effect that John J. McCullough had committed suicide at his place of business in Wyoming. Financial matters to the extent of several thousand dollars, in which a number of residents of Grant county were interested and about to "push," probably induced the rash act. (Johnny McCullough was well known in Gilliam county, having been in the cattle-raising business several years in the Mayville country before going to Grant county).

The case in justice court of L. W. Darling vs Sheriff Wilcox, brought about by the selling of the former's horse to satisfy a delinquent school tax, was set for hearing Saturday, and resulted in a non-suit, Squire Clark dismissing the case. We understand Mr. Darling expects to take it into the circuit court.

Father Lemay returned this week from a couple of months travel through Morrow, Crook and Grant counties, in the interest of the Catholic church. He says he was greatly amused several times at being taken for a tramp, owing to his dusty and rugged appearance. But that didn't effect his appetite in the least.

Dr. E. H. Griffin, Arlington's popular dentist, gave us a pleasant call a few days ago as he passed through town on his way home from a couple of weeks outing in the mountains south of Lone Rock. The doctor is one of the most honorable and sociable old gentlemen in the world, and has remarkable vitality for his age, 73 years.

All those who are interested in having a warm church, will please meet at the building Monday, Nov. 7th, with picks and shovels and help bank up under the building. The church is not for the members only, but also for the general public, and as this is a much-needed improvement, it is hoped this matter will receive proper attention.

Mrs. T. F. Barton and daughter, Miss Iley Barton left this week for Ellensburg where they will remain this winter with relatives and where the young lady will attend school. Their son Willie Barton and his family reside near there and own some valuable property. Thomas F. will remain on his Lost Valley farm and flip his own flap-jacks this winter.

Score one for Oregon. The average yield of wheat throughout the country is 13 bushels per acre, while that of Oregon is 15.7, and with better calculation the yield would still be larger. Yet a great many people leave here, thinking they can better themselves. But the better place is never found, and they invariably return, sadder but wiser people.

Squire Clark, assisted by W. A. Goodwin and Charley Neal, is making rapid progress on S. P. Shutt's new residence, and the carpenter work for neatness and thoroughness cannot be excelled in the country. Geo. Gibbons, the "Old Reliable," began painting the building Tuesday. When it comes to rapid and neat painting, Geo. is "properly in it."

There are about half a dozen young hoodlums on Matney Flat who will be jerked out of their cow-hides and fined one of these fine days, unless they mend their ways very promptly. They have been making it a practice to meet every Sunday and play cards, drink and carouse generally, much to the annoyance of the neighbors, who have concluded to put a stop to it.

Squire Clark and his brother G. S., the blacksmith, received the pleasing news this week that a large estate comprising several million dollars in Calcutta, to which they are lawful heirs, is in a fair way to be settled, after many years of litigation. Each of the many heirs will receive about $100,000. This kind of news would please 'most any one—even an editor.

Herman Seekamp, after a thorough test of the Sound country, has returned to Condon again, fully satisfied that Central Gilliam is the best portion of the West. They all return here with the same idea, after spending hundreds of dollars on the hunt for a better place. Herman expects to engage in the sheep business here again, and wants to buy 1500 head of sheep. Address him at Condon.

The presidential election this year falls on November 8th. The electors chosen in the several states are to meet on Monday, January 9th to declare the result in each. It will be transmitted to Washington city by a special messenger in each case and announced by congress on the second Wednesday in February. The House of Representatives canvasses the electoral vote for the president, and the Senate for that of vice president.

The Jacksonville Times says that a representative of the peculiar form of insanity known as the suicide club has recently come to that section, and wears the charm of his "order" on the lapel of his coat. There are always a large number of citizens in every community whom it would be a magnificent idea to get to join the organization; but unfortunately the class of men that the community would like to see thus extinguish themselves never do so.

Eugene Guard: Brig.-General Compson and staff, O. N. G., passed through Portland from Salem Thursday where they have been holding the monthly meeting of the state military board, en route to Astoria, where, in accordance with a decision of the board, they will repair to the seaside for the purpose of selecting a site for the encampment next year. It is a debatable question among the officers of the National Guard as to whether they will go to Chicago next year or not, to attend the world's fair. At the meeting of the military board it was decided that, in case the militia of this state should not go to Chicago next year, a state encampment of the battalion will be held, and some place on the coast will probably be selected. [This is indeed encouraging news to our military boys, who will no doubt take renewed interest in the militia, on the strength of the grand times in store for them].
