FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

Two years ago Senator Frye prophesied that time would show that the Panama canal scheme was corrupt, and that within a year or two light would be thrown upon it and the Republic would tremble under the shock. That condition exists to-day. There has been some talk to the effect that the Panama and Nicaragua canal schemes are parallel, and that the disaster that has overtaken and that the disaster that has overtaken the French people will cause public men in this country to hesitate in giving their votes to sanction a guarantee of Nicaragua bonds, fearing that a scandal might result. Mr. Frye sees nothing of the kind, and is emphatic in his declaration to that effect. Said he: "There is a very good reason to advance, which is that the government should exercise supervision over the Nicaragua cansi and control all that is done there. There is no reason why any legislator should be afraid to cast his ballot for a bill which has this end in view. I believe this measure will pass the Senate, but of course such a prediction cannot be made as to the House. It can hardly be supposed that the bill will meet with favor there, inasmuch as it contemplates the expenditure of public money, and such expenditures are opposed on that side of the capitol."

In all the recently written matter about the depleted condition of the United States Treasury little or no account has been taken of the fact that with each passing year the Treasury is a large gainer by the complete destruction by casualty of its outstanding obligations. How much this amounts to the best statisticians of the Treasury Department have no means of definitely Department have no means of definitely scertaining. No two figures are alike. Since 1862, when the government began to issue paper money, $5,819,629,108 had been issued up to July 1, 1892. Within the same period $4,852,451,620 were redeemed, leaving outstanding July 1, 1892. Itability against the deemed, leaving outstanding July 1, 1892, a liability against the government of $967,177,479. In an exhaustive inquiry on the subject made by United States Treasurer Hyatt it is estimated the aggregate loss on all issues, up to January, 1888, would not be less than $8,700,000. This estimate did not include fractional currency, the 50 cents, 25 cents, 10 cents and 5-cent shin-plasters in such extensive circulation for a few years following the war. United States Treasurer Nebeker, in his report this year, states that more than $15,000,this year, states that more than $15,000,-000 of this fractional currency is outstanding, though it has practically gone out of circulation, and but little more than $4,000 was presented for redemption last year. What is outstanding is held, to a great extent, by collectors of coin, and its value as such is greater than its face value. The aggregate United States currency, fractional and otherwise, estimated to be destroyed and not likely to be presented for reand not likely to be presented for redemption, approximates, by these figures, more than $14,000,000. A recent estimate prepared in the Treasury Department places the sum as high as $20,noney can only be taken out of the liabilities of the government by Congressional enactment, and this will probably be attempted in the near

Farmers in Marin county, Cal., especially in the lowlands near the coast, are complaining of a weed that has germinated of late from the rich soil, which the cows eat and which gives a peculiar taste to the milk, so much so that in some districts the milk is unpalatable. It affects the butter made from the same.

A proposition has been made to extend the railroad from Juliaetta to Lewiston, Idaho, before the next crop is harvested if a subsidy of $75,000, together with the right of way through the town, is given.

The people are enthusiastic on the subject, and the terms will undoubtedly be well as the terms will undoubtedly be well as the subject of the Michigan State Salt Inspector shows that last year 3,812,054 has reached a condition of duliness unaccepted.

Citizens of Idaho Falls have purchas a whole section of school land, which they offer as a site for the State Agricultural College. In addition to this en-ticing inducement, the argument is ad-vanced that Idaho Falls is desirably situated and possesses many features calculated to render it a suitable place for the college.

The San Francisco Morning Call states that there is a prospect of a lively meat war in San Francisco as the result of the establishment of Philip D. Armour's big stock yards and slaughter-house plant at Baden. The South San Francisco slaughter-house men, who have controlled the San Francisco meat trade for so many years, do not like the idea of competition, and are trying to make the retail butchers boycott Armour's estabment. Armour's representative at San ment. Armour's representative at San Francisco, Thomas Newton, declares that if the boycott is attempted his company will open retail butcher shops all over the city and will sell meat at rates with which other butchers cannot hope to
