The House Committee on Commerce has decided to report the two bills to amend the Interstate Commerce law to meet the Supreme Court decision in the celebrated Counselman case, and also Judge Gresham's recent decision.

The Senate Mines and Mining Committee has considered Caminett's bill. Senator Felton, ex Representative Berry and Caminetti made statements. serry and Caminetti made statements, after which the bill was reported to the Senate with Felton's amendments, heretofore printed, and Berry's provision, prescribing a penalty for violation of the law by the miners.

Commissioner Raum of the pension bureau appeared the other day before the subcommittee of the House Committee on Appropriations, which is preparing the pensions appropriation bill. The original estimate for 1894 made by the Commissioner was $165,000,000. A subsequent estimate a few days ago placed the amount required at $172,000,000. He was asked as to the reason of the increase and available his former. the increase, and explained his former figures by saying he had presumed the new administration would not do as much work as his had done, but admitted, if it did allow as many pensions, $172,000,000 would be needed.

new points have been discovered, viz.: That the original law specified that the consular seal system was to be applied to freight which was the product of con-tiguous foreign countries only, and that by the Canadian law United States consular officers guilty of fraud in the United States are not amenable to arrest so long as they remain in Canada. A large bulk of the freight handled by the Canadian Pacific, and which comes into this country under consular seal, is the product of other foreign countries, nota-bly Japan and China. Did this class of freight not enjoy the privilege of the consular seal system, they would enter this country at an American port and be transported by American railroads. These two points are considered important as giving the President, if he chooses by exercising it, the right of suspending the operation of the consular-seal system without action by Con-
