

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1893.

Rev. W. C. Wise will preach at Fossil on the 1st Sunday of each month; at Mayville on the 3rd, and at Condon on the 23 and 4th Sundays.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

There can be no doubt that Ireland is seriously threatened with civil war. As the prospects for the Home Rule bill in the House of Commons become brighter, the feeling aroused among the Orangemen in Ulster becomes more bitter. However preposterous it may seem there is a widespread determination among the Orangemen to resist by force the establishment of Home Rule for Ireland. At a recent meeting held at Belfast, attended by 5,000 persons, the presiding officer announced that there were 100,000 Orangemen prepared to resist to the death the enforcement of the Home Rule bill in Ulster. Only the most thorough and stringent precautions, it is certain, will be able to prevent bloodshed and possibly a general uprising. That the efforts of the enemies of Home Rule will prove futile is a foregone conclusion. They will only bring shame, sorrow and suffering upon the Emerald Isle.

Saturday last was a great day for Washington, D. C. About 500,000 people were present to witness the inaugural ceremonies. With 30 abreast, the marching procession was ten miles in length. The grandest and most beautiful sight of all was the 5000 "Tammany Braves," none of them less than six feet in height, all dressed alike with magnificent uniforms and bright tiger-head badges. Never before in the history of the world was there such enthusiasm and magnificence displayed at an inaugural ceremony. Seats at windows on the principal street, offering the best view sold at fabulous prices, some as high as $500 for the day. Over 12,000 people participated in the inaugural ball.

According to a new law which goes into effect on May 21st, the county courts of the several counties of the state will hereafter be required to make a levy, at the same time they levy other taxes, of a tax upon all taxable property in their counties, for school purposes. The levy is to be made upon the per capita as shown by the last preceding school census. The tax thus levied is to be collected in the same manner, at the same time and by the same officers that other taxes are collected. Another law passed effecting the schools provides that the clerk of the district shall collect the school taxes.

The Portland Welcome looks at it thusly: "The repeal of the indebtedness clause subjects to assessment nearly $17,000,000 worth of property owned by millionaires and heretofore non-assessable. This enormous sum, even at two per cent, will furnish $240,000 annually. In the past people of Multnomah county have been robbed of this amount, but now the capitalists will have to pay for protection like common people." And what is true of Multnomah is true, proportionately, in every county of Oregon.

From all indications we can gather, the new tax law will add nearly 50 per cent to the valuation of the property of this state. If the law were enforced to the letter it would add 300 per cent, and we would have a state valuation of $600,000,000 in place of a little over $200,000,000. If the valuation is increased 50 per cent the first year there will be no occasion to increase the state tax levy at all, and yet meet all the appropriations of this legislature.

Under the new law the county clerks and sheriffs of Grant and Crook are to receive for their services an additional compensation of 33 1/3 per cent, except in the case of tax collections made by Grant's sheriff. By Dodson's bill, Baker, Union, Jackson, Lake, Umatilla, Wasco and Klamath are now ex-

The salary bill, which passed the legislature and is now a law, will give our sheriff and clerk each $2,400 a year, the county paying for the deputy hire. This does not apply to the terms of present officials, but they would certainly be pleased if it did. Take the state over, it will not work any saving over the present arrangement.—Heppner Gazette.

Under the new law the salaries of the county treasurers of Eastern Oregon counties will be as follows: Baker, $600; Crook, $400; Gilliam, $250; Grant, $600; Harney, $500; Malheur, $400; Morrow, $500; Sherman, $100; Umatilla, $800; Union, $700; Wasco, 500.

Mr. Stevenson will have one great honor. He is the first vice-president in 36 years to preside over a senate controlled by his own party. John C. Breckenridge was the last democrat to have that privilege.

The present county court of Marion county refuses the sheriff postage to answer tax inquiries, as other county courts have done, a fact which creates no small disturbance down there.

The governors of a number of the Southern states are to meet in Richmond in May and plan to attract home-seekers and capital to their respective states.

A law is in effect to make it a penitentiary offense to tear up or obstruct railway tracks so as to endanger any train or lives of passengers.

Nothing shows the thrift of the late Jay Gould more than that he paid taxes on $500,000 and bequeathed his heirs $100,000,000.
