GLOBOSITIES.

John Blake and son Jay returned home Saturday from Chicago. Billy Barr is expected home this week.

At the democratic convention in Lane county on April 12th, Dr W. W. Oglesby was nominated for representative.

Gilliam county's apportionment this year from the five per centum fund from the state for roads, etc., amounts to $750.

Hon. J. C. Leasure has moved with his family from Pendleton to Portland, where he will continue in the practice law.

Miller & Dunn's new goods have been arriving all week. Call at their store and you will be astonished at the low prices.

Miss Emma Meek came over from Fossil today, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Putnam the last month.

Peter Cooper who died worth many millions of dollars, was fond of saying that "the best time to advertise is all the time."

G. W. Mackey, the photographer, and his family left today for Arlington. They will return to Condon in about three months to remain several weeks.

Postmaster General Bissell has issued an order providing that hereafter only short names, or names of one word only, shall be accepted for newly-established postoffices.

H. W. Pentecost and Mrs. Maggie Wright were married Sunday evening, April 15th, near Mayville, by Justice Quinn. Their many friends tender congratulations.

At the repub. state convention at Portland on the 11th, T. R. Lyons was elected congressional committeeman, and J. P. Lucas state central committeeman for Gilliam county.

The nominees for county offices must file their acceptances with the county clerk before May 4th, or it will be to late, and in that case their names would be changed to Dennis.

To drop metaphor and banter, and to talk seriously, isn't it quite time this commonwealth was giving a lot of its professional office holders and office seekers a rest.—Oregonian.

The resolution passed by the Sherman county convention calling for an amendment to the Oregon statutes so that taxes would become due and payable in the fall of the year, is a wise one.

Mrs. Thos. E. Canfield, formerly Miss Effie Young, of Eugene, well known to some of our readers, died on April 6th at her home in Salem. She graduated two years ago at the Sacred Heart Academy in Salem.

John Portwood and family moved from their place near Mayville to their farm several miles east of Condon this week. John's invalid mother is stopping with them, having come up from Polk county a few days ago.

There is a whole lot of kick about the seigniorage coinage bill because it would put $50,000,000 silver coin in circulation. Well if the rest of the nation has no use for it the Globe will take it on subscription, at $1.50 per year, in advance.

"Do you allow drunken people on your train?" asked a clergyman of a brakeman the other day. "Sometimes, but not when they are not too drunk," replied the brakeman. "Just take a seat near the middle of the car and keep quiet, and you'll be all right."

Rev. C. M. Bryan of Portland, who has been conducting a revival meeting at Fossil several weeks, visited his brother-in-law, J. H. Hill and family at Condon the first of the week. He left for Arlington Wednesday; but thinks he will return and hold a revival at Condon soon.

There is a family in Eugene who belong to a queer religious sect. They work six years and then rest the seventh year. They are now on the off year. They differ from a good many other people of the class who assume that "the world owes them a living" and who rest all the time.

Geo. C. Sears, who was elected assessor of Multnomah county two years ago as an independent candidate, is now running for sheriff of that county on an independent ticket. Over 2500 prominent citizens of Portland petitioned him to run as an independent candidate. He is very popular and will likely be elected.

Within five minutes after the jury returned the verdict of "not guilty" in the Stewart-Parsons case, the crowd threw in and made up Mr. Goode's attorney fee—$50, and paid him before Mr. Parsons knew anything about it. It is needless to add that "Uncle Jerome" is well pleased with the result. So is everybody else—excepting, of course, Stewart.

The republican convention of this county sent a solid delegation for Ellis for congress to the state convention, as advised by the Globe. A few weeks ago the Fossil paper made Fulton of Astoria a present of this same nomination by saying: "If Fulton wants it he can have it." He got it—in the neck, also the nomination for governor. The Journal is a good guesser; it also was certain two years ago that Watkins' "clear quick brain" would be elected circuit judge, also Webster for attorney-general and Thompson for governor. As above stated, the Journal is a reliable prophet.

"Johnnie, who makes kittens?" asked his little sister Maude. "God does," said Johnnie; "but he don't make them as he does babies, one at a time; he just says 'let there be kittens,' and there are kittens."—Exchange.

Rev. John Davis of Gilman, Wash., arrived here Saturday and is stopping at the home of his friend, W. A. Goodwin. He belongs to the latter day saint persuasion, and preached in the hall Sunday morning and evening. He will preach every evening here next week, also Sunday morning.

The scramble after the spoils of office is one of the greatest evils that the country has to contend with, and the foundation of the evil is the excessive salaries attached to many of the federal, state and county positions. No office should carry with it any greater emoluments than it would cost to have the same work performed as a private enterprise.—Guard.

Place your advertisements in the Globe if you desire the public to see them. The Globe has three or four times more readers in the county than any other paper in the county. Our books are open for inspection to any one who doubts this, or we will leave it to the postmasters of the county. An ad in a paper having little or no circulation is dear at any price.

The result of the democratic state convention held at Astoria Tuesday will be found in the ticket published in another column. Hon. A. S. Bennett, for supreme judge, was the nominee for this position two years ago, and ran about 6000 ahead of his ticket. E. B. Dufur, for prosecuting attorney, ran against W. H. Wilson four years ago and was defeated by only 31 votes out of a total vote of about 6000.

Monday Andy and Geo. Wilkins, living a few miles north of town, were arrested and brought before Justice Clark, charged with using obscene language to ladies, and malicious destruction of a fence, preferred by Manley Keizer. Their first plea was not guilty, but after consideration they concluded to plead guilty. Justice Clark imposed upon them a fine of $10 each, which they paid, and went home "rejoicing."

The S. F. Examiner's prize drawing came off last week. A great many Gilliam countyites received small prizes, worth probably 5 or 10c each. Fred Redden of Ferrisdale, Cal., got the big prize—a $10,000 farm; D. W. Metzger of Gresham, Oregon, the 2d prize—a 10-acre lemon farm in Arizona, and a number of other Oregonians won valuable prizes, J. W. Steward of Heppner winning a $1000 prize—a 5-acre orchard in California.

Hon. J. F. Moore of Prineville was appointed register of The Dalles land office Thursday. We had hoped to fill that position ourselves, but circumstances over which we had no control prevented. They Moore than prevented, they knocked us out. We congratulate Mr. Moore on his success, but have not time to enlarge upon the theme, for we have a small funeral on our hands in which we are corpse, chief mourner, sexton and procession.—J. H. Cradlebaugh, in Hood River Glacier.

Baker City Democrat: Mr. S. B. Kidder has sold his band of 2000 head of mutton sheep to Mr. J. E. Erick, of the Baker City National Bank, who will ship the entire lot to Stockdale, a suburb of Chicago, where they will be fed for a time before placing them on the market. Mr. Erick just sold 8000 head in Chicago the other day after having fed the band at Stockdale, realizing good figures, but if he had held on a few days longer he would have done much better, as the market has an upward tendency.

The famous Pollard-Breckenridge case finally came to an end Saturday. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of Miss Pollard, awarding her $15,000 damages. Commenting upon this case the Tacoma Union says: "When a man 50 years of age, a member of congress, silver-tongued orator and the husband of a second wife, can successfully plead in self-justification that a school girl seduced him and for years held him in illicit relations, what can be done in the prosecution of young everyday fellows on charges of seduction?"

Jas. F. Moore has been appointed register of the land office at The Dalles. Mr. Moore is a resident of Prineville, Crook county, an attorney by profession and an active democrat. Two years ago he was given the nomination of district attorney for the Seventh judicial district, but was defeated by W. H. Wilson, his republican opponent. He received the indorsement of nearly all the prominent democrats of his district on his application for the registration. Prior to making Prineville his residence Mr. Moore lived in Klamath county.

It was discovered and proven at the trial in circuit court here that all the published testimony, which appeared in the Journal—in the cattle stealing cases at Fossil was false in every particular. The whole mess of stuff, which filled up two issues of that paper, was "doctored" and "manufactured" to suit the occasion for which it was intended—to shield the defendants. The good people and taxpayers from all over the county are severely censuring the Journal for taking such a disgraceful stand against their interests. More than 50 men from this county were heard to remark at Condon that although their time had not yet expired they intended to stop their Journal at once. In that case it won't have many subscribers left.

There are several law and equity cases, the proceedings of which we failed to get for this issue.

GRAND JURY REPORT: In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Gilliam. To the Honorable circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Gilliam. We the grand jury of said county and state for April term, 1894, thereof beg leave to submit the following report:

We have been in session in all, six days; and after making an examination of all the cases submitted for our consideration we have found and returned into court five true bills.

We have investigated a large amount of other complaints that we did not deem advisable to make mention of, as they did not appear of sufficient importance.

We have examined the county buildings, officers' books and property and find as follows:

That the county jail is in good condition and kept in good order by the officer in charge; but we would recommend that the steel cell be better ventilated, as the ventilation is insufficient. We find that the sheriff's office, books, etc are in good condition and well kept.

We have found the county clerk's office and county records in his custody to be well kept in a neat and orderly manner. We have examined the county treasurer's books and find that they are kept in an orderly manner; except that they are kept at his private dwelling house, and we condemn this practice as to the safety of such important books, in case of fire; and we recommend that suitable accommodations be furnished by the county for the safe keeping of such records and books, as provided by statute.

Having finished our labors for this term of said court, we now respectfully ask to be discharged from further duties at this term.

Dated at Condon Oregon this 14th day of April, 1894. S. B. BARKER, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

Arlington Items.

Sheep shearing began here Wednesday. Curley Ebi's pet coon made its escape last week.

Mrs. Copenhagen of Dot, Wash. has moved to town.

Mose Kirby gave an entertainment last Friday night.

Mrs. N. Cicil, who has been ill for some time, is recovering.

Miss Dollie Lyons left last Monday morning for Baker City.

The Demorest medal contest has been postponed till April 25th.

Rev. Fegley left Tuesday for California. His wife is at Yakima.

J. W. Maguire is in the Pine creek country gathering horses.

D. Morris and family have moved into John Cunningham's house.

Dr. J. A. Giesendorfer was called to Portland Sunday night on professional business.

Rev. Gregory arrived last night and will hold services here. No relation to Joe that we know of.

Atty. J. M. Johns returned from circuit court last Saturday, returning to Condon Wednesday night.

The shade trees in town—and we have a great many of them—are leafing, thus adding to the beauty of our city.

The market here seems to be well supplied with eggs, which are being sold at the extremely low rate of 3 doz. for 25c.

L. C. Edwards, our efficient druggist, returned from Portland last Saturday. Mr. King remained in the store during his absence.

Messrs. Lou and Wm. Ralston were in town today. The latter is on his way to Albany. He is much pleased with Gilliam county.

The early garden, put out by quite a number of our citizens, is growing nicely, while the peach trees give evidence of an abundant yield.

Mr. Cook has been at work for several days plowing J. W. Smith's timber culture, which, if the trees continue to thrive, will be an ornament to the town.

There are quite a number of men from California, who came up here to work. They seem to be an intelligent, energetic lot of fellows, who are anxious to do something.

Mrs. J. C. Cunningham and children left last Thursday for the orange groves of California. Mr. Cunningham accompanied them as far as Portland, returning next day.

Mr. Hatch, from across the river, had the misfortune to break his right leg last week. Dr. Giesendorfer reduced the fracture and we are glad to say Mr. Hatch is getting along nicely.

The Arlington Water Co's reservoir sprung a leak last Sunday morning, resulting in the upper part of the town being very well irrigated. It was repaired on Monday and is now all right.

Francis Clarno, an att'y of Portland, made an eloquent speech here last Monday night, which was very much appreciated by our citizens. J. E. David, candidate for representative on the republican ticket, addressed the people for a short time in an interesting manner.

Withdraws From the Ticket.

DAVIDSON, OR., April 12, 1894.

I wish to state though the columns of the Globe that I decline the nomination for school superintendent on the populist ticket, so kindly tendered me at the populist convention held at Condon on April 7th. I sincerely thank the party for the honor, and regret my inability to comply with their wish.

BESSIE M. FITZWATER.

Cattlemen, Attention.

An eastern cattle buyer wants about 400 head of one and two-year-old steers. He will be at Condon next Monday, 23d; Mayville 24th and Fossil 25th, ready to contract for same. All persons having such cattle for sale will find it to their advantage to be at either of these places on the dates named.

Notice.

The notice heretofore published in this paper and signed by Miller & Hill, concerning a note given by Miller & Hill to J. H. Downing, is hereby withdrawn. We further say that said note was written hastily upon the occasion, and we hereby say that we never intended to injure Mr. Downing by said notice in any way; but the balance that remains unpaid on the note will be paid by us as agreed upon.
