

GLOBOSITIES.

L. W. Darling made a flying business trip to Fossil Tuesday.

J. P. Lucas and J. D. Livingston made a visit to Lone Rock Tuesday.

Lester Coffin was in this section this week looking after his sheep interests.

Al Moore returned home last week from Idaho, where he had been at work.

Mrs. T. Barnard of Fossil visited friends in town several days this week.

Ross Beardsly of Arlington is at work with a sheep-shearing crew in Ferry Canyon.

Rev. Curran will preach at Buckhorn next Sunday morning and at Mayville at 3 p. m.

Sheriff Wilcox made a business trip to the Lost Valley country Tuesday and to Fossil Thursday.

H. H. Hendricks, of the Fossil Journal, is visiting the metropolis.—Oregonian, of May 22d.

L. W. Darling is having a kitchen built onto the rear end of his store and residence building.

City Marshal Smith has appointed Bob Robinson, the jeweler, as deputy marshal of this city.

Mrs. Brandenburg has just added a soda fountain to her confectionery store, which seems to take like doughnuts.

Sheriff Wilcox informs us that he expects to make up the delinquent tax list some time the latter part of this month.

S. B. Barker has been out helping to shear his sheep this week. Mr. G. W. Rinehart conducts the store during his absence.

The time for holding our Sunday school is about to be changed from 2:30 p. m. to 11:30 a. m., just after morning services.

While lifting a pole Saturday Justice Clark sprained his back so badly as to lay him up a day or two, but he is now around again.

The Evans and Sontag troupe is billed to show at Arlington tonight. Edgar W. Moore went down to take it in—or rather to be taken in.

E. A. May has just had a very neat residence built on his farm on Six mile on Matney Flat, W. A. Goodwin doing the carpenter work.

F. M. Lacey, the well-known Portland butcher, bought a bunch of as fine beef cattle in this section this week as we have seen for a long time.

Charley Perrin, the harness-maker, made a business trip to Antelope this week. Before returning he will visit relatives at Moro, Sherman county.

L. Lafferty and Wm. Wehrli have been supplying our town with beef since the shop closed up. It seems to go like hot cakes when they bring a beef to town.

Mrs. Thompson Scoggin and children of Butte creek visited their relatives at Condon several days this week—Sheriff Wilcox and family. They returned home Thursday.

T. A. Brassfield of Ferry Canyon brought his little 2½-year-old boy to town Tuesday for medical attendance. The little fellow had not been feeling well for some time.

Rev. Charles H. Curtis of Portland, Supt. of Sunday school mission work, will be at Condon next Wednesday evening, May 30th, and will probably preach here in the evening.

Banker J. A. Thomas of Arlington was in town several days this week, accompanied by his wife. Joe is buying a trainload of sheep to ship east soon, which was his errand out here.

The warm rain showers the past week will be worth thousands of dollars to this section. An enormous crop is now assured. Grain and grass never looked better than at the present time.

Sheriff Wilcox received an order Wednesday from Judge Bradshaw ordering him to release Jas. Barnard, as he had given a new bond on appeal. Jim went over home to Fossil same day.

Under the new law that places the sheriff's office under a salary the position of constable becomes of considerable importance, as all the work in the justice court will be performed by that official.—Eugene Guard.

H. Clay Myers, democratic candidate for representative, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Myers is very popular and as he is well qualified for the position he no doubt will get many a vote outside of his own party.

We are glad to report that D. B. Trimble, E. A. May and S. P. Shutt, who had been sick, are now able to be out again. It certainly was a great physician who discovered that people feel better when they are not sick.

Our citizens can now see the beauty and comfort to be derived from having shade trees planted about their residences. Those of J. H. Miller are already an ornament to the town, and it is only a year since they were set out.

Al. Henshaw is having some partitions taken out of his residence in order to enlarge the rooms, and is having his house painted and improved generally this week by W. A. Goodwin. He has the neatest kind of a home, and best of all, a happy one.

G. L. Neale has quit the butchering business and his family will reside on the Henson ranch in Ferry canyon this summer while Ray will look after his cattle in the Malheur country. Mrs. Henson will remain on the ranch with Mr. and Mrs. Neale.

Oregon is in a prosperous condition. The state treasurer advertises that he has funds on hand sufficient to redeem all outstanding state warrants, except those drawn upon the military fund.

J. H. Cradlebaugh of the Hood River Glacier has taken charge of the editorial department of The Dalles Chronicle. He is well known throughout the state and is a writer of recognized ability.

Mr. H. Blake of Rock creek was in the city Thursday. He reports the crop outlook in his section as very encouraging, and that the people generally feel more encouraged than for a long time.

Somebody has said that if a wagon is a vehicle, a three-wheeled concern is a tricycle and a two-wheeled one a bicycle, a one-wheeled one must be an icicle! By the same sign, a baby buggy must be a crycycle.

Gov. Pennoyer has changed his program and will not speak at Arlington. He is billed to speak at Heppner next Monday, 28th, at one o'clock and at Lexington at 6:30 in the evening. Several gentlemen from this section will go over to hear him.

On Friday last little Nellie Harrison, 11-year-old daughter of John Harrison of 30-mile, was bitten on her foot by a rattlesnake. For awhile it was thought it would prove fatal, but by the prompt use of whiskey and other remedies she is now recovering.

A week from next Monday is election, and then the suspense of the numerous candidates will be over. They will then know whether they are elected to stay at home or to conduct the offices. It is safe to predict that ¾ of them will be elected to stay at home.

Chas. Schutz, of Goldendale, made proof on his Rock creek timber culture Monday before Clerk Lucas, with T. C. Mobley and H. D. Randall as witnesses. Mr. Schutz says Rock creek beats Washington "all hollow," and that he expects to move back again soon.

A hack-load of people from the Fossil country passed through town Monday en route to The Dalles to give a new bond in the case of the state vs. Jas. Barnard, it being necessary for the bondsmen to justify before Judge Bradshaw. They returned home Wednesday.

Next Wednesday, 30th, is Decoration Day. Miss Susan Dunn, teacher of the Condon school, and Mrs. E. L. Taylor, teacher in district No. 10, below town, expect to bring their schools together at Condon on that day and will commemorate the nation's dead in a manner befitting the occasion.

G. M. Irwin of Union county, republican candidate for State Supt., and J. E. David, repub. candidate for representative, are billed to speak at Condon tomorrow, 26th, in the afternoon. Mr. Irwin spoke at Fossil last night and at Mayville today. J. P. Lucas accompanied him on the rounds.

It is all important that we elect to the office of prosecuting attorney a man who has the ability and the disposition to bring guilt to justice wherever it is found. We cannot afford to put into this office an attorney of small experience at the bar. He should be a man who has had experience. Such a one is Hon. E. B. Dufur.—Ochoco Review.

"Mankiller" is a term generally used by printers in referring to a hand press. It appears that a number of people did not understand what we meant two weeks ago when we stated that H. B. Hendricks ran our "mankiller" for that issue, some thinking that he furnished the copy for the paper, which is a mistake. Mr. Hendricks is not responsible for a line that appeared in the paper.

G. W. Marvel of Rock creek, populist candidate for county judge, was in town Wednesday on business, and also subscribed for this great family paper. Mr. Marvel informs us that he never saw better prospects at this season of the year for good crops, and thinks that the grain is now so rank and large that there is no danger of the ground drying out so as to injure it. We hope he is right.

This section was flooded this week by a lot of novels published in New York, giving a detailed account of the robbery of the Roslyn bank, in which Cal Hale, Geo. Zachary, Byron Barnard and Tom Kinsey are shown up as the bravest and most noted desperadoes of the 19th century. It is rich—also the silliest rot anybody ever read. A noted feature about the novel is that there isn't one word of truth in it.

Among the proceedings of the supreme court at Salem last Monday was announced the final disposition of the case of Wm. Radzom, respondent, vs. Augustine Lieb, appellant, on appeal from Gilliam county. On motion of Radzom's attorneys the judgment and costs of the circuit court was affirmed, with interest and 5 per cent additional damages, and costs of the supreme court, amounting to over $1000 in all. H. H. Hendricks appeared before the court in person for Radzom's motion.

As election comes off a week from next Monday we wish to caution voters of the danger of illegal voting. The penalty for this offense is very severe, being from one to ten years in the penitentiary. Two years ago a man in Wallawa county was convicted and sentenced to two years for voting for a precinct candidate when he was not entitled to a vote in the precinct. It is the duty of the judges and clerks of election to keep a lookout for this and see that all voting is done on the square. It requires a bona fide residence of 30 days in the precinct just prior to election to entitle a legal voter.

Prosecuting Attorney.

The voters of this district should rise above party prejudice and elect an able and competent man for district attorney. This is one of the most important offices to be filled at the coming election. It is too important an office for the members of any party to vote for their party nominee on purely partisan grounds. The office is strictly non-political. It should be filled by a lawyer of sound judgment and unquestioned ability.

E. B. Dufur, the democratic nominee, fills the measure of that standard. Besides being eminently qualified for the position, he is possessed of sound judgment and rare discrimination powers which would insure taxpayers against useless or unnecessary expense. He is cautious in commencing litigation, but once in, he is a formidable opponent. No person who has heard him in court, or no lawyer who has met Mr. Dufur, either as an associate or an opponent, will for a moment question his ability to hold his own with the best, and it is the best that the district attorney has to meet.

Mr. Dufur is an attorney of many years successful experience, during which time he has taken part in nearly all the important litigation of Wasco county. His associates who have known him at the bar during all the period of his practice, inform us that they never knew of his being demurred out of court, or nonsuited during all that time, and during the past ten years he has doubtless participated in as many trials as any one lawyer in the district and with as much success. The district wants the service of just such a man; a man who has proved himself as Mr. Dufur has, to be an able lawyer and a man of unquestioned integrity. He is one of the most honorable men in the profession, enjoys the confidence of his associates for his honesty and estimable qualities, and is eminently qualified to fill the position to which he aspires, and to which he should be elected on the 4th of June. He is no experiment; he will be no mistake.

A great many populists throughout the 7th district, believing that there is no chance for their nominee, Mr. Sine, to be elected this time, will support Mr. Dufur, which shows excellent judgment on their part.

Arlington Items.

Miss Ada Redford is at home again after a few weeks sojourn at Baker City.

Mrs. Chas. Moshberger of Marion Co. is here visiting her sister, Mrs. S. A. D. Gurley.

Dr. Geisendorfer has returned from his trip to Texas. He reports having had a very pleasant trip.

The populist speaking was very well attended last Saturday, although the day was a very stormy one.

The copious rains of the past week have gladdened the hearts of the farmers and gardeners in this vicinity.

Our road supervisor, W. F. Settlementier, has been doing some efficient work in the canyon road near town.

Charley Wenner, D. Morris and Clarence Shurte are temporarily widowers. They are a disconsolate appearing trio.

The past week has been a busy one for our warehouse men, a large quantity of wool and grain having been brought in.

Mr. and Mrs. Barfoot have concluded to remain with us. They have rented the Coffin house and will soon be at home.

A number of lovers of piscatory art have of late been hovering along the margin of our glorious river. "The catch" is meager but the fun is great.

We were much disappointed that Hon. E. B. Dufur passed through here without making us a speech. He has many friends here who will not forget him next June.

Frank Cecil, who had his leg broken some time ago, was taken to the hospital in Portland last Saturday. The bone had not properly knit, and had to be broken over again.

Lower Pine Creek.

School is progressing nicely with Mrs. Angell as teacher and about 15 pupils.

The late frosts damaged the fruit some on the creek, but left plenty of all kinds yet.

The general round-up of horses began last week and will continue this week. There seems to be an epidemic among the horses in this section which knocks out lots of them.

The weather has been cold and stormy the past week and has stopped sheep shearing, which was in full blast. Bridges, Hicks and Griffiths intend crossing the John Day river and shear at Cross Hollows, where they can get their wool to market with little expense. They will begin about the 25th.

Contention Crosscuts.

Peaches will be scarce in this section this year, owing to the late frost.

Jack Hamblet is said to be on Corral mountain in Gilliam county, but this is only a rumor.

The Horn boys have crossed their cattle into Crook county preparatory to moving to Malheur.

Mr. Parsons left Tuesday for Mr. Keys' ranch, where he intends meeting Mr. Walker for the purpose of selling him his beef cattle.

The John Day bottom is all overflowed again and is as high as it has been any time this year. Harry Clay and Mont Downing succeeded in getting across the river Tuesday morning.

For Sheriff.

Ed. GLOBE:

I have noticed several letters recently in the Arlington Record, which were intended to prejudice the voters against Sheriff Wilcox. After favoring and befriending the taxpayers as he has ever since he has been in office, this kind of attack against him will only disgust scores of republicans who otherwise might have voted for Livingston, and cause them to vote for Wilcox; whom they know is their friend, for he has proved it more than once. The tax-paying voters of this county are too intelligent to allow themselves to be prejudiced against an honest official by such stuff as this Mayville correspondent (who is one and the same writer, who doesn't live 100 miles from Condon) has been sending to the Arlington paper. The voters know better than that.

Of course Livingston is a good citizen. Who said he wasn't? Nobody said that he is "bloodthirsty" and "eats a man for breakfast every morning," except his henchman correspondent, who is doing him more harm than good by trying to pull down Wilcox in order to build up Livingston. "Voter" says that "as a private citizen Mr. Livingston has been very successful, which in itself is a good recommendation for office." Now if this is true, wouldn't all men of sound judgment advise him to stay with whatever he is able to make a success at? So few men make a success of private business that when one is found who can, he surely ought to stay with it. Why spoil a good farmer to make a poor official? It does not always follow that a man who makes a success in private business makes a good official. In many cases it is just the reverse. I know an official in Eastern Oregon who has held a certain office ten years and has filled the office creditably who made the saddest kind of a failure in private business before getting into office. Put a farmer who is not qualified for office work into an office and he would be as much out of place as a fish is out of water.

Mr. Livingston admits himself that he is not competent or qualified to keep the sheriff's books, but says that if elected he will put a man in the office who can do the work. It seems to me this kind of service would be very dissatisfactory to the taxpayers and public generally. Much better elect Mr. Wilcox who is an expert book-keeper and who would not have to depend on every Tom, Dick and Harry to keep his books for him. Judge Mariner, one of the ablest and most impartial officials in the state, says that books can not be kept in better shape than Sheriff Wilcox has kept them ever since he has been in office.

Besides being thoroughly qualified to conduct the office to the entire satisfaction of all, Mr. Wilcox is yet young and vigorous, and can if necessary jump onto a horse and ride 100 miles a day—a duty a sheriff is often obliged to perform. Could his opponent do this? I fear not—except by proxy.

What our taxpayers want is efficient service, and surely they can not find a man who is able to give better satisfaction than Sheriff Wilcox has always given, or one who is more willing to befriend them and stand by them in such times of adversity as the past year has been. "Let well enough alone" is an excellent motto in this case. I don't think there are many voters, regardless of party, in this county who care to run the risk of discarding a good, obliging official for a new man whom his best friends know is not qualified to discharge the duties of the office. INDEPENDENT.

Mayville Mutterings.

Our farmers are busy plowing.

Miss Jennie Graham visited her folks on the river last week.

Grandpa and Grandma Perrin are visiting relatives here.

A big round-up of horses will be made in Buckhorn this week.

Our newly-organized Sunday school is in a flourishing condition.

Several persons were baptized Sunday in Hoover, creek below Fossil.

Owing to the severe rain storm not many citizens of Mayville got to hear Mr. David speak.

Miss Lillie Francis has returned home from Condon where she had been stopping a short time.

We are informed that R. E. Graham has gone to The Dalles to be placed on the bond of Jas. Barnard.

Cattle buyers are plentiful in this section this week—Lacey, Walker, Cecil and another one being here.

Hay is going to be so plentiful this year that several gentlemen have gone up to the timber to procure poles for making hay racks. SUB.

Rock Creek Jottings.

F. F. Cason of Ferry Canyon visited friends on the creek last week.

Supt. Parker visited the schools in this part of the country this week.

Mr. Joe Ward has gone to Athena to visit his daughter, and will return in a few weeks.

Everybody is looking for a wedding soon. The parties live not a thousand miles from Olex.

The Rock creek school is progressing nicely, there being sixteen scholars in attendance with Mr. Chas. Roysse as teacher.

The dance given at the Nott school house recently was a success, there being thirty numbers. Everybody had a jolly time.

Mrs. J. R. Phillips has been suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia. Dr. Griffin of Arlington was summoned and extracted three teeth and she is now improving. JACK.
