

La Grande Chronicle: It is practically settled that the next legislature will be republican, and the election of a republican as United States senator is practically assured.

Postal notes will not be issued after July first. Roseburg Review: Oregon has gone just as every keen political observer believed it would go, when Governor Pennoyer started out to make populists of the democrats.

Governor Flower has vetoed the bill passed by the New York legislature prohibiting the display of foreign flags on public buildings.

The Northwest flood is general. On the streams flowing into Puget sound, water never was known to be so high; the Frazer river is wreaking unheard of destruction along its banks, the floods on the upper waters of the Columbia have risen above all previous high-water marks.

Portland Telegram: Oregon is a republican state. It is more republican this year than usual. It is amazingly republican. Yet it is not a republican triumph, because there was practically nothing to gain a victory over.

The total vote of the state will be about 86,000, which is about evenly divided between the democrats and populists on one side and the republicans on the other.

B. P. Watson, formerly of the Sunday Mercury, has begun the publication of a new paper at North Yakima, Wash. entitled a "New Deal."

Union Scout: The election Monday demonstrated the fact that the republicans who joined (?) the populist party did not stay with it while the democrats did.

A strong man wrestled with a lion in San Francisco the other day and came out victorious. It might be well to explain, however, that the lion was strongly muzzled and had his feet padded so that he was almost incapable of action.

A number of our exchanges are attacking the Australian ballot system, and demanding either its repeal, or radical change, so as to make it less secret.

There is an organization in Portland and other cities of the state, the object of which is to take steps towards the restriction of pauper and criminal foreign emigration.

Joe Simon and George Sears were born under the same planet. It is a star known in political astronomy as the dead-sure-thing.

Wool is strong and the price has advanced considerably. This is sad news to those politicians who have been telling the people that the free wool tariff policy of the democratic party would destroy that industry.

The Tucker bill providing for the election of senators by direct vote of the people, which was passed by the house during the last congress, has been again favorably reported to the house, which it will pass.

The New York constitutional convention proposes to adopt an educational qualification for voters. This ought to be done in every state.

An exchange says, "Some people could trace their ancestry back to Adam if they only knew his last name." We are inclined to believe in those cases Adam's last name is Phule and it is well to put the accent on the first letter of Adam.

While Gilliam county has a "hot wind" now and then, a "dust storm" occasionally and a "dry spell" semi-occasionally, it is never inundated and swept away by raging torrents.

It is a year of downward tendencies. Pennoyer has gone down, the river is going down, democracy is on the decline, and the whole country is riding a greased toboggan on a downward grade.

Will some democrat move to make it unanimous in the lower house of the legislature? Withdraw the one democrat who was elected, for it will be awfully lonesome for him.

Along with the rest of us the Missouri river valley is having its flood experience. Now if the old Potomac would take a wise and flood congress out we would call it even.

A miss is as good as a mile. To the candidate who didn't get there the size of the other fellow's majority is of very little consequence.

Heppner Gazette of June 9th: "The election passed off quietly in Gilliam county and resulted in a clean sweep for the republicans for every county position except sheriff, W. L. Wilcox, Dem., who has held the office two terms, defeating his Rep. opponent, J. D. Livingston by 97 majority.

"It has cured others and will cure you" is true only of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The motto suits the medicine and the medicine the motto. What better assurance could you have that a remedy will cure you, than the fact that it has cured such multitudes of others?

When the blood is loaded with impurities, the whole system becomes disordered. This condition of things can not last long without serious results. In such cases, a powerful alternative is needed, such as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It never fails, and has no equal.

"Many of the citizens of Rainville, Indiana, are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This Remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it.

Sometime ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKA, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of
