

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1894.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF WILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The harvest is about upon us, and many a farmer is hustling for machine extras and to have headers or other harvesting machinery put in order. As extras are just now something almost impossible to get, there is considerable annoyance and worry. The condition shows two things: First, a lack of energy on the part of the wholesale implement dealer in Portland, to whom the retailers look for supplies; and second, the greatest carelessness on the part of the farmer, who, when through harvesting last year, left his machinery exposed to the weather and to damage, or put it away in a damaged condition. The care of farm machinery is one of the most important things on the farm, and on this alone success often hinges. It is useless, of course, to preach on this subject now, because the conditions cannot be changed for this season, and by next spring—or for that matter, by the time harvest is over—the lesson we have just had will have been forgotten. It would not be all evil if by the present conditions farmers could all be taught to take care of the farm machinery, and that the best time to put it in running order is in the fall before it is put away for the winter. Then it can be brought out and used when the time comes without two or three days' delay and a trip to the blacksmith shop.

The reports from the gold fields of South Africa are most flattering. Millions of dollars worth of gold are being taken out every month, and the prospects are quite favorable that the output will be greater than it was from California or Australia in their palmiest days. If expectations are reached, America will, indirectly, derive a great benefit as any section of the globe. It will for a time check the flow of our gold to Europe, and will thus afford temporary relief. But the greatest benefit we will derive will be in the diverting of immigration. For many years past the United States has been the most inviting country on earth, not only to the laborer seeking employment but to the criminal fleeing from justice, and as a result the country has filled up with both laborers, who are compelled by force of circumstances to work for whatever wages are offered and thus compete with our laborers, and with all manner of criminals, who have come here for refuge. But the opening of rich mines in South Africa, together with the development of a new country rich in agricultural resources, will attract thither the unemployed of the world, as well as those who seek to lose themselves to the world in order to escape punishment.

A man recently returned from Wyoming, who has carefully studied the results of women voting there, says the effect has been to purify both parties. The women were unmanageable by factions and when a bad man was up would flock like sheep to the other side. It was found impossible to elect a bad man, and now both parties scour the country for men of good character for candidates.

In some villages in Japan robbers are tried and convicted by ballot. Whenever a robbery is committed the ruler of a hamlet summons the entire population and requests them to write on a slip of paper the name of the person they suspect as having committed the crime. The one receiving the largest number of ballots is declared duly elected and is accordingly hanged.

A reliable authority tells how to know whether a person is dead or alive, as follows: "Apply the flame of a candle to the tip of one of the great toes of the supposed corpse. If the vitality is gone this will be full of air, and will burst with some noise if the flame is applied to it a little longer; if life is not extinct the blister will be full of matter and will not burst."

There seems to be a mistaken idea among patrons of the public schools that if they are unable to purchase books for their children that the latter are debarred from the advantages of attending school. Such is not the case however. Under the law, upon proper representation of the fact that the parents are unable to purchase books for their children, the directors of the district are required to furnish the same from the funds belonging to the district.

A dispatch from Klamath Falls, of date July 9th says: "W. E. Howe, ex-county treasurer, was arrested Saturday night charged with violating the law providing for the redemption of county warrants when more than $1500 is on hand. The arrest grew out of the big fire of last Monday, when, according to Howe, $8,875 in greenbacks, belonging to the county, was burned in his store, where the fire originated. The circumstances of the fire were peculiar, and do not all tend to relieve Howe of suspicion. His bondsmen, being responsible, caused Howe's arrest, and today he was held to appear to await the action of the grand jury. Other information will be filed against him immediately."

The ruling of the supreme court in the matter of district attorney fees will save a great deal of money to the taxpayers, and it comes right in line with other reductions in official emoluments. This same line of policy ought to extend to a reasonable degree to state and federal offices. It is not just and equitable to pay salaries of from $3,000 to $15,000 per year when the same service would be as efficiently rendered for about one half the compensation. All salaries ought to be put as nearly as possible on the same basis that the service would be worth as a private business transaction.—La-Grande Chronicle.

A Salem paper says: "All the managers of the state reform school except the superintendent have been fired, and new officers have been appointed in their stead. The grounds for their removal were cruel and inhuman treatment to boys confined in the reformatory. Why the superintendent was not removed is not explained. He being the head of the concern was certainly guilty of gross neglect of duty at least, if he allowed his officers to treat the inmates with such brutality as is charged. Hendricks should have gone with the rest of the herd when the state authorities began their cleansing process."

The figures of the census for 22 states which have been published complete, show that out of every 100 farms 47 are occupied and tilled by the owners, free of incumbrance, and only 21 are occupied by owners under mortgage. The other 32 are hired. Mortgaged and tenanted farms are on the increase, which is one of the evidences of a gradual monopolization of the land by a comparative few.

The southerners are accused of skinning an occasional black rape fiend, but they have not the business tact of those Tewksbury brethren of Massachusetts, who are said to have made the pauper poor-house pay handsomely by manufacturing the hides of dead paupers into boots, shoes, gloves and other merchantable goods.

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 189 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

A horse kicked H. S. Shaker, of the Freneyer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shaker has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by all druggists.

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. It is for sale by all druggists.

Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25-cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and pany constitution disappeared and his father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. MARLOW, M. D., Tamaroa, Ill. For sale by all druggists.
