GLOBOSITIES.

A fresh stock of confectionery at Brandenberg's store.

Miss Birdie Downing began teaching the Mayville school Monday last.

L. O. Ralston and wife of Olex were in town several days this week, L. O. being up on court business.

Stock Inspector Miller was in town this week. See his notice in this issue, giving names of his deputies.

G. W. Mackey, the photographer, is at Brownsville, Linn county, to which address he orders his Glosz sent.

The notice calling for bids for the work of opening the new road to Thirty Mile is not ready for this issue, but probably will be by next.

Mrs. Halstead and daughters moved from Lost Valley to town this week and occupy the Clark residence, which she purchased some time ago.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson started this morning for Salem with Wm. Simmons and Walter Glenn, who will board at the state's expense for the next two years.

We are informed that Melvin Green, who was tried in circuit court in this county for horse stealing, is under arrest at Pendleton on a charge of having stolen a whole band of horses.

Frank Edwards, son of Hon. W. J. Edwards of Mayville, left last week to attend his 4th term in the State Agricultural college at Corvallis. He expects to graduate this year.

The dance Friday night was well attended and a pleasant time was had. Misses Daisy and Dora Downing, in whose honor the ball was given, left Saturday for Forest Grove to attend school.

We notice in the published proceedings of the county court held in Morrow county last week that the court still refuses to allow deputies for either sheriff or clerk, and those officers are "going it" alone.

Fred Corbett, who has been assisting his brother Ed in a butcher shop in Portland for the last four years, is visiting his relatives in this section, Mrs. W. L. Barker and Mrs. G. W. Knox being his sisters.

The second Demorest contest will be held in the church here this Friday evening. The six contestants in this time are: Goldie and Belle Darling, Rose Miller, Birdie Henshaw, Carrie Danneman and Jessie Smith.

We respectfully ask those owing the Glosz on subscription to settle up. We need the money to pay our own bills, and can not borrow under the circumstances. We certainly have been as lenient as any one ought to expect.

Mrs. G. W. Mayer of Walla Walla is visiting at the home of her father, G. G. Parman, near Condon. Her sister, Miss Ethel Parman, has given up the idea of going to school at Forest Grove, and will probably teach school this fall.

Circuit court has been in session at Condon this week. Owing to the busy season and hard times, there was not a very large attendance at this term, only those who were obliged to come being here. Court adjourned this morning.

A doctor sends a remedy for sneezing: "Press firmly upon the upper lip." It now stands some preacher in hand to send in some remedy for swearing: "Grab both lips firmly with both hands and get your tongue between your teeth."

The Glosz is indebted to G. W. Moore, the Hay creek fruit and produce man, for some as fine cabbage, sweet pumpkin and water melon as we have ever seen. He makes weekly trips to town with produce of this kind, and his prices are the lowest in the country.

The annual Congregational Ministerial Association meets at Salem next Tuesday, 25th. This place was entitled to three delegates and Rev. E. Curran, L. W. Darling and Al Henshaw were elected to attend. Only one, Mr. Curran, will attend, however. He started Monday.

O. P. Taylor, who owns an excellent farm and orchard on Rock creek, near Olex, has been supplying our town the last couple of weeks with choice fruit of all kinds, especially Bartlett pears. Mr. Taylor, like thousands of other intelligent men, says the Glosz is the best country newspaper in Oregon.

The San Francisco Examiner has again announced that it will give prizes to its subscribers, on a larger scale this year than ever before. If you desire to win the $10,000 farm, subscribe for the Examiner through the Glosz man, who is agent for this section. You will find it to your advantage to do so.

The following from the Jacksonville Times should be a warning to kickers: "Chas. H. Brown, who keeps a boarding house at the Ashland mine, was fined $10 and costs by Justice Luckey last week for assault and battery committed upon one of his boarders named Pierce. The provocation for the assault was in Pierce's habit of kicking about the table fare and offering to take up a collection to buy a roll of butter when the table was shy of that article."

After all this world is pretty much a game of draw. It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a plaster to draw a blister, a toper to draw a cord, a dog fight to draw a crowd, and an "ad" in the paper to draw trade.

J. M. South of Mayville, who also owns a farm on the John Day, is the most extensive melon raiser in this country. He informs us that he had 1 1/2 acres in melons this season and he could easily have walked all over the patch on melons, so close together were they. He has been furnishing the town with all the "fruit" of this kind our people could use.

The National Medical Review says: "A man may be called a thief, a liar and a dead-beat, and yet he may prosper and live upon the fat of the land. But once let him be called 'Doc,' and his professional success is at an end. If a man calls you 'Doc,' you need never expect a penny from him for any professional services you could render. This may not hold always, but it is so near the truth that it may pass for a rule."

John Lyons, who has been studying law here under his brother, T. R. Lyons, for the last six months, will leave next Tuesday, 25th, for Salem, where he will enter the law school of the Willamette University. He is a very bright young man and will no doubt make a successful attorney. Owing to his pleasant and agreeable manner he has made many friends here who hope he will return to Condon after his term in college.

A Mitchell correspondent to The Dalles Chronicle says: Jack Hamblet, who murdered Ben Gammay near Mitchell several months ago, has been in his old haunts again. He was at Lewelling's (near Mitchell) and staid all night and part of a day recently; but there seems to be no move to arrest him. There is a standing reward of $1250 for Hamblet's body, dead or alive, and it's a wonder some one doesn't try to "earn" the money.

We are informed that eight families of immigrants from Douglas county arrived here last week with a view to settling on some of the vacant land in this vicinity. They are acquaintances of A. Hartman and A. P. Lacey, just north of town. These people have used good judgment in coming here, as this is destined to be the most prosperous country on the coast when it becomes settled up as it should be—by an energetic, working class of people.

The cost of moving wheat from the Palouse country to Portland is 1 1/2 cents per bushel, and the market price of wheat is from 26 1/2 to 28 cents. The cost from here is 6 cents a bushel, and the price is 30 cents. If the wheat is as good, which it is presumed to be, why should not the price be 8 cents more than in the Palouse, since there is that difference in the freight? Again, wheat is selling at 70 cents per hundred in Portland, or 42 cents per bushel, and the freight is 6 cents, leaving 36 cents, with 3 cents for warehouse dues and commissions, why should not the price here be at least 33 cents?—Dalles Chronicle.

The Fossil paper, with its usual and long-accustomed practice of encouraging crime and shielding criminals, last week saw fit to criticize Wayne Hamilton's effort to bring to justice Clarence Zachary, who was charged with the larceny of Mr. Hamilton's colt. Whether Zachary is guilty of a crime or not, what business has the Journal to try the case and acquit him, without knowing anything about the facts of the case. The object of a preliminary examination is to examine into the evidence to ascertain if a crime has been committed, and it is presumed that the magistrate before whom the examination is heard can be able to ascertain whether or not a crime has been committed, without the Journal's needless interference. The Journal's tendency to encourage crime is having its desired effect, judging from the large amount of criminal business from that section that comes before the grand jury at every session. It seems to be a true saying that "birds of a feather flock together," etc.

Farmers, Take Notice.

Stock hogs are selling in Nebraska for from 25c to $1.50 a head. This is owing to the fact that the corn crop is a failure in that state and farmers have nothing to feed their hogs with. These hogs can be bought and set down here at Arlington at a cost of about $3 a head. Is it not cheaper to feed your wheat to hogs if they can be bought at these figures than to sell it at existing prices? For further information on this subject call on me at the depot and I shall be happy to give you all the information in my power. F. C. HINDLE, Agent O. R. & N.

To the Traveling Public.

Tickets for all parts of the United States and Canada, also steamship tickets to Europe can be obtained by applying to the agent of the O. R. & N. Co. at Arlington, Oregon.

Idea Jottings.

Miss Florence Davidson was sick for a few days this week.
Frank Maddock passed through here on his way to Heppner last week.
Misses Bessie Fitzwater and Nora Coleman visited friends at Condon Saturday and Sunday.
Tom Davidson's threshing machine is at Mr. Johnson's this week. He is getting a big run this year, for the boys are rustlers.
We farmers would be very much obliged to the rain if it will be so kind as to stay away from our part until we get our crops in shelter. No danger of farmers starving this year. Jumbo.

Arlington Items.

The cool weather is much appreciated by our people.

Mr. Barfoot has moved into the brick building on main street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pettys of Douglas were in town Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharrard have moved into the house next to E. B. Frum's place.

A large band of mutton sheep were brought in for shipment to Portland last week.

S. G. Hawson, a commission merchant of Arlington, is at the Gilman.—Portland Telegram.

Mrs. S. A. D. Gurley visited several days this week at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. Dodson on Hay creek, near Clem.

Squire Ehl, Constable Cunningham, Postmaster Shurtz, A. B. Kennedy and Attorneys Johns, Jayne and Gurley are attending court at Condon.

Charley McFarland, who had been sick for a long time with consumption, died here Monday night. He was about 42 years of age and was employed generally as bar-tender here for the past five years. He had no relatives in this section that we know of.

A former Oregonian, W. J. Windham, writing from Cartaga, Costa Rica, (Central America) in a lengthy letter to the Oregonian, booming up that country as the finest place in the world, says that among the Americans in that distant land is Ernest Fisher, formerly of Arlington, who is conductor on a passenger train there and is doing well.

Last Saturday night the residence of Arthur Coffin, in which Mr. Barfoot and family were living, was discovered to be on fire about one o'clock. Our citizens turned out in double quick time and did all in their power to arrest the fiery fiend, but owing to a lack of water in the reservoir the pressure was insufficient to quench the flames, and the splendid house, which cost more than $2500, was soon leveled to the ground, leaving a blackened mass of smouldering ruins in its stead. Nearly all of the household goods belonging to the occupants were saved. We understand the building was partially insured.

Lone Rock Riplets.

Miss Anna Clarke has taken charge of the Eightmile school for the fall term.

Our new Methodist minister preached his first sermon here last Sunday to a large audience.

Robert Brown has gone to Fossil to take charge of the engineering department of the Fossil saw mill.

A great many of the Lone Rockers left last Sunday for Condon to attend court, some as jurors and some as witnesses.

R. M. Johnson has had a very severe attack of lagrippe for the last ten days. He is under the care of Dr. Howard of Fossil and is improving.

We understand that Jas. Coleman and Frank Ralston had a skirmish the other evening, to the great amusement of the crowd that was present.

People have begun to move into town for the winter to attend school, which begins Monday next. We expect a good school here this winter.

There are more emigrants moving out of the upper country this fall than for some years back. They have struck this country during the hard times, and think by going to Western Oregon or California they will find good times; but they will be sadly mistaken. Eastern Oregon is the most prosperous country on the coast just now.

Married—At the City hotel at Heppner on last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a few invited guests, by Rev. Frank Adkins, Mr. A. W. Moore of Lone Rock and Miss Kate Lakin of Iowa. Mr. Moore is a nephew of John M. Brown of Lone Rock, and lately came from Iowa. He was joined Saturday morning by his bride, she having just arrived from Iowa. Both are most estimable young people, and have many friends who tender good wishes. They departed Sunday morning for Lone Rock and will teach school at this place this fall. They occupy rooms at the Lone Rock hotel for the present. Mr. Moore has been with us but a few months and we hope he will make this his permanent home. The Lone Rock tin band with a shot gun solo gave Mr. Moore and his new wife a serenade last Sunday evening. Jno. Doe.

Rock Creek Notes.

Mrs. Dan Thomas is quite ill with consumption.

Miss Anna Schott visited friends at Lone and vicinity last Friday.

L. O. Ralston is soon to build a new residence just back of the school house.

Miss Birdie Downing and J. C. Meek of Condon visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schott Thursday last.

H. C. Myers of Blalock passed through with a band of hogs which he bought at Gooseberry for the Portland market.

There is lots of good fruit going to waste in the orchards on the creek. It cannot be disposed of for either money, wheat or marbles. That goes to show that times are very hard indeed.

An awful accident happened near Olex Wednesday afternoon. While at work stacking hay on his farm, Noble G. Sayre in descending from the stack accidentally jumped onto a large fork which was standing on end, prongs up. Several prongs penetrated his abdomen, going clear through the body. He lived in great agony until evening when he died. Mr. Sayre was married about a year ago to a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cochran, and was a very honorable gentleman, being universally respected by all who knew him. He was about 35 years of age, and came from Missouri to Rock creek several years ago. It is a terrible affliction to his young wife and other relatives, and the sympathy of the entire community is tendered them in their bereavement. Cor.

Report of Grand Jury.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Gilliam county, Sept term 1894.

In the matter of the final report of grand jury.

To the honorable circuit court of the state of Oregon for Gilliam county.

We, the grand jury of said county and state for the Sept. term of said court, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have been in session in all our four days, and after making a careful examination of all matters submitted to us for consideration we have found and returned into court two true bills of indictment.

We have investigated several other matters that we did not deem advisable to make mention of, as they did not appear of sufficient importance. We have examined the county books, offices and records and find that the county jail is kept in good condition, but we recommend that the steel cell in the jail be better ventilated, if possible.

We have also examined the sheriff's office, books and accounts and find that the same are all in good order and properly kept.

We have also examined the county clerk's office and county records in his custody and find that the same are all in good order and kept in proper form.

We have examined the county treasurer's books and accounts and find the same in good order.

We find that there is one person under the care of the county and that he is properly provided for by the county court. Having finished our labors for this term of said court we respectfully ask to be discharged from further duty at this time.

Dated at Condon, Oregon, this 20th day of Sept., 1894. H. R. RAMSAY, Foreman.
