THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

HIGH TAX THE CAUSE OF DELINQUENTS.

The following suggestions from the East Oregonian might be practiced in Gilliam county to much advantage to those who pay their taxes:

Last year the tax on county property was twenty mills. Since only about one-half of the taxes of last year have been collected up to date, it appears to us the better plan would have been to have reduced the number of mills, even below eighteen, this year and resolved to enforce the collection of a larger portion of the delinquent taxes, or so much of them as can be collected. To procrastinate in this matter is to throw additional burdens upon those who promptly pay their taxes. The people who did not pay their taxes last year have now two years' taxes to pay. The county court should collect last year's taxes at once. The county has an income of $141,000 a year, if it were all collected, from an 18 mill tax on its assessable property. But owing to a mistaken notion that it is best to be easy on the taxpayers, much of this annual income becomes delinquent and never is paid, so those who do pay are forced to pay for those who don't through neglect and lack of business method on the part of those who have these matters in charge. Taxes should be collected at least before the end of each year. To allow two years of uncollected taxes to accumulate means bankruptcy to those who pay their taxes promptly, as well as to the county. There never was any merit in such loose methods.

How is the fact to be made sufficiently impressive that the public charges must be brought down? No sufficient number of our people seem yet to comprehend how absolutely necessary it is. The burden of tax paying in times like these is the great burden of the people. All the products of the country have fallen in value, the income from property has been cut down, and values of land and buildings have come to a bedrock basis, but public expenditures have been but little reduced, and in many directions not at all. In state, county and city, in all our newer states, a system of public expenditures have been laid on a basis too broad for times like these. It is too great, not merely in cost, but also in extent. Much less will suffice. Official salaries should be discontinued wherever practicable, and that remain should be made to follow the downward course of property values and of the general products of the country.—Oregonian.

Never has there been so suspicious a time to reform the excesses, the extravagances and the multifarious abuses that have crept into every department of our government, from state to precinct, as now. Never did the needs of the country so cry for this reform. The excesses have grown from year to year, by little and little, till we have come to have, instead of the simple and economical government believed by the founders to have been established, one of the loosest and worst plundered the country presents.—Oregonian.

The Arizona law making train robbery a capital offense, on the supposition that a man who would rob a train would murder its occupants, is said to have stopped the practice in that territory. If that is true, train robbery will soon be an extinct industry as it would be an easy matter for any state to pass such a law as that, though to catch the train robbers is an undertaking sometimes attended with difficulty.

Pugilist Fitzsimmons has been indicted by the Syracuse grand jury for manslaughter in the first degree, in causing the death of Con Riordan, his sparring partner. His trial is set for Feb. 4th. Should Fitz be persuaded to "take a room" at Sing Sing for about 15 or 20 years, it might cause a postponement of his advertised big "nose-battering match" with Corbett.

The legislature will do no business until a senator is elected, hence has adjourned till Monday. United States senators should be elected direct by the people, to whom their election properly belongs.

Women in the Colorado legislature have scored a triumph by securing the passage of a bill raising the age of consent for girls from 18 to 21 years.

An exchange tells of a wise farmer who mortgaged his farm to buy his wife a diamond ring; the wife took in washing to pay the interest on the mortgage, but finally lost her ring in the suds, and in a fit of despondency she tried to commit suicide by hanging herself from a rafter in the barn, but the rope broke and she fell on a $150 cow and broke the animal's back; the farmer tried to shoot the cow to end her suffering, when the gun burst and put out both his eyes; then the wife ran away with a lightning-rod peddler and the farmer went to the poor house. The mortgage is still doing business at the old stand.

A very important question to the people of Oregon, and not only the people of Oregon, but to the people of the United States, is the matter of the election of our U. S. senators. The editor of this paper is firmly of the opinion that we have no earthly need of a senator at all—that institution, like the house of lords in England, has outlived its usefulness. But while the institution of the senate does exist, while senators must be sent to it until it is abolished, the proper way is to elect them by the direct vote of the people.—Salem Post.

Two years ago the expenses of the legislature, while in session for forty days, were $55,000, nearly $1400 a day. The people who work and produce had to pay this amount. The good they received from it a man could carry in a single hollow tooth. The legislature, as at present organized, is a burden, not a benefit.—E. O.

The Christmas Examiner, edited and printed by the ladies of San Francisco, netted for the "Children's Hospital Home for Incurables," $12,120.28. Of this amount, $9,417.95 was received from advertisements in that issue and $2,702.33 from sale of papers, of which 134,000 copies were printed. The issue proved a great success.

The custom of holding funerals at night is said to be growing steadily in New York, where there appears to be no law to prevent them. In Boston there is an ordinance which prohibits the burying of a dead body at any other time than between sunrise and sunset, except by special permission.

Senators will not in any way represent the people until they are elected by a direct vote of the people; and to secure a better representation of the people, there should be only one senator from a state, and a corresponding decrease in the number of congressmen also.—East Oregonian.

Each legislator has so many friends clamoring for a "soft place" that it will be almost impossible to abolish any of the useless commissions and "soft snaps" which burden the people of Oregon. This legislature will prove to be a "white elephant" of no mean dimensions.—Exchange.

Children playing at San Luis Potosi, Mexico, discovered a cavern and several men explored the cave, revealing in iron chest filled with Spanish gold coin, amounting to over $250,000. It is believed the money was placed in the cave by the Franciscan monks.

Five populists in the United States senate will hold the "balance of power" in the next session. On this account the populists will have some effect on legislation at the next session of congress. We then shall see what is in their claims as friends of the people.

In Wasco county the county court has sent out a special tax collector to collect delinquent taxes, and the same thing should be done in this county. This is purely a matter of business.—E. O.

The elephant is commonly supposed to be a slow, clumsy animal, but, when excited or frightened, can attain a speed of twenty miles an hour, and can keep it up for half a day.

The Nicaragua canal bill passed the U. S. Senate Saturday by a vote of 31 to 21. This is a very worthy bill and ought to become a law, which it no doubt will.

One hundred thousand negroes are to be removed from the south to Mexico. This is the result of missionary work.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular quarterly examination of candidates for teachers' certificates for Gilliam county, will be held at Condon, Gilliam county, commencing on Wednesday, Feb. 13, 1895, at 1 o'clock p. m. Applications for state and life diplomas will be considered at the same time.

REGULATING ATTORNEYS' FEES.

Judge Fee Establishes Circuit Rules and Regulations.

Judge James A. Fee of Pendleton, has established the following rules and regulations of practice in the circuit court during the sessions at which he may hereafter preside, which it seems to us, are so worthy that they ought to become general:

After the grand jury shall have returned a verdict against any individual charging him with the commission of a crime, the case shall not be dismissed.

All answers must be filed within one day after the overruling of a demurrer, or a motion directed to the complaint.

Cases of confirmation shall be placed upon the docket by the second day of the term.

After a cause is at issue it must be tried, if a jury case, at the next term of court; and equity cases shall be referred to referees, except such as shall be tried by the court upon the same day they are put at issue. It shall be the duty of such referees to report on or before the first day of the next regular term unless the order of reference otherwise provides.

No greater attorney's fees shall be allowed than 10 per cent upon the amount recovered, not including interest.

The attorney will be allowed in cases where attorneys' fees are now provided for by law, the following fees:

On all sums up to $250, not including interest, 10 per cent of amount recovered; on all sums between $250 and $500 in cases of foreclosure or attachment, 8 per cent. In ordinary cases at law, where there is no attachment, on all sums between $250 or $500, 6 per cent; on all sums over $1000 and up to $2000, 5 per cent; when the amount recovered is from $2000 to $10,000, 5 per cent; on all sums above that amount the fees will be fixed by the court.

Attorneys must furnish the clerk with entries required in their causes; if an attorney neglects this duty and a delay is caused thereby, he will be required to pay to the clerk, for the benefit of the county, 50 cents for each entry so delayed.

When a jury is in the box any attorney connected with the case who neglects to appear at the time shall be required to pay to the clerk, for the benefit of the county, $5 for every 30 minutes of such delay.

When a case is once set for trial it must be taken up at the time set, provided the court can try it at this time, and if any party cause a delay he will be required to pay all the costs which the court or parties to the cause may incur by reason of the delay.

Divorce cases shall be tried in open court, unless the parties or the court otherwise direct.

Promptitude will be required of the attorneys, and any unnecessary delay will be charged at the rate of $5 per hour.

Attorneys will be required to be in court at the opening of the morning session if they have business upon the calendar.

Bailiffs, both of the courts and grand jury, will be paid at the rate of $2.50 per day, and $1 for night session.

A New Cure for Appendicitis.

Of late years a fearful dread has gone abroad that every one who eats fruits with small seeds in them is pretty sure to run the risk of dying a fearful death by appendicitis, or be forced to undergo a dangerous operation. So strong has this dread taken hold of the public mind that thousands refuse to eat small fruits when seeds have to be eaten with them. Grapes are always pitted by them, and blackberries and even raspberries, with their small insidious seeds, are taken entirely from the bill of fare. The fact is that appendicitis occurs very rarely, and the percentage of people who eat fruit with seeds in them that are caught is insignificantly small. When the complaint does seize one it is not necessary to resort to an operation, except in severe cases, nor is it absolutely necessary to die. The latest and most successful cure is to administer internally from one to two ounces of sweet oil every three hours until the pain and fever are relieved. The seed which causes the trouble irritates the muscular tissue so that congestion follows, and this may soon cause inflammation of a very serious character. Sweet oil, administered in time and faithfully, allays the inflammatory condition, reduces temperature and relaxes the tension of the muscular coating of the intestines and appendix. Besides that it takes seed or all foreign substances with it, and effects a complete cure. The patient should be kept in bed and poultices should be applied very hot over the seat of pain.—N. Y. "When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. WOODSON, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminently above other medicines of the class."—Chas.
