GLOBOSITIES.

Next Thursday is St. Valentine's day. A fine baby boy was born Feb. 1st to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rice, three miles north of town.

It is about time to commence "button-holing" for the city election, which will be held March 5th.

Mr. Owen T. Shepard of Fossil is visiting his uncle, Mr. C. L. Phillips of this city.—Times Mountaineer.

Emmett Armstrong and family expect to move into one of the Barker houses in Condon this week.

Fred Weatherford was convicted at Portland Wednesday for embezzling over $8000 from Holman & Co.

Rev. Davis, who was to have been here Tuesday, failed to connect, but writes that he will be here tomorrow.

Bob Watkins, the Arlington jeweler, was in our city Tuesday trying to sell his jeweler's outfit there to J. F. Potter, our jeweler.

H. N. Frazer has been under the weather this week with a cold, etc. Oscar Portwood is assisting in the clerk's office this week.

Mrs. A. Lamberson and family, who have been stopping in town since last fall, moved out to their home in Ferry Canyon this week.

Mrs. Chas. H. Rinehart of Mountain Home, Idaho, arrived here last week to visit her father, J. W. Pigg, of Mayville, who is lying at death's door.

Those wishing to "get in on" the Examiner's big prize drawing must subscribe very soon. The time is almost at hand. Agent at the GLOBE office.

Mrs. Brandenburg expects to leave Condon about the middle of next week, and asks all who are indebted to her to call and settle up before that time.

Mrs. A. L. Davis of Portland came up last week from that city to assist Mrs. Maddock with her hotel work. "Chicky" the Chinaman has gone back to Arlington.

A Dexter correspondent in the Eugene Guard says: "A part of our population intends to emigrate to Gilliam county in the spring. Our loss; their eternal gain (?)."

Sheriff Wilcox and Judge Mariner were in The Dalles this week for the purpose of getting a list from the land office of the land in this county that escaped assessment.

Advertisers who wish to reach the people should not forget that the GLOBE is the official paper of Gilliam county. All legal notices in the county should be published in the GLOBE.

Harry Ladd expects to go down to Monmouth next week, Jay P. Lucas having engaged him to work on the Lucas farm. Harry is a good, steady boy and is not afraid of work.

A Salem correspondent to the Heppner Gazette says: "Mr. Boothby of Morrow and Mr. David of Gilliam are making enviable records in the house. Both are very active and attentive."

Arthur Brandenburg went over to Moro this week. Chas. Fix purchased his stock of confectionery, also their furniture and housekeeping utensils. Charley evidently is "fixin'" to commit matrimony.

Andrew Armstrong and family, who had resided on the Wilcox place on Butte creek since last fall, moved this week to their ranch in Ferry Canyon, which Andrew recently purchased of Wm. Caldwell.

A number of people in this county were "bitten" on Edna Brown's stamp swindle. It certainly is true that the "American people love to be humbugged." So said P. T. Barnum—and he ought to know.

We are informed that Geo. Phillips and Miss Lillie Ross, both of Trailfork, were married yesterday (7th) at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ross. Mr. Phillips is a stepson of Alex. Hardie.

According to the ground hog, unless his clock was wrong, there will be no more winter. At noon on Feb. 2d, when his hogship is supposed to come out and take his winter peep, there was a fine cloud over the sun.

Miss Susan Dunn's school on Keys Flat closed last week and she has returned to town. Miss Bird Downing's school at Mayville also closed last week. She has been engaged to teach the spring term of the same school, beginning April 1st.

The second story of the Armory hall has been finished and fitted up for the K. of P. lodge, which has rented the same for three years. The paraphernalia for the new lodge arrived this week. Geo. Gibbons will be over next Monday to paper and paint the hall.

Unatilla county is 70 miles east and west. It embraces 85 townships, having a population of 29,000 and taxable property to the value of $8,500,000. The proposed county of Varian has 17 townships, and contains a population of 8000, with over 42,500,000 worth of taxable property.

There are men living in every locality whose children never see a book unless at some neighbor's home, and yet these men spend from $50 to $100 a year for tobacco, cigars and whiskey. These same men will tell you that they are not able to buy books for their children to read, nor subscribe for their local paper.—Exchange.

Dan Rinehart, has sold his livery stable here to his father, who took charge of same the first of this month. Dan is yet undecided as to whether he will move to his homestead three miles north of town or go to Idaho, where he has two brothers.

A prisoner was taken to The Dalles Saturday from Antelope, bound over by the justice court there to appear before the grand jury on the charge of stealing a watch. While waiting for the opening of the sheriff's office his guardians forgot to keep a close watch on their prisoner, and he took a walk, and as far as heard from is yet walking.

Columbus Grider, who spent last fall and winter on the Sound and at Portland, returned home last week. He says everywhere he went to look for work, there were about 100 persons for every job, and that hereafter he will be perfectly satisfied to remain in Gilliam county. "Lam" says this section triple discounts anything he saw on the coast.

The annual Sunday school election took place Sunday, resulting as follows: Rev. E. Curran, Supt; Miss Ethel Parman, assistant Supt; Geo. Parman, Sec. and Treas; Birdie Henshaw, organist; Cora Myers and Rosa Miller, librarians. The outgoing officers performed their duties well and faithfully, with the result that Condon has one of the best Sunday schools in Eastern Oregon.

The bill introduced by Representative Moorhead of Lane county, providing for a three-fourths jury verdict, will, it is thought, become a law. The ability of one or two ball-headed jurors to block the progress of justice in the past, has made this law almost a necessity. It will in a great measure do away with jury bribing and facilitate the work of the courts. It only applies to civil cases.—Antelope Herald.

Dr. J. A. Lamberson of Lebanon, is proving a rustler, one of the kind the Democrat is always glad to see in a community. He has recently organized the Anchor S. Medical Co., and will manufacture the Liverine, a medicine made of Oregon roots, barks and herbs. The medicines will be made up here instead of the barks being shipped away as heretofore. The public will watch with interest the success of this Liverine.—Albany Democrat.

Senator Steiwer has presented a petition to the legislature for the annexation of a portion of Grant county to Gilliam. A number of Grant county citizens living in the Winlock and Camp creek country find that it would be much more convenient for them to be set off into Gilliam county, hence their petition to that effect. It would make the distance 15 or 20 miles nearer to our county seat than to their present seat of government, at Canyon City. The territory comprises nearly seven townships.

A large number of young folks enjoyed a very pleasant dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Duthie on Matney Flat Friday night. Jim Kiser and Joe Potter furnished music. Tickets, including supper, were $1 and all had a gay time. On the same night one of the most enjoyable dances ever given in Ferry Canyon was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richmond. Twenty-six numbers were sold at $1 each, and Lewis South "beat" the fiddle. A number from town attended, also several from Sherman county.

The Dalles Chronicle of Feb. 1st says: Tomorrow will be that famous date in American history, known as "ground hog" day. The olden timers of New England had a superstition that on this day the badger comes out of his hole and if the sun is shining brightly enough to cause a shadow to be visible, the wise ground hog returns to his hole and remains there for six weeks longer. So just keep track of the weather tomorrow at 12 o'clock sharp and although you are not that kind of a hog perhaps your shadow or lack of it will indicate the weather just as well.

Several snap-hunters had a bill introduced in the legislature asking to create several more judicial districts in this state. We are glad to note that our joint senator and representative voted against the bill. Judge Bradshaw, of the 7th judicial district, which includes Wasco, Sherman, Crook, Gilliam and Morrow counties, says he is abundantly able to look after this territory. Judge Bradshaw is willing to work hard to earn his salary, and the taxpayers feel very kindly toward him. He is not the kind of official that wants nothing to do but draw a salary.

We believe our joint senator and representative have too good judgment to vote for the state appropriating any money for so-called graded, normal or state schools. It is an abuse that ought to be "knocked in the head" at once. If state money is to be appropriated for school purposes, let more of it be given to the common schools, where it will do the most good. The small per cent of children who can attend the high schools are having money lavished upon them that should be used to improve the lower grades, where the multitudes receive their only education.

The constitution of Oregon provides that an enumeration of the people of the state shall be made every ten years, beginning with 1865. The statutes further provide that this enumeration shall be made by the county assessors, beginning not later than May 10th, and that, besides numbering the people of the state, they shall classify them by age and sex and collect various simple statistics of production and industry. The assessors are to make returns to the county clerks, and these to the secretary of state, who is to furnish blank forms for the enumeration and declare the result. Penalties are imposed upon assessors and clerks who fail to perform the duties imposed upon them by this law.

Arlington Items.

J. W. Smith is still in California. Farmers report stock in good condition. Some wheat haulers are still coming in. Phil Heppner is repairing his warehouse.

Dr. J. A. Geisendorfer is absent for a few days. S. G. Hawson started for England Tuesday night.

The senatorial question continues to be a live topic. Rev. Green delivered a lecture here last Friday night.

Ed Smith has not yet entirely recovered from la grippe. The snow has all disappeared now and the weather is delightful.

U. S. Commissioner S. A. D. Gurley had two land cases on Monday. Atty. T. R. Lyons came down from Heppner one day last week on business.

Postmaster Shurte, the Nasby of our town, spent a day or two in Portland last week. Ex-Gov. Z. F. Moody was in town on Sunday and attended church at the Masonic hall.

Our popular sheriff, W. L. Wilcox, was here Wednesday evening on his way to The Dalles. C. S. Wenner was circulating a petition here last week for the appointment of H. N. Frazer as county clerk.

The reading circle met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hawson on Wednesday evening of this week. Arthur Coffin of North Yakima was here on Sunday and Monday shaking hands with friends and attending to business.

There will be an entertainment here the evening of the 8th. The music will be the best in the country, as Mrs. R. A. W. Barfoot and other good musicians are preparing a program. There will also be literary exercise.

Last Thursday afternoon there was a "collision" between S. Carlisle and J. M. Johns, editor of the Record, resulting from an article, offensive to Mr. Carlisle, which appeared in last week's Record, so we are informed. Mr. Johns sustained some pretty severe bruises.

In response to a considerable demand for a daily train service to Heppner, the O. R. & N. officials are canvassing the probable earnings from freight and passenger business and the expense of maintaining such service. If they can see their way clear to make both ends meet, a daily service will be established between Portland and Heppner at once.

Lone Rock Riplets. Mrs. Calvin Robinson has returned home, after a few months' visit in the Sound country.

Some of our sheepmen have turned their flocks out on the range, as the snow has about all disappeared. We are glad to note that E. D. Wine-land is improving. He has been sick for some time with inflammatory rheumatism.

Rev. Bramblet and daughter Rose returned from Eightmile the first of the week, where he has been holding a protracted meeting for some time, with good success.

Last Tuesday as Doc Brown and family were coming down the Boone grade into Lone Rock the hack upset and injured Mrs. Brown so badly that they had to call a doctor to her assistance. We hope she is not seriously injured.

We note a good deal of correspondence in the GLOBE of late, which is a good showing for the paper, as people like to have their local news put where it will be seen by the largest number of readers. Let the good work go on.

The snow going off will give some of our old bachelors a chance to patch up their sleighs and lay in a new supply of cabbage—as a head of cabbage was the price some of the girls charged for their company on such occasions.

About $1400 will be paid into the county treasury from this school district (No. 13) this spring. There are only a few voters in this district, but they will have to pay out the proceeds of one good band of sheep or "blow in" a good band of horses to meet the obligation.

The latest news about Hugh Medlock, the horse-thief, is that he wrote from Wallula, Wash., for his wife to meet him there on Jan. 27th. She did not do so nor does he intend to do so. She has had enough of the fellow. The penitentiary yearns for him with open arms (or bars) and that's where he'll finally land again.—J. Doe.

Early to bed and early to rise, mind your own business and tell no lies; don't get drunk and deceive your wives, pay your debts and advertise, buy from men of enterprise, is the best advice under the skies.—Ex.

There has grown up in Oregon a custom, that came from nobody knows where, of the relatives of deceased persons publishing a card of thanks to neighbors, friends and the public for the sympathy and aid extended during the illness of the deceased. With all due deference to those who follow the custom, we would suggest that it is not good taste. The thanks are needless for and unnecessary. In a Christian community, the care of the sick and the burial of the dead with proper and becoming respect and decency, are not things to return thanks for, for they are the simple duties of the friends and neighbors, acts performed for others that others will repay by performing similar services for them. Let the card of thanks cease to appear.—Times-Mountaineer.

Clem Cutlets.

The roads are getting beastly. Some of us are suffering from colds. Surprise parties are getting to be all the rage.

We understand a Mr. Brennan of North Yakima is negotiating for the purchase of the Lapointe ranch. Eddie Winzerried says "Papa George Taylor is just too cute for any use." Eddie's mamma seems to agree with him there.

Grant Wade is "building" a well and has already gone to the depth of 40 feet. H. C. Dodson will commence operations as soon as Mr. Wade has had enough of it.

While on their way to a dance on Rock creek last Thursday evening J. L. Butler and Miss Mary Marker met with what might have been a very serious accident. They were driving along in a sleigh when near the place of Fin Thomas one of the bridles came off and the team became unmanageable and "ran off," upsetting the sleigh, spilling the occupants. Miss Marker escaped with slight injuries, while Johnnie holding to the lines was dragged some distance, his face being badly bruised. At last he let go and the team disappeared in the darkness, but the young folks were not to be discouraged by such trifles; they borrowed another team and went on. After going three or four miles they found the first team, tied it to the fence and proceeded on to the dance; had a good time, then came back to where the team was tied; each drove a team until the borrowed team was returned. Some evil-disposed persons seem to think Johnnie was holding the lines with his teeth and, being something of a novice in this style of driving, the above results were brought about. We cannot tell how this may be, but suggest he get an old crippled team and hang the lines over the dashboard on future occasions of this kind.

The neighbors in the vicinity of Clem last Saturday evening made up their minds to have a surprise party; so loading up, they drove to the residence of that cranky old bachelor, W. R. Boyer, raised a concerted yell that must have caused the coyotes to stick their heads in the straw stacks for very shame—considering their occupation gone. The above-mentioned old crank, all unconscious of their approach, was completely "rattled" and as the jolly crew filed in at the door he asked one of them to pinch his ear so he could tell whether he was alive or not; but they didn't allow his amazement to stop the fun. They cleared the floor and danced until tired; spread a feast of delicacies brought from home (as they seemed to know something of the scanty nature of bachelor larders). After supper they danced a short time and returned to their homes all seeming to have greatly enjoyed the party. Boyer seemed to think he had done a bright thing by locking a young couple (who had lagged behind) in the cellar, expecting to hear frenzied calls for deliverance, but hearing none he thought it best to let them out, as they might make sad inroads on his grub. On opening the door he found them seemingly as well contented as a pair of young kittens and he was obliged to go down and drive them out. SKYRANCHER.

A minister wished to ascertain what influence the hard times had upon his congregation, and said at the close of his sermon: "I would ask every one who still is able to pay his debts to rise from his seat." The whole congregation arose, with the exception of one man. The parson then asked that all those who were unable to meet their bills should rise. Thereupon the aforementioned solitary individual got up, a hungry-looking, poorly-clad man, whose features revealed the terrible struggle of one fighting hopelessly against the vicissitudes of this world. The minister regarded him attentively, yet kindly. "How is it, my friend," he said, "that you are the only one among all these people who cannot pay his debts?" "Sir," answered the man, hesitatingly, "I publish a newspaper, and these my brothers who rise just now are all subscribers, and—" But the minister interrupted him hastily. "Let us pray," he said.—Exchange.
