papers comment upon the new American loan as follows:

can loan as follows:

The Pall Mall Gazette—How far the man in the street is contributing to the success of the issue or how far this initial success will be due to the power of "haute finance" it is impossible to say. The former has been warned by the more conservative of his advisors to leave the bonds alone. He cannot have his eyes opened too widely to the fact that the interest of the bonds must be paid and that the bonds themselves are liable to be repaid thirty years hence, not in gold, but in silver or nickel, or other coin of the United States. No one could blame the United States if, finding themselves under financial pressure, they preferred to make the bond payments in coin other than gold, a privilege for which they would pay dearly and with much discontent. This consideration will always hang like a pall over these bonds and render the investor who cannot afford the loan, therefore, is all the more a triumple for those man-The great success of the loan, therefore, is all the more a triumph for those managing it, and for the credit of the United States.

The Daily Graphic—Before the lists of the American loan had been open two hours the loan was covered fifteen times over. There is nothing surprising in this, however, as both the securities and interest in this investment are exceptional. Every credit is due Mr. Cleveland for the tenacity and resource with which he has staved off what might have been a serious disaster.

The Daily News—There is reason to believe that the part of the American loss offered here was covered reason.

The Financial News will say that the lesson ought not to be thrown away on congress that a loss of $530,000 annually will be caused the treasury by the obstinacy of the members in not authorizing a gold loan.

He selected a cabin a few miles from Suisun on the side of a gulch and prepared a cave on the other slope of the canyon for his workshop. The cave was difficult of access, and the entrance was so arranged that it would have been hard to find it even if one had known of its existence. It was reached through a hole, which had a lid covered with earth and grass. The cave had a furnace with a chimney, the outlet of which was in a clump of brush. The counterfeiter was so careful in his work that he did not even keep his plant in the cave. When he had done with the tools be took the molds and metal and buried them at different points, and also buried his counterfeit money. This was so abundant that Harris brought back $70 in dant that Harris brought back $70 in unfinished dollars, quarters and dimes. A bag of the "stuff" was found at the foot of nearly every bush near the vicinity of the cave. Four plaster-of-paris moulds of fine make were found with the ladles and metal. The compound used was antimony, tin and isinglass.
The moids completed the coins even to the milling, and the pieces needed only polish and a silver bath and then they were ready to deceive even an expert. Montelbaum was liberal with the product of his mint. He lost his money at poker without a murmur and paid high prices for Solano provisions and liquor with good grace. Though Montelbaum worked alone, it is thought he had accomplices to aid him in circulating his spurious silver. The secret service detectives are now on the trail of Skyen, Alfred Myers, Walter A. district. In this letter Mr. Kimbrough Burleigh, jr., and George E. Wright; to stated that the only thing which has engage in mining for coal, iron and seemed to deter the negroes so far has been the fear of the military company of Harris, the Gordon troop. That a pre-concerted arrangement was made to destroy the effectiveness of the military company, he says, is evinced by the fact that during the early morning hours of Feburary 14, the house of Captain J. S. Clark, the commander of the Gordon troop, the place where the arms, sabers and ammunition of this company were stored, was set on fire, and together with its entire contents was destroyed. To bring the incendiaries to justice the governor is appealed to to offer rewards for was finally passed. If it become law it their capture. The situation at present does not warrant the sending of other troops to the scene, but further develop-ments are awaited with considerable uneasiness in the governor's office. Governor Atkinson at once took the matter up, and the reward will be offered just as soon as the papers can be properly made out.

MADE UP OF LIES.

What Dr. McDaniels Saw of the Alleged Torture of Captain Davies.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 21,-Dr. W. H. McDaniel, who was in Honolulu during the recent rebellion, says that there is no truth in the statement that Captain William Davies, of the steamer Waimanolo, was tortured by Hawaiian officers to extort confession from him. It was published that the captain was hung up by the thumbs until he told important secrets of the rebels.

"It is a lie out of whole cloth," said Dr. McDaniel, "and any one who knows anything about the way affairs in the islands are conducted or has any conception of the policy of the government, takes no stock in the story. I was in Honolulu on business during the whole Honolulu on business during the whole rebellion, and from my knowledge of affairs and the officials I know that such a thing could not have occurred. It is the policy of President Dole and his advisers to keep as far as possible from any quarrel with outside nations and particularly the United States, of which Contain Daviss is a citizen." TO MEET DEFICIENCIES.

Secretary Carlisle Thinks He Should Have More Authority.

WASHINGTON, February 21.—Secretary Proposed Appropriations for Carlisle to-day sent a reply to the senate resolution inquiring whether "it is necessary or desirable that legislation should be had authorizing the issuing of CLEVER METHODS PURSUED bonds, treasury notes or other securities to realize moneys for the purpose of paying current deficiencies in the reve-nue." The secretary says he does not Succeeded So Well That All the Consider such authority now necessary. Banks of Solano County Took the His communication is as follows:

"The cash balance in the treasury at the close of business on the 18th inst., exclusive of $55,101,704 gold reserve, was $99,875,284.

"It is my opinion that the secretary of the treasury ought to be permanently invested with the authority to issue short time bonds or other obligations of the government for the purpose of rais-ing money to meet such deticiencies in the ordinary revenues as may occur from time to time; but I do not think there is any necessity at the present time for the exercise of such authority, if it existed. It is probable that such deficiencies will occur during the re-mainder of the current fiscal year as will exceed the available balance on hand, and it is estimated that during the next fiscal year the receipts will exceed the expenditures."

This letter is accepted in the senate as having a direct bearing upon the amendment to the sundry civil bill proposed by the senate committee on appropriations providing for an issue of certificates of indebtedness. Many sen-ators who have given their assent to the amendment have stated from the beginning that they would agree to the proposition only upon the direct request of the secretary for such action. This has been especially true of the silver senators.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL

Public Improvements.

THE AMENDMENTS SUGGESTED

One Provides for One Hundred Million Dollars in Certificates of Indebtedness for Deficiencies-Seventy Thousand Dollars for Buildings.

Washington, February 20 .- The full enate committee on appropriations decided to report an amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill for $100,-000,000 in certificates of indebtedness of denomination of $20 to run for two years and draw 3 per cent interest, and be good only for the purpose of supplying the treasury deficiency. The proposition in the bill repealing the law for the issuance of gold certificates is stricken out and the following added as a proviso to the appropriation for printing and engraving:

"That hereafter no portion of this sum shall be expended for printing United States notes or treasury notes of larger denomination than those that may be canceled or retired."

The wording of the house proviso appropriating $134,000 to carry into effect the interstate commerce law is changed so as to prohibit the use of more than $20,000 in the employ of counsel. A general enactment in lieu of the act of 1893 is made concerning the survey of railroad land grants. One fund of $25,made a continuing appropriation. The house provision making the appropriate ation for rivers and harbors immediately available is stricken out. The entire appropriation made harbors immediately available is stricken out. The entire appropriation made has the hill. propriation made by the bill, as re-ported, is $41,599,145, an increase of $2,-521,424 over the total of the house bill. This increase does not include the $6,-000,000 estimate for paying the sugar bounty claims.

In the absence of Senator Cullom the committee divided on the proposition to pay half of the bounty on sugar for the year 1894, as authorized by the McKinley law. The sum to be appropriated for this purpose is about $6,000,000.

Seventy thousand dollars is appropriated for proposed buildings at Cheyenne, Wyoming, Boise City, Idaho, and Helena, Mont.

THE WRONG ONE TRIED.

False Evidence Given Against a Relative.

BAKER CITY, February 20 .- A peculiar case was entered in the circuit court today. It was one in which a man by the name of James Chamberlain, who lives on upper Burnt river, in this county, The witnesses for the state, five in number, were all relatives of the accused and it was shown by the defense that their testimony was false beyond question and given for the purpose of send-ing Chamberlain to the penitentiary to get rid of him. The case was submitted to the jury without argument and they promptly rendered a verdict of not guilty. It now turns out that Harvey Lancaster and M. Yeager killed the calf and in the endeavor to mix Chamberlain up in the matter convicted themselves. Lancaster pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to serve eighteen months
