

It is not generally known, but it is nevertheless true that taxes cannot, if the law be strictly followed, be paid in county orders after such taxes become delinquent. There is a law in the code that provides that all taxes shall be paid in gold or silver coin, but that orders may be used up to the time the sheriff returns unpaid taxes as delinquent, which, it is provided shall take place on the first Monday in April. The sheriff when he takes the tax roll is charged up with the amount of taxes to be collected. When he returns it he is credited by the county court with the cash and county orders he turns over. If orders received on taxes by the sheriff after the date prescribed by statute are offered in the settlement it is optional with the court whether the sheriff be given credit for them or not. Thus, the sheriff in accepting orders on taxes after the first Monday in April takes chances of being left with a lot of county orders in his hands, should the county court conclude to strictly follow the law.

Senator J. A. Smith of Sherman, one of the ablest and most conscientious members of the recent session of the legislature, introduced and secured the passage through both houses of a bill regulating railway traffic between Celilo and The Dalles. It causes the O. R. & N. tracks to be used as a portage at a maximum rate for transportation, whenever any person or persons, company or corporations shall grade and furnish with ties without cost to the O. R. & N. a switch, siding or incline from the line of the O. R. & N. to the water's edge at Celilo, and also at The Dalles. It is the first great step towards an open river, and proposes to do this without cost to the state. Mr. Smith is today, and always has been, a democrat. If the state of Oregon had more public servants of the kind Mr. Smith has proved himself to be, there would be but little need of so much partisanship. —Heppner Gazette.

Lewiston Teller: A warning to all county division advocates is to be found in the history of the Alturas county division. Alturas county was first divided and Logan county created. This came about after a bitter fight and the division of property and the proportionment of debts increased the bitterness. In the first session of the legislature a bill was passed creating Alta and Lincoln counties out of the old territory, but this was annulled in the courts after a long struggle. Now at the present session comes a bill to consolidate Alturas and Logan counties because they alone are unable to stand the expense of county government. The new county divisionists would do well to study the history of the example here given before rushing into evils that they know not of.

In this week's San Francisco Examiner is an article on the subject of corsets, which is illustrated by a picture of two skeletons, one of a girl who wore corsets and the other of a girl who wore them not. It can be seen at a glance that the skeleton of the latter is much the finer looking. How the two girls compared when the skeletons were still clothed with flesh, of course, we do not know; but any young man, or at least any sensible young man, who desires to marry for the purpose of keeping his wife's skeleton for exhibition, will do well to choose a girl whose waist has never been compressed by anything more staying than the masculine arm.

At the city election in Philadelphia, Tuesday, C. F. Warwick, the republican candidate for mayor, was elected over ex-Governor Pattison by 60,000 majority. This shoves Governor Pattison as a presidential possibility. He was twice elected governor of the strong republican state of Pennsylvania, and if he could have been elected mayor of the republican city of Philadelphia it might have started his boom for the presidential nominations next year on the democratic ticket.

A San Francisco paper says the completion of the Nicaragua canal will add 25 per cent to the value of every piece of property in that city. If it will do that for the Golden Gate City it will do as much for every city in the Northwest, as well as for every farm. It will add from 5 to 10 cents on every bushel of wheat raised, a fact alone that should make every resident of the Pacific coast hustle for any measure that will result in its construction. —Albany Democrat.

W. W. Saunders has been admitted to the practice of law at Spokane, Wash., upon recommendation of J. E. Felton and G. W. Belt. Mr. Belt is the district attorney who prosecuted him for the murder of Charles Campbell. Saunders was pardoned by Gov. Penoyer. From the penitentiary to the bar. And there are lots of attorneys that should be transferred from the bar to the penitentiary. —Marshfield Sun.

Ex-Congressman W. L. Wilson has been appointed postmaster-general in place of W. S. Bissell, who resigned last week. Mr. Wilson was elected to congress from West Virginia in 1882, and was closely connected with the tariff tinkering of Mills, assisting in perfecting what was known as the Mills bill.

The Arizona legislature has declared in favor of woman suffrage and it looks as if California would do likewise. An exchange commenting on the subject says that the woman of the present day had forsaken the vocation God had given her, now being a keen and constant competitor of man.

What did the legislature do? Why, it elected McBride, within forty days, too, at a cost of not less than $100,000 to the people of the state of Oregon. Such an office comes high, you know, but since the people pay the bill, what do the peanut politicians care? Not a continental! —E. O.

A bill has been approved by Governor McGraw, of Washington, requiring that not less than 10 minutes each week shall be devoted in the public schools to systematic teaching of kindness to not only our domestic animals but to all living creatures.

The Oregonian sarcastically remarks that "banks and railroads, after a while, will be regarded as necessary in Oregon, and men will cease to try to destroy them. We shall become in time as intelligent and civilized as people in other states."

Representative Clarence Cole of Portland has sued the Oregonian for $25,000 damages for calling him a "stinkard" and other pet names —the result of his refusing to support Dolph for senator.

Our "old girl" Miss Anna Gould was married in New York Monday to Count Paul Ernest Boniface de Castellane, and they have already sailed for Paris, where they will reside. Good-bye!

Oregon had 117 clerks for 90 legislators while Washington had less than 50 clerks for 112 legislators and only 68 legislative employees, all told. —Ex.

The sheriff of Cook county, Ill. (Chicago) gets 25 cents a day for feeding each prisoner under his charge, and he is said to make $50,000 a year out of it.

The cost of running the government under Jefferson was 60 cents per capita. At present it is $7. Upwards of a "damsite" of difference.

A Grand Entertainment.

Olex, March 1st. The entertainment given at Olex on the 28th of February was a decided success and was heartily enjoyed by a large audience. Parties commenced gathering at the school house at an early hour in order to secure seats, and continued to come until the house was completely packed, there not being even standing room, and some were obliged to look through the windows. The following program was rendered in a very creditable manner, which speaks well for those who took part: Song of welcome—by the choir. Recitation—Miss Anna Schott. Recitation—Mabel Randall. Song—Mrs. Chas. Royse. Dialogue, "Going to a new Home," by Miss Edie Randall, Miss Mary Huber, Messrs. Chas. Royse, A. J. Osborne, J. A. Crum, Willard Crum. Recitation—Mrs. H. J. Nott. Song—L. O. Ralston. Drama, "Paddle Your Own Canoe" by Misses Edie Randall, Anna Schott, Mary Huber and Messrs. T. C. Mobier, Chas. Royse, Willard Crum, Ed Huber, Val Huber, A. J. Osborne, L. O. Ralston. Song, "Praise the Lord"—by the choir. Recitation—Mrs. L. O. Ralston. Recitation—Con. Schott. Dialogue, "Tars Farewell," by Miss Anna Schott and Henry Taylor. The minstrels then gave a varied exercise consisting of songs and merry making, after which everybody partook of a free lunch and those who did not care to dance went to their homes, feeling well paid for their time and money. All who enjoy dancing spent a few hours in that favorite amusement and all were well satisfied with the night's exercise. REPORTER.

Our local druggist desires us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfeld of Reedley, Fresno Co., Cal., as he handles the remedy referred to and wants his customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs. For sale by L. W. Darling & Co. County Warrants at Face. How to Cure Rheumatism.

ARAGO, COOS CO., OREGON, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. BULLOCK. Fifty cent and $1 bottles for sale by L. W. Darling & Co.
