The farmers about Silver Lake, Or., are desirous of establishing a creamery. The school census in Corvallis, Or., shows 352 females and 316 males; total 668.

An effort is being made to start up the Coeets, Wash., mill plant that has been idle for a year. The city council of Seattle has donated $200 to the Salvation army to be used in its labor relief work.

It is proposed to hold an encampment of G. A. E. veterans of Eastern Oregon at Elgin, July 23 and 24. There are 12,000 sacks of grain in the Monkland district of Sherman county, Or., yet in the farmers' hands.

Four regulars and eight specials are to be dropped from the Spokane police force in the interest of economy. As soon as the weather is suitable the prisoners in Spokane county, Wash., jail will be set to work on the roads.

The woolen mills at Bandon, Or., are running overtime with orders enough to keep at it all summer. A shortage of wool is threatened. Many owners of hopyards are putting up the wire system this spring. It costs but little more than poles and lasts for a number of years.

A public wool warehouse and market will be established at Baker City, Or. It will be 60x100 feet, of corrugated iron, on stone foundation. It is said there is to be a boom in the Altohous mining district this year, and that 150 stamps will be at work in the vicinity of Brown town.

The Heppner, Or., board of trade has appointed a committee to see what can be done to open a road between that city and Parris creek. A subscription is being taken among the sportsmen of Walla Walla, Wash., for the importation of 400 pairs of bob-white quail to stock that section.

A Tacoma, Wash., firm is making large shipments of eggs to Montana. This is a result of the Eastern blizzard cutting off the supply from that direction. The business men and farmers of La Center, Amboy, Chelatchie and Yacolt, Wash., are talking of jointly building a good road in that region eighteen miles long.

There is a project on foot to open up a trail and postal route between Grant's Pass and Gold Beach, Or., by way of the junction of Rogue and Illinois rivers. Illabe, Reuben and Leland. The Salem, Or., postmaster has been directed by the postal department to discharge one carrier from his force. A remonstrance petition is being signed to be forwarded to the postmaster-general.

The telephone system from Spokane to Coeur d'Alene is to be extended to Helena and other Montana points, twenty-five miles of wire being put under ground in crossing the Coeur d'Alene.

Olympia people are determined to resent to the utmost the action of Tacoma's newspapers and chamber of commerce in regard to the continuance of work on the capitol, and business men are correspondingly grateful for Seattle's friendliness on what is to Olympia the all-important question.

A compromise has been effected in the affairs of the Aberdeen, Wash., bank, and joint receivers have been appointed by the superior court. In consequence the appeal has been withdrawn, and the receivers are now hard at work endeavoring to straighten out the tangle. The receivers are: J. P. Carson, of Montezano, and Eugene France, of Aberdeen. Both are well-known business men, and depositors can rest satisfied that their interests will be protected in every way possible.

Senator Campbell's bill, which is practically for the relief of the city of Tacoma, Wash., in permitting an extension of the water system, passed the senate, and was immediately transmitted to the house and passed there. Two years ago the city of Tacoma at a special election appropriated $300,000 for the extension of its water system to Pattison springs. These did not have the capacity supposed, and as the money was voted for a special purpose it was impossible to extend the system in any other direction without another vote of the people. The bill is for the purpose of again submitting the matter.
