Foster, American adviser for China, visited the Japanese minister of foreign affairs.

AT THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, March 21.-Li Hung Chang's arrival in Japan is regarded in official circles as one of the most significant events of recent days. It is the first time in his life that the venerable statesman of China has set foot outside of Chinese soil. At his advanced age he now journeys to China's traditional foe to offer enormous concessions as a means of securing peace. It can be stated positively and authoritatively that the terms of peace are already understood and all that remains to be done is to arrange details within certain specified limits. The general terms have been brought about by the efforts of United States Minister Denby in China and Dun in Tokio. It was even feared at a late date that Li's mission might fall through because of the vegness of his through, because of the vagueness of his authority to treat for the cession of ter-ritory. This was arranged, however, through the activity of the United States ministers, who showed that unless this was obviated the mission would otherwise prove futile. The general terms of Li Hung Chang's DENVER authority are to cede territory, pay a cash indemnity, grant the independence of Corea and arrange a new treaty re-lation with Japan, by which Japanese OMAHA extra-territorial jurisdiction in China will be maintained. The exact amount of the cash indemnity is not fixed, nor is the kind of metal it is to be paid in agreed upon. These and the boundaries of the ceded territory are yet to be ar-ST. The reports that Russia will For full details call on O. R. & N. intervene to stop the agreement are known to be misleading, from positive information received here. The authorities believe there will be no trouble caused by Russia. The same is be-lieved to be true as to France, although not with the same certainty.

The Sailors' Strike.

San Francisco, March 22 .- The sailors' strike is tying up vessels, which are unable to leave the harbor without submitting to the demands of the Coast Seamen's Union. Sailors are holding to their resolution to be paid $35 a month or remain ashore. The agents of the ship Palmyra, ready for sea to-day, offered the union men $30, but they would accept not less than $35, although previous to the present stand they were receiving only $25 per month. Sailor bearding-house proprietors are trying to ship colored men as sailors at less than union wages.

IS STILL A MYSTERY.

Identity of the Spanish Cruiser Which Fired on the Allianca.

WASHINGTON, March 21 .- Nothing is known here of the reported action of the Spanish ships Infanta Isabella or Arcedo firing on American vessels. There is good ground, however, for believing AND WILL NO DOUBT SUCCEED that the ship sailing from Savannah with Cuban arms aboard will furnish an actual case of detention if she is overhauled. Careful investigation is proceeding as to the cargo shipped by the Allianca at Colon, allegations that arms were taken aboard under cover of dark-SIMONOSAKI, March 21.—Viceroy L ness having been made. Communica-Hung Chang and suite arrived here this from Cuba that the Code in Washington was the Spanish warship firing on the Allianca. These advices said that the latter ship was flying a British flag. There is further news as to the report by Secretary Gresham of a reply from Spain to his demand, but there is reason to believe the published reports have failed to state some important reserva-tions by Spain. One part of Spain's answer may consist in calling attention to a charge that in November last a number of Spanish Cubans were fishing in the Gulf of Mexico, when they were fired upon by a United States revenue cutter, first with cannon and later with small arms. The firing, it is said, occurred twelve miles from land. The Spaniards were carried to New Orleans, where, it is said the United States court released them. Spain has not thus far made a protest, but may do so, now that the United States has protested against the firing on the Allianca.

As far as can be learned the state decruiser which fired upon the Allianca. As the commander of the Conde de Venernment is not disposed to be unduly exacting in the matter of a speedy response from the Spanish government, inasmuch as the entire Spanish cabinet has resigned.

Oregon Sheep Must Be Inspected. HELENA, Mont., March 22 .- The governor to-day issued a proclamation forbidding the importation into the state without inspection of sheep from Oregon, Nevada, California, Washington, Idaho, Colorado, Utah and New Mexico, because of danger of scab and other diseases. Importations will be allowed upon certificate of a state veterinarian that the sheep have been inspected and ound free from disease. The proclamation does not forbid the passing of sheep through the state, but while passing they must not be unloaded for grazing.

Litigation Ended at Last. San Francisco, March 22 .- Mrs. Alice Edith Dickason-Blythe has withdrawn from the contest over the estate of Thomas Blythe after twenty years of litigation, signing a release of all claims and receiving a cash consideration of $1,000. Eight months ago she says she was offered $175 a month for life if she would withdraw from the contest, but refused this offer on her attorney's advice. She says the litigation has wrecked

THE FAIR MILLIONS

A Startling Sensation in the Contested Division.

It Was Left With a Young Lady Teacher in the Public Schools, and Warm Friend of the Senator's, and Was Written in Her Presence.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20 .- The contention in the courts over the millions left by James G. Fair developed another sensation this morning. When the case was called before Superior Judge Slack a great stir was caused by the Reuben Lloyd, who has been retained in the case by Mrs. Oelrichs and Virginia Fair, daughters of the deceased. This alleged will divides the estate almost equally between the two daughfor the Southern district of Louisiana asylums, and makes no provisions for such a trust as the estate is left in control of under the will previously filed. said he would prove that the existence of this will had been known to several adito reported the steamer upon which he fired was flying the British flag, there is a possibility that his story refers to another incident, which may result in bringing Great Britain to the defense of not produced it because she had read not produced it because she had read not produced it because she had read to the characteristics. bringing Great Britain to the defense of her ensign, for the Spanish cruiser, according to the position taken by Secretary Gresham, was bound to accept the colors displayed in answer to the signals establishing the nationality of the vessels. It begins to appear that our government of the old lady had not produced it because she had read of the other wi' being offered for probate, and had supposed that it was a later document than the one she held. The fact that this new alleged will has been presented in court by Attorney and his sisters have joined forces to con-test the will of their father.

The attorneys who represent the exe cutors under the will previously filed, and of which the original copy was stolen, intimated very strongly that they believed this latest alleged will to SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR. be a forgery. The case was finally continued to April 2. The alleged will produced to-day bequeaths to various brothers and sisters of deceased and their children about the and the balance of the $40,000,000 estate

His son, Charles Fair, is left $500,000, to be paid to him by the executors be-fore the final division of the estate. All the rest of the estate and properties of whatsoever kind is left to his three children, Theresa Oelrichs, Charles L. Fair and Virginia Fair, share and share alike, and their children forever. Should any child die without issue, said child's share is to go to the surviving children, share and share alike. The will appoints James L. Augus, Thomas Crothers and Dr. Livingstone executors, without bonds.

THE KEEPER OF THE WILL, cipal in the public schools, and who was a great friend of Senator Fair. The will was written in the house of Mrs. Haskins, with whom Mrs. Craven lived, and in the presence of both witnesses. It came about in this way: Senator Fair had gone to visit Mrs. Craven, and their conversation turned to wills, and Fair said that his lawyers did not seem to get his will just as he would like it, and made several other remarks, which led Mrs. Craven to propose that he make a new will then and there, and have her as witness, and that he make a pro-vision in the will for a fund for the support of school teachers who had taught for twenty-five years or more. To all this the senator agreed, and then sat down and wrote the paper which was presented to the court to-day. The reason assigned for keeping the new will so long in the background is that the custodian did not look at the date of the will when Fair died, and when the other will was made public she thought it was one of later date.
