FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1895.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Hugh Medlock Caught at Last.

Hugh Medlock, the notorious horse-thief, who has been pursued by half a dozen officers all through the mountains of Eastern Oregon for the past six weeks, was captured by G. A. Hutchinson, near Ukiah, 70 miles south of Pendleton, and was brought to Pendleton Friday, where he is safely under lock and key in default of $500 bonds. He is wanted in Unatilla, Union, Grant and Gilliam counties, and also in the states of Washington and California on charges of horse stealing.

He was captured by G. A. Hutchinson, the mail carrier between Ukiah and Long Creek, with whom Sheriff Houser left particular instructions, deputizing him to effect if possible, the horse-thief's capture. Sheriff Houser and Constable Walden tracked Medlock as far away as Ochoco creek in Crook county. Upon their retreat Medlock retraced his steps, returned to the Heppner vicinity, and thence around Willow creek and Butter creek in the neighborhood of Ukiah. Mr. Hutchinson came in sight of Medlock Thursday evening just as the sun was setting, and mounting a horse followed in his footsteps for six miles, finally bringing him to bay near Ukiah.

"He's as hard to catch as a coyote," said Mr. Houser. The fellow could get horses faster than we could. He stole two or three more while we were after him. We traced him here and there, for at every point he stopped he gave himself away through his talk, but he dodged us right and left and pretty nearly wore us out."

The pursuit of Medlock has been one of the longest on record. He was raised near Milton and has traced and retraced the mountain trails of Eastern Oregon until they are familiar paths to him. Numerous charges have been lodged against him in several counties of this state, as well as in Washington and California, and his chances for spending the balance of his life in the penitentiary are very flattering.

The E. O. says Medlock is one of the best-natured criminals who ever appeared before a court, and conducted himself in an indifferent manner, quite surprising when the serious charges made against him are considered. He laughingly told about his long flight from the officers and said at one time he doubled on his tracks and came toward Sheriff Houser and Constable Walden. Hiding behind some huge boulders, he saw the officers pass within a few feet of him, for the path ran beside the rocks and he could have touched them with his hand. Medlock resents the accusation that he has appropriated to his use a large number of horses. He told Justice Parkes that when he got hold of a horse he trained him to jump fences, rocks and streams, and attributes his capture to the fact that he had a poor horse under him which was not good for a hard ride. With a good animal, says the prisoner, he could have eluded all the officers in Eastern Oregon. As he went along he told awful stories about the desperate Hugh Medlock and painted him as a bloodthirsty villain who would cut and shoot at sight. Medlock says he can furnish $500 bonds easily—but he hasn't furnished them yet.

Death of Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. G. S. Clark, who had been lying at the point of death for several months with consumption, died at her home in Condon Sunday morning at 3 o'clock and was buried in the cemetery here Monday at 11 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted in the school house at 10 a. m. by Rev. Curran, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives of the deceased. The deceased was born April 11, 1839, at Pompey Hill, New York, and at the age of 17 she married S. B. Baker. Four children was the result of this union, all of whom survive her. Two of them reside at Condon—Charley Baker and Mrs. Jas. A. Kiser; Mrs. Jennie Graham of Oregon City, this state, and Mrs. Wm. Dunwoody of Marquette, Mich. Mr. Baker died in 1874, and two years later the widow married G. S. Clark, and in 1887 they moved to Oregon. One child, Miss Ella Clark, is the result of this union. The husband and children have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Lone Rock Riplets.

We had a fine shower of rain Saturday, which does much good to the crops. Supervisor Henry Perry has a crew of men fixing up the roads in his district. The Lone Rock sheepshearing crew left Monday for the John Day, where they say shearers are pretty scarce.

An error in your last issue made it read that Decoration Day came on May 3d, when it should have read May 30th.

Lambing is about over, and the increase of the "bleaters" in this section is very large. The wool is the finest for some years and our sheepmen expect a good price for it.

One of our lady citizens one day this week challenged our old friend R. G. Robinson to "fight to a finish" on the street—still because he would not loan his back to her for a few days. Of course he was too much of a gentleman to accept, so there was no fun for the boys on that layout. J. Doe.

Found!

That you can get 18 lbs of granulated sugar for $1 at R. G. Robinson & Sons in Arlington. Buy soon.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of J. H. Miller & Dunn Bros. has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, J. H. Miller retiring. The business will be continued by Dunn Bros., who will assume all debts contracted by said firm. Parties indebted to this firm are requested to settle at once. J. H. MILLER & DUNN BROS. CONDON, OR., April 4, 1895.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Arlington Items.

A few loads of wool have come in already.

The bicycle craze has struck our city broadside.

Constable Barfoot was out to smile on official business last week.

Geo. Smith and family of Olex were in town Saturday on business.

Wm. P. Smith made final proof on his Hd. entry Saturday before Com. Gurley.

Mrs. John Rodgers, who had been on a visit to The Dalles, has returned home.

Our school, which has of late been very meagerly attended, will close this week.

G. W. Strong has secured a position as telegrapher on the O. R. & N. below The Dalles.

Mrs. A. C. Hawson and son Jesse were across the river visiting for a short time last week.

R. E. Wilson will sell his household goods and horses, etc., at public auction on May 10th.

Among those who went to Portland on Friday morning's train were Rev. Strong, Dr. and H. T. Dodson and Harry Clay.

Mrs. O. S. Ebi and little son Earnest left Friday morning on an extended visit to friends and relatives in the eastern states.

The reading circle met last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hawson, and decided to adjourn for the summer season.

A nice gold-filled ladies' watch was raffled off last week at Potter's jewelry shop for $25. J. W. Redford was the lucky mullion.

Sheepshearing is in full blast at the upper stable. The clip is very good, some of the fleeces weighing from 15 to 20 pounds.

A game of baseball was played here last Sunday between the Arlington and Blalock clubs, resulting in a victory for the latter. R. T. Cox umpired the game.

Mrs. D. S. Sprinkle had the misfortune this week to injure her finger. While sewing, a part of the needle broke off and remained in her finger, causing considerable pain.

The many friends of Dr. A. C. Hawson, proprietor of the celebrated "Dr. Hawson's Stomach Bitters," will be delighted to learn that he has just received a complete line of the latest-improved appliances for extracting teeth, and will be pleased to render professional services to all who may desire to have work of that kind done. Calls promptly attended to, day or night.

Two deaths occurred here this week. F. M. Shurte passed away on Thursday evening and was buried Friday afternoon. He was born in Cass county, Mich., 65 years ago. Five sons survive him, four of whom reside here. Rev. Green conducted the services at the M. L. church. A large number of friends of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson had the misfortune to lose their baby, a girl aged one year. The funeral occurred Sunday at 2 p. m.

Look Here!

All persons owing me on old accounts are hereby notified that immediate settlement must be made to my attorney, H. B. Hendricks, or costs will surely be made. G. S. CLARK, Blacksmith, Condon, Or.

Dance on May 3d.

I will give a ball in the Armory hall at Condon on Friday night, May 3d, to which all are invited. Tickets $1. JOHN KEENEY.

James W. Smith has tons of dry goods on the way from the East, which will be sold at prices to compare with 25c wheat and 6c wool.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by L. W. Darling.

James W. Smith has 20 lines of carpet to select from in prices from 35c to $1.50 per yard. When you have a dollar to spare go to James W. Smith's and see if it won't go further and spread over more goods than anywhere else in Eastern Oregon.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stamm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stamm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire, and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pain. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by L. W. Darling, Druggist.
