GLOBOSITIES.

County court meets next week.

Sheriff Wilcox made a trip to the Olex country this week on official business.

Mrs. V. E. Houston of Pendleton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fraser at Condon.

Dr. Hogan went over to Lone Rock Wednesday to visit his little son, John W. Hogan.

There were two accessions to the Eastern Star lodge here Saturday night—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Frazer.

It is rumored that Geo. Schott and Miss Hull, a school ma'am of Olex, will commit matrimony soon.

Tom J. Davidson, of Davidson postoffice, was over to our city Friday subscribing for the GLOBE and filing on a home-stead.

Mrs. Jennie Graham, who was present at the funeral of her mother, Mrs. G. S. Clark, will leave Friday for her home in Oregon City.

Henry Perry of Lone Rock and Frank Shannon of Condon made arrangements this week to prove-up on their home-steads before the county clerk.

Read Dunn Bros.' new ad and then go around to their store and buy something. Their stock is brand-new; of the best quality, and their prices 'way down.

W. A. Goodwin is painting Bill Dunlap's house a beautiful blue this week. Let the good work go on. Nothing improves the looks of a town so much as lots of fresh paint.

J. P. Lucas last week purchased two good horses, one from Gene Smith, the other from Wm. Morgan of Mayville, which he expects to take with him to Polk county soon.

Jas. Snipes, who owns 800 acres of excellent deeded land several miles east of Condon, left Saturday for his home in The Dalles, after a week's stay on the place, which is leased to Johnny Gross.

We learn that a man was held up in Arlington one day this week in broad day-light while he was on his way home. It was done by two of his friends, who could barely walk straight themselves.

L. W. Darling, W. S. Myers and Lloyd Farman each took a large hack to Arlington Monday to meet the ministers and delegates, mentioned elsewhere, arriving at Condon Tuesday evening about 4 o'clock.

Lee Stewart sent over the photographs this week, the negatives for which were taken several weeks ago, and consigned them to Edgar Moore to distribute. It is very good work and gives excellent satisfaction.

We regret to learn that our old friend Josephus Martin met with an accident at his home near Olex last week, by which his shoulder was dislocated. He is advertised to make proof on his bid, next Monday.

W. R. Boyer, the good-natured old back of Clem, was in town Monday renewing his subscription and attending to other business. Girls, he is one of the best catches in the county; why not "lay for him?"

H. B. Hendricks had his residence neatly painted inside and outside and papered this week by Geo. Gibbons. Last week several of Johnson & Wilcox's hacks and buggies were made to look brand-new under George's artistic brush.

Henry T. Propst of Clem has been very sick the last week or so with a severe case of cold, verging on pneumonia. Mrs. J. A. Richmond of Ferry Canyon is also very sick and under the treatment of Dr. Hudson for inflammatory rheumatism.

The Lebanon Advance says: A. J. Shelton, of Jordan, Linn county, will soon move to Mayville, Gilliam county, where he will go into the cattle business with E. P. Weir. Mr. Shelton is gathering up a band of 700 cattle to take with him to the bunchgrass country.

The little 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hendricks of Fossil, who was dangerously sick with appendicitis, was operated upon Friday last by Dr. Howard, assisted by Drs. Hogan of Condon and Pilkington of Antelope. At last reports he was getting along nicely.

Dr. Hudson was called out to prescribe for one of Dr. Dodson's little children Thursday night of last week for a case of croup. Dr. Dodson was away from home, having gone to Portland with his brother Henry T. Dodson, who went to the city for the purpose of having a rodent ulcer operated upon.

The Globe advertisers never fail to get good value for their money. The lost diamond ring advertised by Coe Barnard was found in the road near Thirtyville last week by one of H. W. Pentecost's boys, who turned it over to the owner and received as a reward $5. The Globe has three times more circulation than any other paper in the county and is therefore the best advertising medium.

Geo. Tatom and Shed Grider, who accompanied S. B. Barker with his shipment of sheep to Chicago, arrived home Monday. Mr. Barker is expected home Monday or Tuesday next. By the time his sheep arrived in Chicago the prices of sheep fell considerably, and Mr. Barker did not realize as much for them as he was offered by buyers at Arlington before shipping. Shipping stock of any kind is a very uncertain venture, as many of our stockmen have learned to their sorrow.

Mrs. J. H. Miller has been very sick the last ten days. Her husband was notified to come home at once, and he arrived here Tuesday from Caldwell, Idaho. At present she is resting easier, but is in a dangerous condition yet. Mr. Miller has concluded to go into the merchandise business at Caldwell, a town of about 1200 inhabitants, on the Union Pacific railroad. He is having a large building erected and it will not be ready for occupancy until about Aug. 1st. He is well pleased with that location.

The Norse Musee Company "showed" at Condon Friday afternoon and Saturday evening, to rather slim crowds. They had for exhibition what they claim is a genuine mummy plant, nine feet long, which is the main feature of the show. There were several performing dogs, dialogues, fire-eating and gun-chewing feats that were highly interesting. Before leaving here one of the actors had a "bust-up" and left, going footback to Arlington—the way most barnstorming actors travel. The other portion of the show went to Fossil and Mitchell.

The opening of the Orange Front drug store last Saturday evening, April 20th, was a most successful affair, the Kineto-cope exhibition being one of the greatest drawing cards. From 4 p. m. until the closing hour the spacious room was crowded with ladies and gentlemen admiring the richness of the fixtures and the completeness of the stock. Valuable souvenirs were distributed among the ladies attending. The proprietors, Johnson & Edwards, are genial, wide-awake and conservative business men and it is the wish of the Blade that success will crown their efforts.—Baker City Blade.

Our town was full of Odd Fellows Friday, most of the members of that order from all over this county having met here for the purpose of celebrating the 70th anniversary of that order. In the afternoon Rev. W. H. Zellers delivered an interesting speech on the merits of the order, followed by an appropriate recitation by Rev. E. Curran. In the evening an I. O. O. F. lodge was organized here with the following charter members, L. Parker acting in the capacity of Special Deputy Grand Master: W. A. Darling, E. E. Smith, W. L. Wilcox, T. G. Johnson, R. H. Robinson, T. G. Earhart, A. Hartman, Robt. Spencer, J. F. Thomas, Henry Wilkins, Herbert Halstead, C. A. Danneman and Geo. Knox, all of whom were old members of the order. The following officers were elected: W. A. Darling, N. G.; E. E. Smith, V. G.; W. L. Wilcox, Secretary. Three new members were initiated—J. P. Lucas, H. N. Frazer, Edgar Moore. A fine supper was prepared in the hall by Mrs. E. E. Smith.

The Congregational Conference.

The Mid-Columbia Association of Churches and Ministers met here Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Quite a large number of delegates were present, representing the work of the Congregational churches in Eastern Oregon. The sessions of the association were well attended and laden with interest. The papers read on the various subjects gave evidence of great care and preparation, and were of excellent merit.

Prominent among the distinguished visitors was Thomas McClelland, D. D., president of Pacific University. Mr. McClelland is an interesting speaker as well as a great thinker.

The delegates were entertained in royal style by the good people of Condon, most of whom were present during all the sessions of the association, to show their appreciation of the honor that has been conferred upon the city by the leaders in Congregationalism in Eastern Oregon. The following is a complete list of ministers and delegates present from a distance:

Revs. T. McClelland of Forest Grove, C. F. Clapp and R. A. Rowley of Portland, J. L. Hersher of Hood River, A. R. Olds of Weston, W. C. Curtis and E. H. Merrill of The Dalles, A. R. Olds of Weston, E. R. Beach of Lexington, J. A. McKinley of Pendleton, W. H. Zellers of Fossil.

Laymen present: Mrs. A. R. Beach and Mrs. L. H. Brown of Lexington, Mrs. S. A. Lowell and Mrs. V. E. Houston of Pendleton, Mrs. W. O. Minor and Miss Anna Baisger of Heppner, Miss G. Schofield of Lone, and Miss Maggie Keys of Mayville.

Lester—Sherrard Wedding.

Married, in the parlor of the Maddock hotel at Condon on Monday evening, April 29, 1895, at 9 o'clock, Mr. Samuel A. Lester of Mitchell, Crook county, and Miss Lizzie Sherrard of Sumner, Coos county, Justice S. P. Shutt performing the ceremony.

This marriage was to have taken place on Feb. 18th at Spokane, where Miss Sherrard was visiting her sister, and for which finely printed invitations were out; but the wedding failed to connect, through several letters written by the parties concerning their marriage, being lost in the mails. Finally it was arranged for Mr. Lester to meet his intended wife at Arlington, and get married in this county, which he did on Sunday night, arriving Monday evening at Condon, where a license was procured from the county clerk and the marriage consummated, as above stated.

The groom is the proprietor of the drug store at Mitchell and is a well-to-do and prominent business man, who was formerly clerk of the Warm Spring Indian reservation. He is a young man of excellent character and was what is usually termed a "good catch" for any young lady. The bride is a highly-cultivated and intelligent young lady, having completed her education recently by a 3-year course in the Portland Business College, from which she graduated with high honors. Before going to college she learned the art of type-setting in the Roseburg Review office. At the ceremony the bride was attired in a beautiful cream-colored Henrietta dress, made in the latest style and trimmed with the finest lace, and could not have looked more charming.

The happy young couple left Tuesday for Mitchell, where they will go to house-keeping at once with the best wishes of a host of friends.
