STATE OF OREGON.

County of Gilliam, ss
 I, H. N. Frazer, county clerk of said Gilliam county hereby certify that the foregoing transcript has been by me carefully compared with, and is a true copy, and I the whole thereof of the original docket entries of the county court proceedings at Gilliam county, Oregon, July term, 1895.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my official seal this 8th day of July, 1895.
 H. N. FRAZER, County Clerk.

 World's Fair Highest Award.

A law punishing highway and train robbery by imprisonment for life would be very just, and possibly salutary; and if there could be in every state a standing reward for the capture, dead or alive, of such a robber, the recent experiences of California railroads and Oregon stage lines would be less frequent.

If the supreme court exercised greater care in the matter of admission of attorneys to the bar, a vast amount of useless and wasteful litigation would be avoided. Almost any one can be admitted to the bar in Oregon, and it is poor credit to the bench and bar that such is a fact.—Chronicle.

An exchange says when a Frenchman is intoxicated he wants to dance, a German to sing, a Spaniard to gamble, an Englishman to eat, an Italian to boast, an Irishman to fight, and an American to make a speech.

At his trial at Syracuse, N. Y., last week Pugilist Fitzsimmons was acquitted for killing his sparring partner, Con Riordan, last winter during a boxing match.

The O. R. & N. Co., always alert to the welfare of their patrons, have placed on sale at principal stations a 1000-mile ticket at the rate of three cents per mile, good for one year from date of sale and good for passage over the rail and water lines of their system.

Treasurer's Notice.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Briceland, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." For sale by L. W. Darling druggist.

Among the numerous persons who have been cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, mention should be made of Mrs. Emily Thorne, of Toledo, Wash., who says: "I have never been able to procure any medicine that would relieve me of rheumatism like Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I have also used it for a lame back with great success. It is the best liniment I have ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends." For sale by L. W. Darling druggist.
