

By the way the law now reads certain graduates of the state university, and perhaps other colleges of the state, are entitled to receive diplomas, entitling the recipients to teach in the public schools. This law ought to be changed. Only one class of schools in the state ought to be authorized to grant diplomas—the normal schools. As well might Forest Grove or Monmouth grant diplomas or medical sheepskins. The state university does not pretend to give a course in pedagogics except as a side issue, hence the law ought to be repealed and permit schools to make teachers for that high office. University seems to be charlatracy. While other schools are hard of scholarship people seem to be re advertising to be admitted.—Hillsboro In

"It is a most striking experience that has occurred in the last ten years," says a prominent Portland minister, "that most of the girls I marry seem to prefer husbands much older than their own. I have discussed the matter with brother clergymen, and their experience is the same as mine. All the prettiest brides that come before me in church seem to marry men between thirty-five and forty-five, or older ones still. I can't but think that girls are much more sensible than they used to be, and think that solid men of assured position will make them happier in life than young men, who have never shown their quality and may turn out worthless anyhow. Statistics, I say, bear out my experience."

The girl who gives way to the desire to gad about the streets, to cultivate the acquaintance and admiration of every street hoodlum and loafer and act simperingly, is laying the foundation for a useless after life, and when married she will develop into a slatternly gossip, if no greater misfortune befalls her. It is the girl who loves home and helps mother that wins the model man and becomes an ornament to womanhood. The girl who does this and devotes some of her time to reading and striving for the graces of mental culture commands the esteem and respect of everybody.—Exchange.

The credit of Wasco is unsurpassed by any county in the state. Nothing attests that fact more than the eagerness with which its warrants are sought. A letter was received this morning from outside parties offering to take $40,000 of warrants at par and for larger amounts a premium would be paid. This is the best evidence of our good reputation.—Chronicle.

There are twenty-five well-built towns in Kansas without a single inhabitant to waken the echoes of their deserted streets. Saratoga, in that state, has a $30,000 opera house, a large brick hotel, a $20,000 school house and a number of fine business houses, yet there is nobody even to clean a place to sleep.

The czar of Russia is a pretty good friend of this country, even if he is an absolute monarch. His friendly warships hovered off our coasts when other nations threatened to take a hand in our civil war, and now he offers us a loan of gold to keep the barnacles off the ship of state.

It is rumored that the San Francisco Examiner will obtain control of the Portland Sun and a full-fledged democratic paper in Portland. If anybody could make it go, the Examiner people, with a gold mine behind them, would be the ones.

The population of the United States on the first of May, according to the computations of the federal treasury department, was a round 70,000,000.

James H. Stewart, of McMinnville, who is the father of "Captain" Paul Webb, wishes it to be known that his son is not related to Senator Stewart. Webb or John Stewart, was a resident of McMinnville until he went into the business of going over falls and down chutes in a barrel.—Oregonian.

PHOTOGRAPHS.
I have just located and established a gallery at Condon and respectfully invite the public to call and examine my work before going elsewhere. My prices are very reasonable and I guarantee satisfaction. W. L. RICHARDS.

Reward for Lost Dog.
A fine Shepard dog, white breast and legs and white stripe on forehead, was lost on Monday, July 8th, in Lost Valley. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning the dog to the owner, J. W. Maidment, in Lost Valley.

Shurte Bros. of Arlington are not selling out at cost—but will give any one a good deal on a wagon, buggy, mowing machine, reaper, header or thrasher; in fact anything in their line. Call on them.

Go to James W. Smith for Buffalo Pitts extras.

The Daisy McCormick reaper seems to be taking the lead. James W. Smith has them.

James W. Smith has received some Hodge Steel frame headers direct from the factory, also a full line of extras.

You will find a full line of Standard reapers, mowers and hay rakes, and all extras in James W. Smith's machine department.

Shurte Bros. of Arlington sell that beautiful light-running Champion Reaper; also the Hains Oregon header, which has no equal.

James W. Smith is now agent for all of the Osborn machinery. "Uncle Sam" recently bought 238 Osborn mowers for government use. His experts pronounced them the best made.

James W. Smith has a few 12-ft. Hodge steel frame headers left, which he will close out at reduced rates. He can also furnish good second-hand headers at low figures.

The O. R. & N. Co., always alert to the welfare of their patrons, have placed on sale at principal stations a 1000-mile ticket at the rate of three cents per mile, good for one year from date of sale and good for passage over the rail and water lines of their system.

Treasurer's Notice.
All county warrants registered prior to Nov. 10, 1893, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases on and after this date. S. B. BARKER, Treasurer of Gilliam County, Or. Dated at Condon, Or., June 26, 1895.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Briceland, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." For sale by L. W. Darling druggist.

Among the numerous persons who have been cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, mention should be made of Mrs. Emily Thorne, of Toledo, Wash., who says: "I have never been able to procure any medicine that would relieve me of rheumatism like Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I have also used it for a lame back with great success. It is the best liniment I have ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends." For sale by L. W. Darling druggist.
