THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

COMMENDABLE ENTERPRISE.

Prineville Review.

From the Condon Globe, we learn that the Gilliam county sheep men have formed themselves into an association known as the "Sheepmen's Protective Union." Such enterprise is commendable indeed. The county of Gilliam already gives a bounty of one dollar per scalp, which, augmented by the dollar given by the union, brings the reward up until, were it not for the fact of inaction on the part of surrounding counties, flockmasters of Gilliam might look forward to the time when they would be free from this pest. The extermination of the coyote in Eastern Oregon is dependent on whether or not the remaining counties in this section of the state will have the enterprise to follow the courageous lead of Gilliam county. United effort on the line thus laid down by our neighbors will weed out this curse of the plains, and nothing else will. It will be discouraging work for the citizens of Gilliam to kill their portion, only to have them replaced by coyotes from Grant, Sherman, Morrow and Crook counties, and it is unreasonable to suppose they will grow weary of well doing after a time unless they are sustained by actions in this matter by surrounding sections. Another point is pertinent in this matter. There can be no question but that a bounty for coyote scalps, on the part of an Eastern Oregon county, partakes largely of class legislation, and if sheepmen will do nothing within themselves to further their own interests in the way of removing disease and pests from among their flocks, they cannot in reason demand but a small special outlay in their behalf. On the other hand, if they should show a disposition to make special effort in their own behalf, there would be some encouragement and less complaint heard from other lines of business in granting aid to their special benefit. We hope the spirit of enterprise that prevails among our Gilliam neighbors may be emulated through Eastern Oregon, Crook county not excepted. Shall we do it, or let it go by default and complain at the county court every time we hear a coyote howl?

Horse butchering will not, after all, be a competitor in the American butchering trade, as was primarily feared. In the first instance beef is so cheap in this country that it is easily within the reach of the poorest wage-earner; and in the second, it is not the purpose of the projectors of the horse-slaughtering industry to establish a market for their product on this side of the Atlantic ocean. The only part of the horse that can be utilized for table use is the hams; the rest of the carcass will be ground up for fertilizing purposes, both to be prepared for the European markets.—Portland Telegram.

Another newspaper has succumbed to the inevitable. The Portland Sun has departed this life and gone to that land where newspapers never die. The Sun started for the express purpose of supplanting the great daily Oregonian, but its untimely end shows that papers built upon the ground-work of spite are apt to be short-lived. That is a pretty big hold the Oregonian has upon the Pacific Northwest and the morning paper that crowds its way to a place of more prominence in that field will need much perseverance and a world of capital behind it.—Goldendale Sentinel.

If America can show no such record of old people as Britain it is not unreasonable to suppose it is because, notwithstanding the greater incomes and luxuries of the average family, our people are not content with simple food—or if they are, select and cook it badly, living, for instance, on pork and soggy bread—and because, either owing to climate or heredity, they destroy all chances of being benefited by habits of placidity.—New York Tribune.

Corvallis Times: H. Darr, foreman of the late Portland Sun, was a passenger for Newport Monday. He is authority for the statement that a deal is on foot looking to the resurrection of the paper. The ten or eleven months' experience in the publication of the Sun cost those behind it about $50,000.

The Durrant trial has now been in progress over two weeks. Seven jurors have been secured out of more than 400 persons examined, and two of these may yet be disposed of. This trial will probably last several months.

PHOTOGRAPHS.

I have just located and established a gallery at Condon and respectfully invite the public to call and examine my work before going elsewhere. My prices are very reasonable and I guarantee satisfaction. W. L. RICHARDS.

Shurte Bros. of Arlington sell that beautiful light-running Champion Reaper; also the Hains Oregon header, which has no equal.

Shurte Bros. of Arlington are not selling out at cost—but will give any one a good deal on a wagon, buggy, mowing machine, reaper, header or thrasher; in fact anything in their line. Call on them.

The traveling public will be glad to learn that the O. R. & N. Co. are now allowing stop-over privileges on all regular local tickets. Effective July 15th.

James W. Smith has a few 12-ft. Hodge steel frame headers left, which he will close out at reduced rates. He can also furnish good second-hand headers at low figures.

James W. Smith is now receiving Stock Liverpool, and Table Salts directly from the Salt works and is prepared to sell lower than any merchant.

You will find a full line of Standard reapers, mowers and hay rakes, and all extras in James W. Smith's machine department.

Treasurer's Notice.

All county warrants registered prior to Nov. 10, 1893, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases on and after this date. S. B. BARKER, Treasurer of Gilliam County, Or. Dated at Condon, Or., June 26, 1895.

SUMMONS.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Gilliam.

Lizzie Leadbetter, plaintiff, vs. Lyman Leadbetter, defendant.

To Lyman Leadbetter, defendant above named: In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above-entitled suit on or before Monday, September 16, 1895, that being the first day of the next regular term of this court; and if you fail so to appear or answer, or want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, which is that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and yourself be forever dissolved.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof, not less than once a week for a period of six weeks in the CONDON GLOBE, by order of Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, judge of the above-entitled court, done and dated at Dallas City, Wasco county, Oregon, on the 29th day of July, A. D. 1895. S. A. D. GURLEY, Attorney for the Plaintiff.

Mr. C. G. Strong, principal of the public schools at Anderson, Cal., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have found it an excellent remedy for lameness and slight wounds. Lameness usually results from a sprain, or other injury, or from rheumatism, for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially intended and unequalled. It affords almost immediate relief and in a short time effects a permanent cure. For sale by L. W. Darling, druggist."

County Warrants at Face.

I will take county warrants at their face value in trade at my store in Condon. S. B. BARKER.

Jack to the Front.

If you want any new boots or shoes, come to my new boot and shoe store at the upper end of Main street, Arlington. I keep only the choicest stock and all kinds, and my prices are the lowest in the county. It will pay you to come or send to me when you need anything in this line. All kinds of russet shoes for men women and children. Repairing done at the lowest rates. Call and inspect my stock. JOHN P. ROZANS.

Superior Goods in the Saddle and Harness Line at Prices That Will Surprise You.

The old adage, "penny wise and pound foolish" applies in a great many respects to the public in general, who buy cheap factory goods, thinking they are getting a bargain—when in fact they are the dearest in the end. Patronize home industry. Come or send to me for everything in the harness line. I keep a full stock and you can get anything you want at prices that defy competition. Repairing done. Orders by mail promptly filled. M. J. CANTY, Opposite Dal Reed's stable, Arlington.

Fine Liquors and Cigars.

I have just opened a new saloon in the Skelly building at Condon and have a new stock of choice liquors of all kinds, beer, cigars, etc. If you enjoy such refreshments and amusement, it is the place to find it. JOE TREYETT.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were, "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by L. W. Darling, druggist.
