The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance, $2 will be charged. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription expires with this issue. Please renew promptly.

GLOSSIES.

Wanted—A good milch cow. Inquire at this office.

Several of our young ladies are learning to ride "the bike."

Assessor M. O. Clarke and family moved from the Lucas residence into the Henshaw house Monday.

Joe Trevett, the saloon man, this week had his billiard table converted into a 16-ball pocket pool table.

Mrs. Katie Kehm Smith, the lecturer of the Oregon Secular Union, is ill with typhoid fever at John Day town.

Misses Ella and Katie Kiely, two accomplished young ladies of Eightmile, visited friends in Condon several days this week.

The Rev. Father Baker, a Catholic priest, was arrested in Astoria Monday, charged with assault with attempt to commit rape.

Senator McBride, of Oregon, is visiting his brother, Judge John B. McBride, at Spokane. They will make a trip into the Coeur d'Alenes.

Geo. S. Smith and family of Olex passed through town Tuesday on their way to "the valley," where they will visit their relatives a month or so.

Our new church will be completed next week, and will be a credit to the town and county. It is by far the finest-looking church in the county.

A Southern paper says it will give six watermelons for every new subscriber, but it cannot afford to furnish a doctor nor pay the funeral expenses.

James J. Corbett, who was recently divorced from his wife, was married Aug. 15th at Asbury Park, N. J., to Miss Vera Stanwood of Omaha, Neb.

Any one needing abstracting done should see or write to Atty. John Lyons at Condon. He is prepared to do that kind of work in the proper manner.

Atty. H. H. Hendricks of Fossil made final proof on his Butte Creek homestead Monday before County Clerk Frazer, with P. E. McQuinn and Staunton Dement as witnesses.

The fact that China has only 100 physicians for a population of 400,000,000 can only be accounted for on the ground that in China doctors are held responsible for the people they kill.

John G. Stephens writes us to change the address of the GLOBE from Winlock to Olex, as he and his family expect to move down to Rock creek this week to reside on his father's place.

Mrs. J. H. Putnam and two children visited her mother Mrs. Meek, and sister, Mrs. S. P. Shutt, at Condon this week. Her husband brought them over Sunday, returning home the same day.

Lucien Parker ordered two first-class new stage coaches last week, to be used on the Arlington-Fossil route. They will be built by parties in The Dalles and will be ready for use in about a month.

Earl Frazer, a young man from Monmouth, Polk county, arrived here this week on a visit to his brothers at Lone Rock, Riley and Charley Frazer. At present he is visiting his cousin, H. N. Frazer at Condon.

F. W. Royal of Fossil made a trip to Hay creek Butte Sunday on his bicycle, on a visit to his relatives—H. C. and Dr. Dodson and their families. Mrs. Royal met her husband at Condon on his return home Tuesday.

John W. Vanhora of Hoover creek, a hard-working man, who is as honest as the day is long, lost his house and all its contents by fire one day last week. As he is a poor man the loss falls heavily upon him and his family.

Monday while coming to town from W. S. Myers' place, 1 1/2 miles west of Condon, Mrs. E. L. Taylor lost her purse, in which was about $8. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to the owner or at this office.

Reports from Haystack are to the effect that Siegrist, the victim of the recent stabbing affray, is getting along all right, and has no intention of dying at present. Young Swift, who did the stabbing, escaped from the Canyon City jail last week.

The Goldendale school will start up on Monday, Sept. 9th, next, with a corps of five teachers, as follows: Principal, Miss Birdie Downing; assistants, Miss Mollie Hutton, Miss Emma Clanton, Miss Ella Hinshaw, and Miss Hattie Gunn.—Sentinel.

A mistake was made in setting the type last week, giving the average of those examined for institute certificates. The following names were inadvertently omitted: Maggie Keys was in the lead with an average of 99.25; Ethel Parman, 99; Pearl Fitzwater, 91.3.

A Portland paper tells a story of a man in Portland who determined to spend all he made during the first year in advertising. He soon found that it was impossible, for the simple reason that the more he advertised the more he made, and after a strenuous effort to get rid of his money in advertising he had to give it up.

The Gazette is pleased to state that the report that another paper was soon to be started in Condon is false. There is certainly no room for another paper in that field; in fact the Globe is a bright, new paper, and away ahead of the town.—Heppner Gazette.

Preaching services will be held in the new Congregational church building next Sunday, morning and evening. The church will not be dedicated until Sept. 1st, at which time Rev. C. F. Clapp of Forest Grove will be present and conduct the dedication services.

The Salem Post says that the publication of a so-called weather report in pamphlet form at the expense of the people should be stopped, as the report is of no earthly use to any one, and besides the information it contains is generally incorrect and three months old before it is published.

J. S. McKinney and family arrived home today from a ten days' visit with Mrs. McKinney's parents near Goldendale. Mr. McKinney requests us to state that he will begin sawing lumber next week and will have any amount of first-class dry lumber for sale from now on, at very cheap rates.

Mr. Ed Rood of Eightmile made a "business" visit to the Frank Stevens ranch this week. Some of the boys say that Ed acts just like a man who has a hankering to commit matrimony, but perhaps they have him "sized up" wrong. Mrs. Churchill will remain some time yet with her sister, Mrs. F. B. Stevens.

Mrs. S. A. Lester of Mitchell, who was married at Condon to the Mitchell drugist last spring, was a passenger on Saturday's stage, enroute to join her husband at Oxford, Mississippi, where they will make their future home. She will visit her parents at Sumner, Coos county, before starting on her long journey to the "Sunny South."

A transcript of proceedings heretofore held in Gilliam county, indictments, etc., in the criminal cases pending against Zachary and Clark; to be tried in this county in October on a change of venue, have reached the county clerk's office. This will perhaps be a long and persistently contested controversy.—Moro Observer.

Frank Whetstone and Stewart Moore, charged with the murder of George H. Clacking at the Transfer House, just before the fire at Pendleton, were discharged Saturday by Judge Parks. The state failed to produce sufficient evidence to hold the boys—although the examination was carried from day to day—and they were given their liberty.

Since coyote scalps first began to come in about two weeks ago, they have been pouring into the clerk's office pretty lively. Up to date about 105 have been brought in. Several were brought in last week from the John Day river by two boys by the name of Wilson; and to make sure of having enough scalp, they brought in the entire pelts, tail and all.

G. S. Clark has sold his blacksmithing tools and outfit to Thurnagle & Parrazo, and is having his shop fitted up for a confectionery store, and expects to have a stock of confectionery on hand before circuit court convenes. Mr. Clark has worked hard all his life, and he believes he is now entitled to a little rest and an easier job than "raslin" horses and pounding iron.

John Scott, a resident of the Haystack country, was tried before Justice Cattanaeh last Tuesday on a charge of larceny from H. M. Basford's sheepcamp, and was held in the sum of $300 to the grand jury, which bond he has not yet given. His offense consisted of stealing a pair of hobbles without taking along the usual horse to accompany them.—Grant County News.

Columbus C. Grider, who had been herding sheep in Grant county since spring, came home this week, not to return. The Globe was sent regularly every week to him and half a dozen other boys from here since spring, but he informs us that they received only several copies of the paper in all that time. What can "all" the Austin postmaster, do you 'spose?

Of the six applicants examined last week at Condon for teachers' certificates, only two were successful—Misses Minnie Ward of Bickleton and Daisy Downing of Condon, each receiving a 3d-grade certificate. Miss Ethel Parman failed to secure a 1st-grade, but her 2d-grade certificate will not expire yet for one year, at which time she doubtless will be able to get a 1st-grade.

A little rain fell here Tuesday—the first since the 4th of July. The indications for more are very good, however. This has been the driest season in the history of this country; yet the water supply in the wells here has held out remarkably well, there being no inconvenience from that source. Condon claims to have the purest and best water in Eastern Oregon—which accounts for the healthy condition of our people.

Frank Downer of Rock creek met with a serious accident Friday. He was on his way to town, riding a horse and leading another, when both horses became unmanageable and Frank was thrown off, breaking his shoulder bone. His wife was also on her way to town in a buggy, and she brought him to the residence of W. A. Goodwin, where he had the fractured member attended to by a physician, and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

Hsu Nai Kwang, Chinese consul general in New York, is seeking a name for his baby boy, born last week. As the youngster is a mandarin of high rank it is no easy matter to find a name worthy of his greatness. Boo Hoo serves very well at present, however.

At a recent Salem prayer meeting the minister said: "Will Bro. Smith please lead us in prayer?" Seven men arose and commenced praying at once. This embarrassed the preacher, and he said hurriedly: "I mean Bro. John Smith." At this announcement one sat down, and five more got up and began praying. The preacher saw his mistake, said nothing, and let it pray it out among themselves.

Our school will begin Sept. 2d, under the able instruction of two thoroughly experienced and competent teachers—Prof. C. G. Morey and Mrs. E. L. Taylor. There will not be enough residences in town to accommodate the large number of families who want to move to town to remain during the winter for school purposes. Mr. Morey moved to town Tuesday from Douglas, Morrow county, his brother-in-law, Mr. E. B. Gorton, bringing him in.

Editor Wolcott, of the Medford Monitor, has come out on the solid side of the bloomer. Hear him: "We want to take back all we have said about bloomers, and more too. Some petty thief stole our only pair of pants last night, and if there had not been a pair of bloomers in the house our paper would have been suspended. As it is, we are an hour late on account of stopping the press to search for a pocket to get a chew of tobacco."

Wilkinson White, of Condon, Gilliam county, accompanied by Jack Glasgow, arrived in Long Creek Thursday of last week en route to McDuff hot springs. Mr. White is the father of W. F. White, of Monument, surveyor of Grant county, and is one of Gilliam county's large cattle owners. He usually makes a trip to some health resort every summer, and owing to injuries he recently received while freighting wool to Arlington, he selected the McDuff hot springs this year.—Eagle.

Cottage Grove Leader: We learn that a school girl graduated in Eugene read an advertisement in a Chicago paper, "girl wanted to sell baking powder. To any girl who will send us $— for three dozen cans of our rapid selling baking powder we will forward at once a beautiful safety." She sent the money and by hustling around like a house on fire for three weeks she managed to unload the stuff. The "safety" came in an envelope, and was one of those brass pins, horse blanket size, like mamma used to keep up our style with.

Rev. O. D. Taylor, of this city, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Kelley on a requisition from the governor of the state of Michigan, and turned over immediately to Mr. Parker Owens, an officer of Saginaw, Mich. The crime alleged is obtaining money under false pretenses, and undoubtedly grew out of the transactions of the reverend gentleman in connection with the sale of the property in North Dalles, Wash. He was placed in the county jail awaiting his return to Michigan. The matter was kept very quiet until the arrest was made, and Taylor was placed behind the bars. They left Saturday night for Michigan.—Times Mountainer.

One of Mitchell's so-called business men does not figure in our columns this week. The Monitor will survive this spiteful attempt to throttle it, even after its would-be destroyer has been forgotten in business circles. The man who advertises in his local paper receives even more benefit than the publisher of the paper in which he advertises. "Of few days and full of trouble" is a business that is not advertised in the home paper. A business man who does not ask for patronage through his home paper plainly shows that he does not want the patronage of the home paper's readers, and therefore he does not deserve it, and is sure to "starve out" sooner or later.—Monitor.

Assessor Clarke was assessing on Shuttler Flat this week, and informs us that he had the pleasure of seeing Tobey Bros' wonderful combination header and separator at work. He says it requires only 4 men and 20 horses to run the machine—one man to drive the horses, one to attend the sickle, one to attend the separator and one to sack the grain. Tobey Bros. say that the total expense of cutting and threshing grain and piling it up at the house is only 21c per acre, or 13c per bushel. Fred Tobey has just finished cutting and threshing one 640-acre field of wheat, which averaged 14 bushels to the acre. We understand that the machine cost $3500, and cannot be used except on level ground.

The East Oregonian sensibly remarks: We reiterate, land will not always be a truck in the market, nor will it ever be as cheap again, at least in the great state of Oregon, as it is today, and we would earnestly advise all those in possession of land, especially small farms, to hold on to them. You may need it some day and need it badly. Riches in gold and silver frequently take wings, but a good farm unincumbered, or even 100 acres of unimproved land will stay with you forever, unless you sell it. There are many farmer boys who look upon land with a certain contempt and hate the home on the farm, but the day will come when land will be king and a good farm will be a veritable "Godsend."

C. G. MOREY, Principal.
Mrs. E. L. TAYLOR, Assistant.

Senator McBride of Oregon informs us that he is in favor of electing United States senators by a direct vote of the people. Here are his reasons for it: "It would be well for the senators in congress to receive their election directly from the people, that the senators themselves may know and feel that their trust has been delegated to them by the people and not from the few men, however able and worthy, who hold the elective power under the present system. I think, too, that the election of senators by popular vote would remove from the minds of the masses a prejudice which, though often a mistaken one, exists against the senate as a body that does not feel itself directly responsible to the people themselves."
