

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1895.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

IS WEALTH A BLESSING.

Many parents make a serious mistake in accumulating wealth to give to their children. In the large majority of cases when children inherit property from the parents it becomes a bone of contention, disgracing the family name and estranging brothers and sisters, creating discord, envy, hatred and sometimes crime. If this be not the result then in many cases these children inherit wealth and are spendthrifts or are dissipated and the money is soon gone. Many a son has squandered in twelve months what it took the father a lifetime of toil and sacrifice to accumulate.

These children looking forward to the possession of father's earnings, have failed to build a good character, to develop self dependence or to exercise judgment and good common sense. They do not learn a trade or fit themselves for business or a profession; they are simply parasites on the family tree. When the old stock dies they are paralyzed. Having come into a fortune they have no faculty or gumption to retain it, to say nothing of increasing it. "Come easy go easy," is the rule, and when it is gone, then they are like an empty bag that cannot stand alone. They drift into bad company, become gamblers, drunkards, libertines and loafers. Without money or backbone, without principle or sense they go to make up the great stream of criminals, deadbeats and bunks. John Wanamaker began at the bottom; his son has just given a dinner in Paris costing $20,000; so the money goes. About the worst curse a father can entail upon a son is wealth. Parents had better use their money while they live, doing good, honoring God and blessing mankind, build and endow institutions of learning, and asylums for the unfortunate. Give to your sons common sense, develop their self-dependence, cultivate their genius, provide an education, establish good character, in short make men of them and they will make the money as you have and be a blessing to the world.—Independence West Side.

The policy announced by the receivers and land department of the Northern Pacific railroad of disposing of the company's lands at prices close to the government figure, upon easy terms of 10 annual payments and with 6 per cent interest, and then only to actual settlers, will do much to bring in immigration and build up the country. Cheap land will bring immigration, and immigration in turn will increase land values. Nothing else can do it.

Pittsburg Dispatch: "A Kansas man and his wife spent a fortune in suing each other for divorce. After they had gotten rid of all their money they concluded to live happily together in poverty. This is a new demonstration of the theory that the way to get any satisfaction out of wealth is to spend it."

The Call, of San Francisco, is going to have the finest home of any newspaper in the United States. Claude Spreckles, the sugar king, will build it. The magnificent marble palace will be 315 feet or fifteen stories high and capped by a huge dome.

The minister of agriculture informs us that the world's wheat crop of 1895 is 232,000,000 bushels less than that of 1894.

The traveling public will be glad to learn that the O. R. & N. Co. are now allowing stop-over privileges on all regular local tickets. Effective July 15th.

Shurte Bros. of Arlington are also agents for the "Victor" and "Rambler" bicycles.

James W. Smith is now receiving Stock Liverpool, and Table Salts directly from the Salt works and is prepared to sell lower than any merchant.

You will find a full line of Standard reapers, mowers and hay rakes, and all extras in James W. Smith's machine department.

Shurte Bros. of Arlington are not selling out at cost—but will give any one a good deal on a wagon, buggy, mowing machine, reaper, header or thresher; in fact anything in their line. Call on them.

Graded Bucks for Sale. Ten head of No. 1 graded Rimrock bucks will be sold very cheap if applied for soon. Apply to the owner, J. K. Fitzwater, or at this office.

We understand that Arlington has 20 bivalves, of which the "Crescent" leads. Sold by Shurte Bros.

Treasurer's Notice. All county warrants registered prior to Nov. 10, 1893, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest ceases on and after that date. S. B. BAKER, Treasurer of Gilliam County, Or.

SUMMONS.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Gilliam. Lizzie Leadbetter, plaintiff, vs. Lyman Leadbetter, defendant. This summons is served upon you by publication thereof, not less than once a week for a period of six weeks in the Condon Globe, by order of Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, judge of the above-entitled court; done and dated at Dallas City, Wasco county, Oregon, on the 20th day of July, A. D. 1895. S. A. D. GRADLEY, Attorney for the Plaintiff.

Mr. C. G. Strong, principal of the public schools at Anderson, Cal., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have found it an excellent remedy for lameness and slight wounds. Lameness usually results from a strain, or other injury, or from rheumatism, for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially intended and unequalled. It affords almost immediate relief and in a short time effects a permanent cure. For sale by L. W. Darling, druggist."

County Warrants at Face.

I will take county warrants at their face value in trade at my store in Condon. S. B. BAKER.

Fine Liquors and Cigars.

I have just opened a new saloon in the Skelly building at Condon and have a new stock of choice liquors of all kinds, beer, cigars, etc. If you enjoy such refreshments and amusement, this is the place to find it. JOE TREVETT.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were, "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by L. W. Darling, druggist.
