

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1895.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

If it true, as alleged by a New York paper, that "there are thousands of horses on the Oregon ranges which cannot be sold at any price," it would be of interest to the men who own the animals to read the last report from the United States consul at Brunswick, Germany. He states that in the large cities of Germany the consumption of horse meat is almost as great as that of beef or mutton, and in the smaller cities, where some prejudice exists against meat of this character, the consumption is less, but growing daily. The butchers are paying $35 a head for worn-out horses, and this is the feature of the report that should be of especial interest to the horse-breeders of Oregon. If shipped on the hoof from America, horses are admitted to Germany at a tariff of $3.75 a head, and no question as to the purity of the meat is raised. Allowing $4.75 for duty and $10 per head for transportation, it would leave to the shipper a profit of $20.25 on each animal shipped. The matter is certainly deserving of some attention from the American breeders who cannot sell their surplus stock at any price in this country.

The question of too high price for school books is being agitated all over the country. The Chicago Board of Education has just discovered that the school children of that city are paying $50,000 a year more for their text books than is paid by the pupils of St. Louis or Omaha. The average in St. Louis per pupil is 37 cents, in Omaha 28 cents, in Kansas City 53 cents and in Chicago 70 cents. The low cost in the first two cities is explained by the fact that the books are delivered directly by the publishers at wholesale rates, and they are distributed by the school department. This cuts off 40 per cent which the jobber and the retail dealer absorbs. There is no reason why school children should not receive the benefit of this cut. In the same high school pupils and college students should be given by publishers the same discount when they club together and order as many as twenty-five volumes. Text books are entirely too dear in this country, compared with the cost of other books.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal., says: I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial. For sale by L. W. Darling, druggist.
