GLOBOSITIES.

This section was blessed with a heavy shower of rain Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Barker visited their relatives at Lone Rock several days within the last week.

Atty. T. R. Lyons of Heppner arrived in Condon today and will remain until circuit court adjourns.

Tommy Livingston of Mayville has secured a position in the clerk's office and will perhaps remain all winter.

Miss Annie Schott returned home to Olex Friday from a two-months' visit with relatives in Benton county.

Miss Daisy Downing has been engaged to teach the fall term of school on Trailfork, commencing next Monday.

Miss Bessie Settlemier came up from her home near Arlington Thursday and is stopping with the family of L. Parker.

Chas. Fix has just "built" him a new well in his stable corral and otherwise improved the corral by leveling down the high places.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes of Heppner visited Mrs. Maddock and family at Condon the first of this week, leaving for home Tuesday.

New accessions to our school are being made almost daily and the number of pupils is now swelled to about 70. There is still room for more.

A pleasant party was given at Maddock's hotel Friday evening in honor of Miss Nellie Connolly, who left Sunday to attend school in Portland.

Arthur Stewart and Miss Maggie Watson were married at Antelope on Sept. 5th, by Squire Keaton. The bride formerly resided at Crown Rock.

Mrs. Polk Mays, of Wallowa county, is visiting her father, B. Kelsey and his family at Fossil. Mr. Kelsey met her at Arlington Thursday night with private conveyance.

Hon. Henry E. McGinn of Portland, one of the most successful criminal prosecutors in Oregon, will assist Mr. Jayne in The Dallas Chinese murder case next month.

The Times-Mountaineer, which changed proprietorship last week, also changed politics, being now a full-fledged democratic paper. It had always fought in the republican ranks since its birth, over 30 years ago.

Archie Huston, the boy whom we referred to last week as suffering from concussion of the brain, died Thursday and his father took the body through here same day to his home on Eightmile, where the burial took place.

Jas. Lotan and Seid Back, the notorious smugglers, were sentenced at Portland Monday—the former to pay a fine of $8000, which he paid, and the latter to pay a fine of $5000, which he has started to board out in the Hotel de Sears.

Joe Trevatt concluded that he is better adapted for ranch work than running a saloon, and has gone to work for Piskelly on his ranch just north of town, while Pat is again at his old place behind the bar, acting in the capacity of mixologist.

Billy Barr this week sold his 18 shares of stock in the Armory hall at Condon—9 shares to the Odd Fellows and nine to the K. of P. lodges. Billy's 18 shares made him own a controlling interest, there being only 30 shares in the company.

John Knox is having the material hauled for a new house, to be built on his homestead southeast of town. Some of the boys think John is building a cage with a view to asking some lady to change her name to Knox this fall. Go in and win, John, is what we holler.

The constable failed to capture Dud Flynn, whom we mentioned last week as skipping out and leaving some creditors in the lurch. He had too much start of the constable, and the thousand and one canyons of the John Day afforded him all the opportunity one could wish for in evading an officer.

Circuit court for this county convenes at Condon next Monday. The docket this time does not appear to be overly heavy, and unless the grand jury returns indictments in cases not yet made public, the business will all doubtless be disposed of in one week. The principal criminal case will be the murder case of the state vs. Harry Clay.

Don Carlos Boyd of Heppner, who was bound over nearly a year ago to appear before the grand jury of Morrow county, on a charge of embezzling money from the Patterson Publishing Co., passed through Condon the first of the week on the hunt for a job in a printing office. The grand jury in session at Heppner last week did not indict him.

L. W. Darling and wife and his daughter, Belle Darling, left on Sunday night's train for Forest Grove, where Belle will attend the Pacific University. Her sister Goldie will attend the same school, leaving here next Sunday, after her parents arrive home. Among the others from here who will attend the same school, commencing next week, are: Miss Ethel Parman and brother George and Miss Dora Downing.

The Latter Day Saint ministers, Davis and Clapp, arrived here Thursday and held a series of meetings, lasting over Sunday. We learn that they received seven new members here and all of them were baptised in the placid waters of Thirtymile. On Sunday Mr. Clapp preached the funeral sermon of Mrs. Goodwin.

The report that Ed Copner left the Holton House in Portland and had gone to work as clerk in the Esmond hotel is a mistake. He is still at the Holton and thinks he will "hold down" the job all winter. Ed has broke out with a desire to become an expounder of the gospel and is seriously thinking of taking a course in the theological seminary at Oakland, Cal., with that object in view.

Our readers will remember that on June 1, 1892, when Congressman Ellis was returning to Arlington after making a campaign speech at Condon, the stage team ran off near the Junction House and he was thrown violently to the ground, breaking his left leg below the knee. Mr. Ellis is yet greatly inconvenienced from the wound, his leg occasionally swelling to enormous proportions. He is now in Portland for the purpose of having a surgical operation performed upon it.

Rev. E. Curran and Miss Emma Meek were united in marriage on Thursday, Sept. 5, 1895, in the parlors of the Holton House in Portland. Rev. C. E. Clapp officiating. A number of friends witnessed the ceremony, including Mr. and Mrs. Ed Copner and several schoolmates of Mr. Curran. The happy couple left the same day by steamer for Oakland, Cal., where they will reside for the present. Just before leaving Portland, Mr. Curran performed the marriage ceremony of one of his schoolmates.

Lone Rock Riplets.

Milton Ward and family have returned home to Winthee.

R. G. Robinson started to Arlington Tuesday to stay a few weeks.

Mrs. Wick has moved back to her town residence, after spending the summer on the farm.

George Knox has rented his farm and moved to Lone Rock to get the benefit of the winter school.

P. L. Ham made a business trip to Portland the first of the week to lay in a fall and winter stock of goods.

School begins next Monday with the indication for a large attendance and people are making preparations to move to town. All vacant houses will be occupied in a few days.

A lot of rain fell here within the last few days, ending up with a heavy frost on the 9th and 10th. The ground had become so dry that it will take a lot more to start the grass growing.

Born, to the wife of Dr. Hunlock, Sunday morning, a fine 9 1/2-lb boy. All parties doing well except the Doctor, who seems to have a relapse, as he has not been on the street very much this week.

The K. of P's expect to get started the last of this month. They have sent for the necessary outfit, which will be here in a few days—except the goat. They will have to take one of Uncle Aleck's mules for a substitute.

I beg leave to announce that I am not the "John Doe" that was arrested in Portland last week for being drunk and disorderly. That is the worst of it in having a prominent name. The fellow has my sympathy on account of the namesake.

Wm. Matlock has been around buying beef cattle recently. He has bought and shipped most all the beef in this section of the country. If some one would get excited and rush around in this section and buy a lot of sheep it would tickle some of the sheep man.

Mayville Mutterings.

Jack Frost visited us Sunday night.

Miss Lillie Atkins of Wagner is visiting her cousin, Miss Mand Golden.

Farmers are busy sowing their fall grain. Wm. Wehrli has rye that is up and looking well already.

D. M. Walton has been at the home of Cap Withers for several days confined to bed with inflammatory rheumatism, but is improving.

The infant child of O. W. Pentecost died Friday last, after a short illness, and was buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery here Saturday.

The Rebekah's here initiated four new members Thursday evening. They were Misses Pearl and Grace Fitzwater and Miss Daisy Downing of Condon, and Wm. Ramsay of Beecher Flat.

Mrs. Phoebe Stinchfield and Mrs. Al McConnell received word from Turner, Marion county, Friday that their father, Mr. Caleb Perrin, was very low with stomach troubles, of which he has been bothered for several years. Mr. Perrin went to the coast about two months ago for his health, but the salt air did not agree with him, so he returned to Turner, where he was taken ill.

The Ladies Aid of this place are making arrangements for a grand literary treat and flapjack social to be given Friday evening Sept. 20. The proceeds will go towards erecting a church here, if it is not needed for charitable purposes. This place has long been in need of a church and it is the duty of everyone to help in this great effort towards erecting one. So come everyone and bring your wife, mother and best girls. 25c admission fee will be charged adults and 10c each for children under 12 years of age, which gives admission to the entertainment and the supper. J. D. CHARG.

Davidson—J. E. Coleman, L. P. Davidson. Arlington—J. W. Maguire, John Berthold. Bialock—A. Phillipi, C. C. Mills. Clea—W. B. Boyer.

Arlington Items.

Mrs. D. S. Sprinkle is visiting her parents at Dot.

S. P. Shurtz, the GLOBE man, was in town several days ago.

The bicycle club held an interesting meeting last Saturday night.

Wm. Snell and family have moved to town. Bill is clerking for Chas. Wenner.

E. B. Frum has a contract for building a residence on Willow creek for Frank Cecil.

C. W. Shurte expects to ship a car-load of his best horses to Dakota, starting next week.

R. H. Robinson is still on the sick list. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Clay Myers bought two car-loads of hogs for the Portland market, leaving with them last Friday.

Miles Shurte is fitting up a fruit stand in the postoffice building, where he proposes to dispense choice fruits.

The funeral of Mrs. Chas. Royce, which occurred at Olex Friday, was attended by a large number of our people.

Stanley Coffin is here on his way home from Lewiston. He reports everything lively up there and business very good.

There was a wedding in the M. E. church here on Sunday evening. Mr. W. Laelling and Miss Vina Tullis were the contracting parties. Rev. J. C. Moter officiated.

The combined harvester and threshing owned by Tobey Bros. is doing excellent work. The machine effects a great saving over the old method of heading and threshing. Forty acres per day can be cut and threshed, and it gathers it up so clean that an extra bushel to the acre can easily be saved.

There was an action in the justice's court here last Saturday, in which Z. T. Dodson was plaintiff and Frank Munkers defendant. The plaintiff recovered judgment for the full amount sued for. Atty. S. A. D. Gurley appeared for the plaintiff. Munkers went away leaving numerous bills and accounts unpaid.

Our popular banker, F. T. Hurlbert, had made arrangements to begin house-keeping the first of the month—not with the sister of some other fellow, but with his own sister, who is a prominent educator of the Northwest and principal of the Westminster Academy. However, he has just received word that she will remain in the school until the close of the present year, after which time we hope to see Frank and his sister established in a home in our city.

Edward Gibson was killed last Friday morning by the west-bound passenger train several miles east of Arlington. Gibson threw himself on the track immediately in front of the train, evidently with suicidal intent. He was taken aboard and brought to Arlington. Squire Ebi empaneled a coroner's jury and held the inquest. The jury consisting of Ross Beardsley, C. S. Wenner, J. C. Sweet, R. E. Smith, Dal Reed and A. C. Hawson, returned a verdict to the effect that Gibson came to his death from injuries sustained by placing himself with suicidal intent in front of train No. 1, on the O. R. & N. track. He was buried here on Sunday.

Beautiful Words.

By request of a number of members of the Congregational church at Condon we print the poetic portion of the farewell address delivered by Rev. E. Curran on Sunday evening, Sept. 1st:

GOODBY.

There's a kind of chilly feeling in the blowing of the breeze,

And a sense of sadness stealing through the trees;

And it's not the sad September that's slowly drawing nigh,

But just that I remember I have come to say "Goodby!"

"Goodby" the wind is calling: "Goodby" the trees complain

As they bend down low to whisper with their green leaves, white with rain:

"Goodby" the roses murmur, and the bending lilies sigh

As if they all felt sorry I have come to say "Goodby!"

I believe all have said it—some time or other

And easy like—with eyes cast down, that dare not look aloft,

For the tears that tremble in them, for the lips that choked the sigh:

When it kind of took hold of the heart, and made it beat "Goodby!"

I didn't think 'twas hard to say, but standing here alone—

With the pleasant past behind me, and the future dim unknown,

A glooming yonder in the dark, I can't keep back the sigh:

And I'm weeping like a woman as I bid you all "Goodby!"

The work I've done is with you; may be some things went wrong.

Like a note that mars the music in the sweet flow of a song!

But, loved ones, when you think of me, I only wish you would Say as the Master said of one: "He hath done what he could."

And when you sit together, in the time as yet to be,

By your love-encircled friends in this pleasant land of the free:

Let the sweet past come before you, and with something like a sigh

Just say: "We haven't forgot him since the day he said "Goodby!"

Stockmen's Union.
