

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance, $2 will be charged. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription expires with this issue. Please renew promptly.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

GLOSSIES.

Our Clem letter reached us too late for this issue.

The census of the county is not ready for this issue but will be next week.

Mrs. Belle Weatherford arrived here Saturday on a visit to her relatives on Trailfork.

L. Parker won a fine Winchester rifle, raffled off by P. H. Stephenson Friday, by high dice.

Supt. Kennedy will conduct the regular quarterly examination at Condon, commencing on Nov. 13th. See notice.

Miss Mabel Halstead has been engaged to teach the "Badger" school on Beecher Flat, commencing next Monday.

P. H. Stephenson has just had a neat porch built in front of his store, which adds greatly to its convenience and appearance.

County court meets next week—the probate and law business Monday and Tuesday and the commissioners' court Wednesday.

The name of District Attorney Parrish is becoming a terror to evil doers. Mr. Parrish has no mercy on law breakers.—Grant Co. News.

W. D. Ingram, a constable from Morrow county, made a trip into Gilliam this week on official business, the particulars of which we will give next week.

Bill Darling and Dave Cantwell returned home last week from the mines on the middle fork of the John Day, where they had been at work for several months.

Albert Smith, the energetic little fellow who is in the employ of Ernest Seckamp, arrived home this week from the mountains. So did Bert Horton and all the other herdners.

Jas. Fix, a former resident of Ferry Canyon but for the last four years of Walla Walla, visited his brother Charley at Condon several days within the last week, leaving for home Monday.

The Dallas Itemizer is practicing economy by reducing its size this week from eight columns to seven. It is a better looking paper now than before. Quantity is not always to be preferred to quality.

The new residence of James Snipes, on the bluff, is rapidly nearing completion. It is a handsome two-story house and will be among the most attractive residences in the city.—Dalles Chronicle.

Ed Stone who came out two years ago with John Knox from Bentonville, Arkansas, expects to return to his old home next week to visit his folks until next spring, when he will come back here again.

C. C. Wilson is having a bed-room built on his saloon building. Charley is a "good catch" and some of the young ladies think he is rather selfish because he does not seem to banker after taking into himself a better 1/2.

The Oregon Bar Association is to be commended for its efforts to purge the profession of disreputable members. A few corrupt and unprincipled lawyers do much to injure the many honorable men who grace the profession.

Lester Coffin of Lewiston, Idaho, was in this section several days this week looking after his extensive sheep interests. His recent marriage has not effected his appearance very much yet, as he is as fleshy and jolly as ever.

L. Parker expects to have his fine new stage coaches on the route next week. It will be such a comfort to ride in them that it is likely they will be loaded down every trip with passengers who will ride merely for the pleasure of the thing.

Oliver W. Barr, of Cherry Point, Ill., who spent several months at Condon about four years ago, has concluded to return to Oregon, and is expected here today. He will engage with his brother Billy in the sheep and hog business. Their cousin, Elmer Wood, expects to come out with Oliver.

Dr. Hudson returned home Friday from Portland, where he took Mrs. Brock of Rock creek and placed her in St. Vincent's Hospital for treatment. Her condition had been very serious, and having recovered sufficiently to make the trip speaks well for her attending physician, Dr. Hudson.

The new woman is getting to be "one of the boys" right along. This is the latest declaration of feminine rights from High Priestess Elizabeth Cady Stanton: "Women's legs are very much more pleasing and graceful to look at than men's. So, why should they not expose them if they want to?" [Gracious sakes, Elizabeth, you shock us by such talk!]

The editor of the GLOBE was invited but regrets his inability to attend the wedding of Mr. John H. Knox of Condon and Miss May Schenck at the bride's home in Salt Lake City, Utah, on Wednesday last, Oct. 30th. The happy couple will arrive here in a few days and reside on John's place just east of town. Their many friends extend hearty congratulations.

Our photographer, W. L. Richards, left today for Olex, where he expects to pitch his tent and remain about a week and then go to Arlington to remain a few days. This is an excellent chance for the people of those places to have maps of their countenances taken. He has resigned the position of marshal of Condon. His successor has not yet been appointed.

Twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hanna, near Olex, on Wednesday of last week—Oct. 23d. As this is George's first experience of the kind he is almost beside himself with joy, and steps higher than a blind horse in a yellow jacket's nest. George will "pull through" all O. K. by careful nursing. We learn that George hasn't done anything since except to keep his head in a barrel, hollering "Dad," just to hear how it sounds.

Rev. U. S. Drake and family arrived here Thursday, and Sunday the new minister delivered two very interesting sermons here. He has been in the West only two years, having moved with his family from Huntington county Pa., two years ago and filled the position of pastor at Weston since that time. He is an able and energetic speaker and will doubtless give good satisfaction. He and his wife are a valuable acquisition to our society.

Tom Johnson is the happiest man in town. He has 26 feet of water in his 40-foot well, which Charlie Lillie has just "brought" for him with his 7-inch well drill. Mr. Lillie averaged 8 feet a day and drilled 36 feet into the rock. He found water at 20 feet but not enough. He is now at work drilling a well on Sheriff Wilcox's residence property and after finishing that he will do likewise for Wm. Caldwell on his lot in South Condon. His charges are $1.50 per ft. and all expenses paid, except he pays his own helper, who drives the horses.

The scholars of our school gave another interesting literary and musical entertainment Friday night, which was greatly enjoyed by a large audience. The three judges—Mrs. Clara Darling, Mrs. Hendricks and Miss Daisy Downing decided that Susie Stevenson was entitled to the prize in the reading contest by six girls. The principal feature of the evening was a highly instructive and interesting lecture by Atty. John Lyons, on the subject of "School Economics." The next entertainment will be given a week from next Friday evening, on Nov. 8th.

An editor died and slowly wended his way to hell. The devil saw him and said: "For many years thou hast borne the blame for the errors thy printers made in thy paper. Thy printers have deviled thee on Saturday eve for wages when thou hadst not a red to thy name. Men have taken thy paper without paying a cent, verily, and curse thee for not issuing a better one. All these things thou hast borne in silence. There will be a continual dunning of delinquent subscribers (for hell is full of them) and discord will be created in my kingdom. Begone! Heaven is your home.—Exchange.

Salem Statesman: J. B. Mattingly, of Gilliam county, started for his home Tuesday after a visit of a few days to his daughter, who has been a patient at the asylum for the past seven years. Mr. Mattingly did not know he was talking within ear-shot of a newspaper man when he was giving his impression of the asylum on the depot platform, but his declaration is worth noting. He took pains to say that he had never seen a better managed institution of the kind during his life of nearly 70 years or a more agreeable, competent and humane set of officers and attendants. He could not speak too warmly in praise of the management, from the superintendent to the humblest employe he met and he goes home very much consoled that his daughter is in such hands.

There are no flies on the San Francisco newspapers. The other day the Examiner suggested that a fund be raised to equal the $100,000 offered by Pittsburg to secure the next meeting of the Republican national convention. It took the ground that it would benefit California, and consequently it was to the interest of the Democratic party to assist in getting it. The Examiner thereupon headed the subscription list with $1000 with the remark that that was only a feeler, and that it would do more. The Call at once put down $5000, the Chronicle $7500, and the Examiner added $6500 to its original gift, making $20,000 for the three papers. Condon also is in the race for this honor and will make a hard fight to secure the convention. As a "feeler" the GLOBE will head the subscription list with a year's subscription to this paper.

Criminals over in Grant county do not get off so easy as they do in some other parts of the state. At the term of circuit court just closed there, nine young men were convicted of felony and sentenced to the penitentiary for terms ranging from one to seven years. Tom Swift was sentenced to one year in the "pen" for stabbing young Siegrist, Lloyd and Chick Miller (sons of Chas. S. Miller, the well-known mining man) with two other young men—Fred Gulon and C. H. Kimball, were all convicted for cattle stealing, four indictments being returned against each of them. Chick Miller and Kimball each received a sentence of seven years and Lloyd Miller and Gulon five years each. They were represented by Huntington & Wilson of The Dalles—as good legal talent as there is in the state—but the cases against the boys were too plain and they went "over the road."

Arlington Items.

Mr. Fisk and family have moved to town.

Wm. Smith of Croy was in town a few days since.

Mrs. R. E. Smith is visiting friends in The Dalles.

W. A. Rodkey brought in a band of sheep this week.

R. T. Cox spent several days in Pendleton last week.

An agent for an oil stove has been canvassing the town.

Squire Randall of Olex made a trip to Portland last week.

J. W. Maguire and family have moved to town for the winter.

The Carlton troupe played here again on Monday to a very good house.

Quite a number of our nimrods have been hunting during the past week.

B. F. Tennis was in town on Monday shaking hands with friends and doing business.

Quite a number of bear dogs were taken from the R. R. here out south for the purpose of chasing "Old Bruin."

W. H. Colwell and family from Lone Rock have taken up their abode here, to remain until spring. They will prove a welcome acquisition to our society.

J. W. Redford has greatly improved his hotel property by removing the butcher shop some distance from the main building, leveling the ground, etc.

The body of Mrs. Ella Huff, who died at Blalock Monday, was taken to The Dalles Friday for burial. Her husband is an employe of the O. R. & N. Co. at Blalock. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon.

Lester Coffin was here last week. He was on his way from Lewiston to Yakima and stopped off here to look after Coffin Bros' interests in this county. He seems extremely happy since having taken into himself a better 1/2.

Lone Rock Riplets.

R. M. Johnson and wife just returned from a rip to Arlington.

Our school is progressing nicely under the supervision of Miss Harer as principal and Miss Grace Frizzell, of the primary department.

Mr. John M. Brown is busy with three teams hauling hay from his farm to his sheep range about nine miles down the creek. He expects to move about forty tons.

A decided change in the weather Monday morning in this locality, with a slight shower of snow, rain and hail all at one time. Thermometer registered 20 below freezing the first of the week.

We are sorry to note that Henry and Jeff Neel, sons of Mr. A. Neel, are both down with what Dr. Howard pronounces an enlargement of the liver—something very unusual for this country.

Mr. W. H. Colwell and family have moved to Arlington for the winter. We are sorry to lose them even for so short a time, but hope Mrs. Colwell's health will be greatly improved by the change of climate.

Ed Wineland, our pioneer saw-mill man is having a large quantity of lumber hauled to our burg for the purpose of erecting a large two-story building. The upper portion is to be used as a hall and lodge room, and the lower story will be used for a store building. This is a great burg for lodge meetings, there being six meeting nights in the week; but an outsider would conclude from outside appearances sometimes that between the K. of P.'s and the A. P. A.'s that they met about ten times each week. Jno. Doe.

Report Of Our School.

For month ending Oct. 25th. Number of days taught 124; number of pupils enrolled 71; average daily attendance 62; number of cases of tardiness 141. Pupils in primary department neither absent nor tardy: Nellie Winzenried, Lilla Clarke, Florence Clarke, Maggie Maddock, Frank Maddock, Cassius Hendricks, Ray Trimble, Nellie Smith, Rob Fitzwater, Ellis Clark, Clare Smith, David Duthie, Maude Richards, Maude Ward, Roy Taylor.

Several of our young folks will attend the ball at Mayville this Friday evening.

The GLOBE comes out a little earlier this week than usual, owing to the editor expecting to make a trip to Arlington today.

Owing to the fact that so many persons at Monmouth are boarding students this year at $1.75 a week, the dining hall has only forty boarders, and does not pay expenses.

Mrs. A. V. Thrasher of Corvallis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Palmer of Ajax, is visiting her relatives in this county. Her brother Sylvan met her at Arlington with private conveyance.

R. J. Hale, who has been herding sheep for the last four years for T. A. Renner, will leave tomorrow for his old home at Bulcher, Texas. He is a steady, industrious young man and has been a faithful employe.

Harry Ladd, who had been in the employ of Jay P. Lucas in Polk county for several months, returned to Condon this week to stay. He says this is the best portion of Oregon he has yet seen. Harry reports Mr. Lucas and wife as getting along serenely on the old homestead near Monmouth.

What Will The Verdict Be?

The end of the Durrant case is in sight at last, the evidence all being in and the argument begun. There is not much difference of opinion among those who have followed the testimony as to Durrant's guilt, but there is a wide variance in the opinion expressed as to there being evidence to convict him. The chain of circumstantial evidence against him is in some respects a strong one, and yet it has the element of weakness, that may leave a reasonable doubt in the minds of the jury or some of its members, as to his guilt. We would not be surprised if the jury disagree, although as we have said our own opinion is that he is guilty. Beliefs, however, by an individual who is not called upon to act, are more potent than with those who, if they act upon them deprive a human being of life. The juror in a criminal case locked in the room with his fellows, to decide upon his oath and his conscience, as to whether his commission of a crime has been proved, beyond a reasonable doubt, does reach a conclusion so readily or so hastily, as the citizens whose opinions and decisions do not effect the prisoner. No doubt the jurors, who have listened to the testimony believe Durrant guilty, but whether they are willing to say on their oaths that the prosecution has made out a case that shuts out every reasonable doubt is an entirely different question.

The New Woman.

Rockaby baby, your mamma has gone; she's out to the caucus and will be till dawn; she wore papa's trousers and in them looked queer, so hushaby baby your papa is here. Rockaby baby, your mamma's a terror; she's run three conventions, declared for three fellows; she's great on a straddle, way up on a vote, so hushaby baby, your papa's the "goat." Rockaby baby, the dishes are clean, papa's done scrubbing and put on the beans; your mamma is late, seems always to lag, but heaven help papa if she comes home with a jag.—Exchange.
