

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1895.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance, $2 will be charged. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription expires with this issue. Please renew promptly.

CLUESOSITIES.

See the new ad of James W. Smith. J. S. Stewart of Fossil was in town Wednesday.

Don Carlos Boyd is now editor of the Klamath Star. Sheriff Wilcox and family visited Fossil the first of the week.

Frank Caldwell is now wearing the marshal's badge. Who'll be next?

Don't forget the school entertainment this Friday evening at the school house.

Mrs. Drake, wife of our minister, is on the sick list this week, we regret to state.

Lewis Miller and wife of Lone Rock visited friends in Condon several days this week.

Miss Daisy Downing closed a short but very successful term of school on Trail-fork today.

Oliver Barr and his cousin, Elmer Wood, arrived here Friday from Cherry Point, Illinois.

Mrs. J. H. Downing left last week for Colfax, where she will visit her parents a couple of weeks.

J. R. Clark has purchased a lot in the lower end of town and is building a residence and stable on it.

Jack Dempsey, the great prize fighter, died at his home in Portland Friday morning, of consumption.

A fine daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Kiser, just south of town, Tuesday morning, Nov. 5th.

Rev. Barnhart of Fossil preached at Condon Sunday evening and Rev. Drake in the morning, to large congregations.

District Atty. Parrish lost one case out of sixteen over at Canyon, that one being the case of the state vs. Jas. Hunt.

P. H. Stephenson made a flying business trip to Portland this week to purchase a stock of winter goods for his store.

Miss Jessie Smith and Mrs. Louise Burke returned home last week from a three-weeks' visit with friends in Portland.

There will be communion services in the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor.

Howard Propert has returned home, after an absence of a couple of months in Washington, where he was at work harvesting.

Cash Stricklin, who has been working in this section for the last couple of years, left Monday for his home near Oregon City.

Arthur D. Haley, one of the honest and most popular bachelors of the Mayville country, was in town Wednesday on business.

Those who promised to bring us word on account this fall will do us a favor by bringing it in at once, before the roads get bad.

Judge Mariner and Commissioners Ralston and Clynner are holding the regular session of county court at Condon this week.

Teachers examination begins at Condon next Wednesday. Mrs. Lillian Stevens and Silas Keeney will be the assistant examiners.

G. S. Clark went to The Dalles this week to see about the prospects of having his pension increased. G. W. Rinehart took him to Arlington Monday.

This section was favored by a heavy shower of rain Friday night—the first rain for nearly two months. Since that time Mr. Jack Frost visits us ever night.

A slight mistake was made in printing our school report last week, in saying that there were 141 cases of tardiness. It should have read, 20 cases of tardiness and 141 minutes lost.

The defunct Baker City bank will make another 10 per cent dividend to depositors soon, this being fifty per cent paid since the close of the institution about fifteen months ago.

Bill Brassfield Monday brought to town from Ferry Canyon a large lynx, which he poisoned with a dose that had been fixed for coyotes. It was the largest lynx we have ever seen.

Mrs. Putnam, mother of J. H. Putnam, the Fossil merchant, came up last week from her home at Eolo, Polk county, and will spend the winter at Fossil with her son and family.

This fine weather is causing the spring laying of grasshopper eggs to hatch, and the little tender things are brought into the world "under false pretense" as it were, and will probably fail to winter through.

Arthur Brandenburg of Moro was in town several days this week with his phonograph, which talked several dimes out of the boys. His wife came along over to visit her parents, and left for home Sunday.

In 1839 there were only 1624 people in Chicago. Of that number 39 still reside in that city. They have seen the great Western metropolis grow from a swamp into a city, almost the most magnificent on the Western continent.

Miss Mary Marker is lying dangerously sick with typhoid pneumonia at the home of Harry Clay on Rock creek. Her aunt, Mrs. G. J. Caven, and son Thain went down Tuesday to assist in waiting upon her.

L. Parker started for The Dalles Monday to bring out his new stages and is expected here today with them. They will be covered and will be a great improvement over the old ones. This is now perhaps the best-equipped stage line in Oregon.

Music should be cultivated in every family. It is one of the most refining accomplishments one can acquire. Half the world would commit suicide without the solace of music. The other half feels like committing suicide while music is being cultivated.

After a humorous lecture by Bill Nye in a New Jersey town Tuesday night, some drunken things egged him most effectually. Wonder if Bill will explain in the papers about "that tired feeling" he experienced while under the influence of the overdose of hen fruit.

L. Parker, believing that he can best look after the interests of his stage line by residing at Arlington, has concluded to move down to that town with his family next week. Rev. Drake and family expect to occupy the Pitter house, which will be vacated by Mr. Parker and family.

The Dalles is the only place in the Inland Empire anxious to see the ship railway scheme about Cello inaugurated. It would be ducks in the pockets of the people there, while the scheme progressed to absolute failure so far as an open Columbia river is concerned.—Moro Observer.

Thursday night of last week was Halloween, and as usual the boys, large and small, tried to get enjoyment out of topping off the unoccupied buildings in town with old sleighs, plows and everything that was loose at both ends. A number of tricks were played in town here but no damage was done.

Married—At Condon on Nov. 4th, Mr. David Z. Robinette and Mrs. Nettie Flynn, of Lone Rock. Recorder Ed Dunn performed the ceremony and the happy young couple left at once for Lone Rock, where they will begin house-keeping with the best wishes of their many friends.

Invitations will be printed at this office Saturday for a grand ball to be given at Condon on Thursday evening, Nov. 28th, under the auspices of the K. of P. and I. O. O. F. lodges. It is the aim of the managers to make this the grandest and most enjoyable event of the kind ever given in the county.

Ed Copner has changed his mind again and will not become a minister of the gospel, as he threatened to do a short time ago. He left his position as clerk in the Holton House, Portland, a week or so ago and is a drummer once more, being traveling salesman for Wadham & Co. of Portland, dealers in wood-ware.

Charley Lillie has struck 25 feet of water in the 40-foot well which he has just completed. Sheriff Wilcox. It has been proven beyond a doubt that water in abundance can be found anywhere in Condon by digging or boring for it. Mr. Lillie will start today on a well for S. P. Shutt.

We regret to learn of the death on Wednesday of last week of H. W. Fentacost, near Mayville who had been sick a year or more with dropsy and a complication of diseases. A very large number of sorrowing friends and relatives attended the burial at Mayville Thursday. His family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

Charles Dahlke of Clem was up to the city Tuesday having his final naturalization papers taken out before the county court. Mr. Dahlke desires to lease his splendid 640-acre farm, three miles from Clem, and if so he will visit his relatives in Minnesota a few months. Charley's arm, which was broken several years ago, has not yet become as strong as it was before.

Stock Inspector Fred A. Hale of Pine creek is in this section, on his rounds inspecting sheep. He informs us that sheep all over the county are in excellent condition, there being very little, if any, scab at present. Fred says that the best grass he has yet seen on his trip is on Doc Brown's range, several miles north of Condon.

A reporter on an exchange, in his account of the murder of a man named Jenkins, said: "The murderer was evidently in quest of money, but luckily Mr. Jenkins had deposited all his money in the bank the day before, so he lost nothing but his life." How very consoling that must prove to the spirit of Mr. Jenkins and his widow, if he left any.

Does every housekeeper know that milk is an excellent substitute for soap in washing dishes? Its usefulness is varied, for it not only softens the hardest water and gives the dishes a clear, polished look, but it preserves the hands from chapping. It also prevents a greasy scum from appearing on top of the water. The quantity of milk to use is a half cupful in a dish pan half-full of very hot water.—N. Y. World.

Every newspaper treasures up in its memory the names of its friends and likewise its enemies. It never overlooks an opportunity to assist the former, but seldom goes out of its way to aid the latter. Human nature is the same everywhere. People who show their home newspaper kindness never make a better investment for one that will more surely repay them a hundred fold sooner or later.—Exchange.

It took the jury only ten minutes Saturday to arrive at a verdict of murder in the first degree in the Durrant case. His attorneys will make the customary request for a new trial and an appeal to the supreme court; but it is safe to assume that before many more months Durrant will be the central figure in a hemp-stretching exhibition. H. H. Holmes, another notorious murderer, was also found guilty at Philadelphia last week and will soon have his neck in the noose that has been yawning for him for so many months.

Our town experienced a little excitement on Wednesday evening of last week—after the GLOBE was printed. A rough and tumble drunken fight was indulged in by Charley Johnson, Jack King and Mike Sullivan in the saloon, during which Johnson fired off his revolver, making a hole in the porch roof nearly large enough to throw a dog through it. All three were arrested for fighting and Joe Trevett for selling liquor to drunken men. Recorder Ed Dunn set their trial for the next day, at which Johnson was fined $15 and costs, making in all $20.20, which he paid. Sullivan was fined $10 and costs and not having the money he worked it out on the streets. King proved that he merely acted in self defense and was discharged. The case against Trevett was dismissed but he was at once arrested on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, to which he plead not guilty. The recorder found him guilty, however, and imposed a fine of $25 and costs upon him, which he refused to pay and has appealed the case, through his attorney, L. W. Darling, to the circuit court. In every case the city was represented by City Atty. John Lyons.

Arlington Items.

Everybody realizes winter is near at hand.

Another family from Rufus is expected to move to town soon.

Editor Shutt was here last week shaking hands with friends.

A traveling troupe gave an entertainment in the Coffin hall last Saturday night.

Ed Tobey has been on the retired list for several days caused by a carbuncle on his neck.

Mr. Barfoot is back from his Grant county trip. He reports cold weather in the mountains.

A great many geese have been killed here within the last ten days. Dr. Bacon from La Grande, is here hunting.

There was a sale of household goods here last Sat. by Mrs. Hicklin, preparatory to her moving to California. Squire Eli acted as auctioneer and of course made a success of the sale.

W. K. Fowler, who has been spending the summer in Grant county, returned this week. He reports having found some good mines. He is hale and hearty, having feasted on elk meat a part of the time.

Postmaster C. W. Shurte, accompanied by his cousin returned home this week. He reports having had a good time, although the thermometer registered 2 degrees below zero in Dakota just before he left.

Our city dials are having a new reservoir constructed for the city. It will be built of brick cemented, and will add greatly to the cleanliness and purity of our water. Anyone who thinks Arlington is not improving had better revise his opinion.

J. W. Smith returned last week, after an absence of nearly a year. His many friends will regret to learn that he will soon move to California, where he expects to reside in the future. He has invested about $25,000 in a large fruit farm three miles from the city of Riverside, in the healthiest and most delightful portion of California.

A waterway convention was held here last Thursday for the purpose of taking some action looking toward river traffic between The Dalles and this place. Judge Maciner presided. A committee of five, of which Banker Harburt is chairman, was appointed to survey the route around the obstructions in the river, estimate the cost of a portage road, etc., and make report at a future meeting to be called by the chairman. As Mr. Harburt is a first-class surveyor and engineer it is likely his report will contain reliable information in regard to the matter.

Lone Rock Riplets.

From the way the air feels about this neck of the woods it will soon be winter.

Mrs. Clarke, who was very sick some time ago is able to be up and about once more.

J. R. Ralston was up to his Lone Rock ranch Saturday looking after business interests.

Tom Coleman went to Heppner the first of the week to buy the doors and windows, etc. for our new hall.

Something like a dozen immigrant wagons passed through Lone Rock Saturday on their way to California.

Uncle Jimmy Henston is offering his farm and stock for sale cheap for cash. He wants to move to Asbland, Oregon.

All the farmers of our section are very busy putting in fall grain, mostly rye, and hauling in flour and grain, spuds, wood etc.

R. G. Robinson informs us that he will go to Lower California the last of the month, where he will spend the winter.

Quite a heavy rain fell here Friday night; but it turned cold and the grass will not grow any more, consequently it will not do much good.

Our public school house has been on fire several times lately on account of poorly arranged stovepipes, but it seems that the proper persons take no notice of this dangerous affair.

Frank Ralston's horse fell with him last Saturday, and Frank lit in a badger hole about forty yards away. In the accident he got pretty badly banged up, but no bones were broken.

Some old-fashioned card games are frequently played here in one of the vacant houses. The worst of it is that old gray-headed men sit down and play with the younger lads, and there is always silver in sight.

About forty old men, boys and young men adjourned to Morgan Ward's field Sunday, to see an exciting horse race between Henry Neel's horse and Ben Ward's plug. Ten dollars and a few nickels changed hands.

Bob Robinette and Mrs. Nettie Flynn came in from Condon Sunday evening and pronounced themselves man and wife, saying they were married while in that town. The boys at once made a rush for tin pans and bells and in a few minutes gave the newly married couple such a vigorous whooping up and wheelbarrow ride they won't soon forget.

Quite a heated debate took place at the Lone Rock hotel Sunday afternoon, finally terminating in an open combat and hair pulling among some three or four women. One man was present and in his frantic effort to get away from the scene of flying rags, hair and teeth he became entangled with one of the antagonists and got his face considerably disfigured. JONS DOX.

Mayville Mutterings.

Born on Friday Nov. 1st to the wife of Sam McElvray a 11-lb girl.

Mrs. Belle Fontaine is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Capt. Withers.

The Ladies Aid Society have secured the new hall to hold their meetings in this winter.

Miss Maggie Wilson's school is progressing nicely. Although it is a subscription school all the children in the district are attending, besides several from the buckhorn district.

Antone Nelson and John Anderson left here Tuesday with two pack horses loaded with traps, provisions, etc., for Wasco county, to trap coyotes. They were doing fairly well here, having trapped four within the last week.

The basket social given Monday evening by the ladies of the Baptist church was a very enjoyable affair. The baskets were numbered and the corresponding numbers sold to a gentleman, who had to eat supper with the fair partner who owned the basket.

The ball given by the Old Fellows in their new hall Friday night was a grand success—if we judge from the way the dancers enjoyed themselves. 37 numbers were sold. The heavy rain prevented a great many from coming who had intended to come. I. D. C.

Card of Thanks.

We desire in this way to express our thanks to the good people of Condon, who, either in person or by proxy, visited us on Wednesday evening of last week and expressed their kindness by leaving groceries, flour, etc., in the parsonage. While these things have a value within themselves, there is that expressed by them which does much to cheer the hearts and strengthen the hands of the pastor and family.
