

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1895.

Senator Burrows predicts that the coming congress will be obliged to take some action in regard to Cuba. And the best action it can take, provided it believes that we must have the island under our flag, is to make Spain a square, spot-cash offer—say of $75,000,000—for it. That would be a much cheaper way of getting it than by provoking a war with Spain. But the best way to do is to pass resolutions of sympathy with the insurgents and let it go at that. Anything further than that would depict this government as carrying a chip on its shoulder on behalf of all the dissatisfied people on this continent.

Concerning the importance of wearing heavy woolen underclothing, the Philadelphia Ledger says: The warm days of Indian summer make us careless of flannel and furnace fires. It is well to get rid of both for awhile, but the flannels should be at hand and the fires all ready to light, for the cold snap may mean a heavy doctor's bill to the unprepared. In all cases the flannels should not be forgotten, and they should never be of inferior quality—it is more economical to get the best and by care make them last longer, and it is more hygienic as well. Economize on the hat and coat and dress, but spend all you can on really good woolen or silk underwear.

Too much money is being thrown away, wasted upon a so-called navy. At the outbreak of hostilities in 1860. Mr. Wells, secretary of the navy then, found but a single ship in a northern port fitted to engage in aggressive operations. By the end of the year 1863 the government had 600 vessels of war, which were increased to 700 before the end of the war. The several states and territories furnished 101-20 sailors and marines to the navy during the war.

A boy can sit on a sleigh six inches square, tied to a sled going 8 miles an hour, who couldn't sit still on a sofa five minutes for a dollar. A man will sit on an inch board on a board fence and talk politics for 3 hours; put him in a church pew for 40 minutes and he gets nervous, twists, turns and goes to sleep. A man will fill his mouth with filthy tobacco juice until it runs down his chin, but a hair in the butter kills him.—Exchange.

Rev. Hayes of La Grande is said to have a genuine curiosity in the shape of a facsimile of the death warrant of Jesus Christ, as signed and witnessed. The warrant was written on copper-plate, and was discovered while excavating at Jerusalem.

The editor of a valley exchange says that the world is coming to an end in December and advises merchants to advertise so as not to be losers by having large stocks on hand, when the final time arrives.

A young man in Tennessee has been warned by White Caps that he must quit wearing tan shoes. In the North the weather is threatening impecunious men with the same ultimatum.

It is reported that a movement is now on foot to introduce a bill in the next house of congress for the suspension of the annual assessment law, such as existed during 1893-94.

Young ladies who faint on being "proposed to," can be restored to consciousness by just whispering in their ear that you were only joking.—Exchange.

The closing of the New Orleans mint leaves only two United States mints in operation in this country—Philadelphia and San Francisco.

Did you ever stop to consider what a financial drain life insurance entails upon a community? Investigate.—Exchange.

Boys, Dig Up.

All who are indebted to me are requested to settle their accounts at once, either by cash or note, as I expect to leave here soon. Delays are dangerous, so be quick about it. After Jan. 1, 1896, ten per cent interest will be charged on all accounts. J. W. BARR.

What a woman can be is thus described by the Colorado Sun: A woman can be so mean and she can be so nice. She is seldom between. She is mean all the way through when she worries a man about her petty jealousies and mean insinuations. She is nice all the way through when she gives him a word of encouragement for his good deeds, and in this way induces him to do better. She is mean all the way through when, because of her extreme vanity she makes another woman suffer. She is nice all the way through when, out of the goodness of her heart, she gives another woman joy. She is mean all the way through when hospitality is a trouble and courteous words a bore. She is nice all the way through when she speaks pleasant words every day and finds no trouble in being gracious. She is mean all the way through when she holds up her husband or children to ridicule. She is nice all the way through when she finds out the best that is in them and encourages it and then until they are better than good. Sometimes she is a combination of meanness and niceness, and the one that comes to the surface will crowd out the other. That's what we women want to pray for. To lose all the meanness and be as nice as we possibly can.

George (nervously)—I'd like the best in the world, Kitty, to marry you, but I don't know how to propose. Kitty (promptly and practically)—That's all right, George. You've finished with me; now go to papa.
