GLOBOSITIES.

County court next week.
Don't forget to write it '08.
Earl Weatherford of Shuttler Flat was up to town Wednesday on business.
No trace has yet been heard of Bill Smith, who escaped from the county jail recently.

Wm. T. Clark of Gooseberry was over to town Monday making arrangements to prove up on his Hd.

Bart Kiely has been on the sick list this week. His brother Jerry is here on a visit to him and his sisters.

A letter from Miss Birdie Downing informs us that she left Portland last Sunday to join her parents and sisters in California.

A very pleasant social dance was given in the hall here on New Year's night, which was enjoyed by a large number of young folks.

Herbert Halstead and family returned to their home in Lost Valley Wednesday after an extended visit with their relatives in town.

Lloyd Parman was pretty badly hurt a few days ago by his horse falling with him, but as no bones are fractured he is not seriously hurt.

We learn that Mrs. Dora Madden, formerly of Lone Rock, was recently married to a gentleman at Oakland, this state, and is residing in that town.

Russia offers to advance $400,000,000 in gold to the United States, just as a matter of friendship. This is very kind on the part of Russia, which has always been a staunch friend to this country.

As this is the beginning of the new year, everybody who are indebted to the GLOBE should settle up and start in with a "clear conscience" again. Pay what you owe and then we can do the same.

A dispatch from Washington informs us that the pension of G. S. Clark of this place has been increased from $6 to $12 a month. This entitles Mr. Clark to nearly $500 back pay, which he will get at once.

Among the neatest calendars we have yet seen this year is issued by the Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance Company, one of which was presented this office by their agent here, Atty. H. B. Hendricks.

Remember that Liverine is a first-class remedy for the liver, and one of the very best for constipation. Liverine is an Oregon remedy. Patronize home industry by buying a bottle of Liverine at L. W. Darling's.

A letter from Sylvan Palmer, who is at work in a barber shop at The Dalles, says that he expects to return to Condon in a few days. Sylvan says Condon is good enough for him; that it is the best little town he ever saw.

The election for Sunday School officers Sunday resulted as follows: For Supt., Rev. Drake; assistant Supt., Mrs. Henshaw; Sec., Belle Darling; librarians, Boehl Fitzwater and Stella Darling; organist, Birdie Henshaw.

Miss Belle Darling arrived home Friday from Forest Grove, where she and her sister Goldie have been attending the Pacific University since last fall. Miss Goldie will remain in school until the end of the term, in June.

It is said that the war in Cuba is costing Spain in the neighborhood of $4,000,000 a week and that if she prolongs it she will soon be bankrupt. War comes high, but it is a luxury that a nation sometimes cannot get along without.

The A. F. & A. M. and Eastern Star lodges of this place held a public installation of officers Friday evening in their hall. A fine banquet was prepared in the Artory hall and was enjoyed by a large number of invited guests.

The plea that President Cleveland is playing his hand for personal aggrandizement finds very few supporters. Republicans and democrats alike are unanimous in expressions of their admiration for Grover since he has gone lion hunting.

The present system of assessing property in Oregon is proving to be absolutely unreliable, resulting in taxation being unequal and unjust. The present system of assessment is preferable to it—and that is a defective system as well as complicated.—East Oregonian.

The Seekamp case was disposed of in the U. S. district court at Portland Monday, and resulted in a verdict for Mr. Seekamp. Mr. Gurley, the bright young Arlington attorney, appeared for Mr. Seekamp in this case and, as usual, acquitted himself with much credit.

The Southern Pacific, California's octopus, in its rate war with the O. R. & N. is getting the worst of the fight. The people of California and Western Oregon will shed no tears over the situation. They regard the S. P. in the light of a notorious highway robber.

A "watch party" was enjoyed by a large number of young people at Maddock's hotel Tuesday night—to watch the old year out and the new year in. At midnight the party promenade the town with a large bass drum and drummed the old year out with a vengeance.

War between America and England came near being declared at The Dalles Monday, when an enthusiastic subject of Queen Victoria unthoughtfully shouted "Hurrah for England." He was promptly ejected from the room in which he gave vent to his feelings, and thereby a calamity was averted.—Chronicle.

An Omaha preacher complains because the 35,000 lawyers of the country get 5 times as much pay as the 37,000 clergymen. It is evident he doesn't realize that the common belief is that the minister will get additional rewards hereafter, while with the lawyer the question of future reward is doubtful, says an exchange.

Educate only a man's head and you make him an infidel, educate only a man's heart and you make him a fanatic; educate them both together, and you have the noblest work of God.—Talmage. Daniel Webster says: The greatest thought that ever occupied my mind was the thought of my personal responsibility to God.

The returns from the different counties in the state are now all in and have been accepted by the board of equalization at Salem. The total value of all property in the state is given at $158,819,730. Multnomah is the wealthiest county in the state, her valuation being placed at $56,673,100. Curry is the poorest, being assessed at $644,958.

Rev. U. S. Drake has been conducting a revival here since Sunday, the meetings every evening being attended by large congregations. It will last all of next week yet and perhaps longer. Salvation is a good thing, so don't be backward about getting some of it. There isn't much danger of getting more of it than you need, or an overdose of it.

The senate has adopted a resolution removing disabilities that prevented ex-confederate soldiers from serving in the army of the United States. It is the final act in bridging over the chasm of division that was wide and deep 30 years ago, and it is no more than simple justice to men who were none the less earnest and honest because they happened to wear the gray.

After the next election Eastern Oregon will have strong representation on the state board of equalization. The law provides that the board shall be made up of one member for each judicial district, thus giving seven members at present. The last legislature created two new judicial districts in Eastern Oregon, thus increasing the board to nine members, four of whom will come from Eastern Oregon proper, not counting the member from the first district, whose home is in Lake county.

We are informed that the hack that was broken in G. W. Rinehart's barn Friday was, after all, not done by human hands, as a number of persons who examined it found horse hair on the wheel and they believe that it was broken by a horse falling against it. No marks could be found on the wheel that would show that it was done by a hand-spike or anything of that kind. We gladly make the correction for the reason that we don't want outsiders to think we have anyone here mean enough to maliciously destroy property through spite.

People imagine it is a great honor to be elected to congress or the senate, or to be made president. This is a mistake. All the people can do is to put a man in a place where he can earn honor. Honor is not aims; it must be earned. Even an infinite God could not place in an unworthy hand the jewel of honor; honor must be won. It comes from the inside; not from the place of power; not from majorities or crowds. The gem called honor can be won and worn in valleys as well as on the mountain tops; in obscurity as well as in the light and blaze of fame.—Robert Ingersoll.

Henry Doores, who had been in the employ of A. Renner and left here last fall on a visit to his relatives in Montana, came back last week and on Tuesday of this week he and Miss Carrie Renner were united in marriage by Justice Shutt at his residence in Condon. The happy young couple left at once for Martinsdale, Montana, where the groom will take charge of one of his rich uncle's large stock ranches as foreman. Henry is a hard-working and industrious young man, who will doubtless succeed at anything he undertakes. The bride's many friends here regret her departure, but all wish her much joy in her new and distant home.

Jas. H. Hill, formerly of Condon, is teaching a country school, with 40 pupils, near Goldendale. In his last published report in the Goldendale Agriculturalist he adds: "I take pride in extending an invitation to those interested in the cause of education to come and see a self-governed school where the teacher's entire time can be, and is, given to instruction; where ill conduct on the part of the pupil is so frowned at by the whole school that a reputation is not to be thought of. And I hereby extend my hearty thanks to the parents for their cooperation; and especially do I wish to tender my most sincere thanks to the pupils for their part in making the school the pleasantest one that I have ever taught and making it possible for me to challenge the county to show a more interesting or easily managed school or one where more real advancement is made."

The Review truthfully says: There are certain conceited individuals in every community who imagine that every local editorial criticism is intended especially for them—who think the editor sits up nights conjuring up some way of hitting them. In 9 cases out of 10 the editor has never thought of them. The only thing that he can do with soreheaded people is pay no attention to them, go ahead and tell the truth, and if the shoes fit them let them wear them. An editor has few greater trials than the big-headed people who foolishly imagine that everybody else is thinking about them. The best way to treat is to ignore them altogether as far as possible, for they never appreciate a puff, and if you do not puff them they construe every reference to them into an assault.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Clarke left the first of this week for the home of his father near Lone Rock, with the expectation of staying with him a couple of months. The old gentleman has been in very feeble health for some time, and his days on this earth are very few. Later, just as we go to press we learn his death occurred yesterday. We have not learned whether the burial will take place at Lone Rock or at Condon. His son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Barker left this morning on their sad mission to attend the funeral. His aged wife is very close to death's door also and was not able to accompany them. The same messenger brought the news of the death of Grandma Brown, whose death occurred also yesterday at Lone Rock. The remains will be interred at the family burying ground on Rock creek, at what hour we have not learned.

Target and trap shooting is the order of the day here.

The outlook here is very favorable for a large crop next harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stillwell, who have been residing across the river in Washington for the last year, moved to Arlington last week.

Owing to most of our business men having their ads planted in the rich and fertile soil of the GLOBE, their business during these winter months continues to be very brisk—an unusual thing for this time of the year.

Dr. Giesendorfer and "Little Phil" were witnesses in the U. S. circuit court at Portland last week. Atty. S. A. D. Gurley and Ernest Seekamp were also attending the same court, Mr. Gurley as Atty. for the latter in the Cox-Seekamp case. The jury found a verdict for Mr. Seekamp.

Lone Rock Riplets.

Bill Pierce of Dry Fork is over here with 20 traps and is making it hot for the coyotes.

A great many cattle have been moved out of this section to the Eightmile country to winter, there being plenty of straw there.

The weather has been very changeable this week. The ground has been covered with ice for the last week, making it pretty difficult to navigate safely, unless one is pretty well "balanced."

Lone Rock will send a brigade to the war between Uncle Sam and Mr. J. Bull. It is evident that the war talk will only be a prolonged "aguring match" and that's our strongest point up here.

Grandpa and Grandma Brown are nearing the end of life's journey very rapidly and are not expected to last but a few days longer. Their son D. S. and family were over from Condon last week to visit them.

Eli Jones was in our town Monday having some legal business transacted before Notary Public J. B. Goff. Eli whispered to us on the side that there was a little coin coming to him from the East, which is very acceptable these times.

A mask ball was given in our berg New Years Eve. We noticed some of the costumes and from their general appearance they would have been just the thing for the Armenian Christians to have defended themselves with by scaring all the Turks and Kurds out of their country.

The German-American Insurance Co. of New York, one of the most reliable companies in the world, has established an office at Condon with L. W. Darling as agent.

Church Meeting.

The annual meeting of the First Congregational Church of Condon will convene in the church, Jan. 11, 1866, at 7 p. m. for the purpose of hearing reports from the officers of the past year, the election of officers for the coming year, and such other matters as may be necessary. Mrs. N. J. HENDRICKS, Clerk.

The president, the senate, the house of representatives and the 70,000,000 people of the United States have said unanimously that the Monroe doctrine must be maintained at any cost. Does that look like an "election argument," Mr. John Bull?

If you want to win a prize, subscribe for the S. F. Examiner through the GLOBE agent. Among the $150,000 worth of prizes to be presented to its subscribers this year are: First prize, a $10,000 farm; 2d prize, a $5,000 gold nugget; 3d prize, the winner's weight in silver, worth about $1,500. Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine that I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medicinal properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market. If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by all druggists.
