

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1896.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The West and Southwest have got to wake up or be left in the lurch. The immigration societies in the South never before so alert as now. They want immigrants. We repeat, if the rich acres of the West are to be tilled the people of the West will have to do better work than they have been doing of late. Excepting California and Utah the states of the West, as far as regards encouraging immigration by the best methods, have been taking a profound sleep. Millions of acres in the Dakotas, in Utah, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon are yet unbroken, and will remain so unless those states bestir themselves. A great immigration convention was recently held at Seattle, Wash., and it resolved to ask the state to appropriate $25,000 from the state fund, and to call on all commercial bodies for generous contributions. If wisely expended such money will do much good. The people of the middle West and East have very imperfect ideas of the great West and will eagerly read facts regarding it.

The Dawson Daily News says that a preacher in North Georgia worth $12,000 permits his mother to live in the county poorhouse, and adds that the church that would fellowship such a man, the audience that would listen to such a preacher, and the society that would tolerate him, deserve to be turned over to the tender mercies of the Sandwich cannibals, while the parson himself ought to be placed in the center of a ten-acre field, covered knee-deep in powder, and a red-hot bar of iron placed in his hands with the right to hold or drop it, whichever he preferred.—Kansas City Star.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says: One trouble following a manifestation of the United States' determination to maintain the Monroe doctrine is the bellicose effect on the republics of South America. Ever since the message of the president little Venezuela has been pirouetting around like a bantam rooster "spillin' for a fight." All the dispatches from that quarter indicate that Venezuela is now anxious to fight anybody or anything, and if she does not cool down it may be that Uncle Sam will have to spank her, as well as thrash John Bull.

The Inter Ocean believes that the United States should leave no just method unused to stop the persecution of Armenians in Turkey. Just the same, it believes we owe a duty to the suffering Cubans almost in sight of our southern shore. The United States is a nation great enough and with power enough to be felt in all such contests. If such is "jingoism" let us have more of it. A nation is not much of a nation, just as a man is not much of a man, when he stands by and sees a bully maltreating and killing the helpless.

Mr. Frank Welch, a Texan who is now in Washington, said: "There is hardly any doubt of a successful combine between the Texas republicans and populists, and their combined forces ought to be able to knock out the democrats, as the present governor was only elected by a plurality. It has been agreed that the populists shall name the entire state ticket and that the presidential electors and representatives in congress shall be equally divided with the republicans."

Durrant is still unhung and a bill of exceptions, covering 793 folios of type-written matter has been filed with Judge Murphy in support of a new trial. Justice and public decency demand that this case be not opened again. There is no doubt of his guilt and he should pay the penalty of the law.

England is in hot water but she has no one to blame but herself. Land grabbing is sure to meet with opposition from some source or other and when the great nations start to stop it they are very likely to be successful.

One hundred and seventy-six Armenian towns have been blotted out, 500,000 Armenians murdered, and still the European powers insist on calling their fleets engaged in eyeing each other a concert.

James W. Smith's new spring and summer stock of gents' furnishing goods, boots and shoes, dry goods, etc., will all be in by March 1st. His goods are bought direct from the East, at prices that defy competition.

Shurtz Bros. of Arlington, have a new line of fresh, reliable, and good in their postoffice store.

Respect to the Dead.

CASTLE HALL, ENDYMION LODGE NO. 65, K. of P.

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Architect of the Universe to remove from our midst our late brother Thomas B. Hoover; and

Whereas, it is but just and fitting that a recognition of his many virtues be had. Therefore, be it

Resolved, by Endymion Lodge No. 65, Knights of Pythias, of the Grand Domain of Oregon, that, while we bow with humble submission to the will of the most high, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken from us.

Resolved, that, in the death of Thomas B. Hoover, this Lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed of the fraternity; an active member of this society, whose utmost endeavors were extended for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and brother who was dear to us all; a citizen whose upright and noble life was the standard of emulation of his fellows.

Resolved, that the heartfelt sympathy of this Lodge, be extended to his family in their afflictions.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge, and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother, and to each of the newspapers of the county.

Dated at Condon, Oregon, this 4th day of February, 1896.

J. W. BLAKE,
M. O. CLARKE,
AL HENSHAW,
Committee.

Blames the Parents.

The following from the Spokane Chronicle serves as a good hint to parents in other towns who are careless enough to allow their children to run at large:

It is a melancholy fact, but anyone who walks through the business streets of this city almost any afternoon or evening is forced to the conclusion that there are two or three hundred parents in this city who are not fit to be entrusted with the training and education of a yearling calf. Perhaps one should be thankful that the proportion of such parents is smaller in Spokane than in most cities; but that is no excuse. Parents who care so little for their children as to allow them to run wild in the streets, filling the air with profanity and obscene language, and making life a burden for passers-by are not only wronging the public and grievously wronging the little folks—for which perhaps they care nothing—but it is a satisfaction to state that they are also laying up large stocks of trouble for their own future use.

A Home Company.

The cheapest life insurance in the world. You don't have to die to get your money. The Washington Cooperative Life Insurance Association of Portland, Oregon, is a purely mutual beneficial association, equitable and economical in every respect, as reference to its table will show. It is purely beneficial, as it not only protects the loved ones in case the protector is removed by death, but the policy holders as well. He has made the afternoon of his life pleasant and comfortable by his own frugality and very little self-denial. Call at once and see Al Henshaw and learn how this can be done. Do not let this golden opportunity pass by. Remember you do not have to die to get your money. Al Henshaw, agent, Condon, Oregon.

How to Cure a Bad Cold.

I had a bad cold and cough for several months and tried almost everything. Finally, Mr. Hunt, the druggist at West Chester, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A 50 cent bottle cured me entirely.—ANNIE MEICHER, Dillworthtown, Chester Co., Pa. For sale by all druggists.

The Doctor Out of town When Most Needed.

Mr. J. Y. Schenck, editor of the Cadoc, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl two years of age was threatened with a severe attack of the croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which proved to be the best. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists.
