

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1896.

The advice of the Condon correspondent in the Fossil paper, in reference to encouraging immigration to this section, is timely and sensible. Almost every issue since its birth the GLOBE has contained items and articles setting forth the advantages this county offers to immigrants and homeseekers over any other portion of the country, and we propose to continue in the good work until all of the choice government land is taken in this vicinity. No one has a chance to know better than do the county assessors how much vacant land is fenced up in this county—used for stock range—as rich and fertile land as has ever been filed upon. There ought to be a family residing on every 160 acres of this land and no doubt would be if it were not fenced in so that homeseekers would know what land is yet vacant. Ex-Assessor Wheeler informed us that there are hundreds of claims, government land, in this county—as good land as he ever saw—used for pasture, that no one would ever be able to learn whether it is vacant or not, without examining the county records or plats at the land office. This is one of the principal drawbacks and hindrances from the country settling up as it should be. Only this week we learned of several hundred acres of very choice land with running water on it, within four miles of this town, that the general public has always thought had been filed upon years ago—simply because it is enclosed with a fence. Homeseekers can find some valuable homes yet in this section by going to the trouble of a little investigation.

We often hear men say: "It's no use to do anything. I guess I'll not vote this time. The rings run everything, so what's the use?" My friend there is where you make a mistake. Who is to blame for ring rule and high taxes? You are. Why? Because you allow a few politicians to do the setting up, and then you go to the polls and "cuss" and wail, but wind up by voting for every ringster on the ticket. You ought to see to it that good men are nominated, and this can be accomplished by taking a hand yourself and seeing to it that the ringsters and their friends don't capture the primaries. So long as you sulk and give way to despair, so long will your interests be neglected and your taxes piled up higher and higher.—Sheridan Sun.

Follow the physician's instructions religiously about the number of visitors to be allowed in the sick-room. Keep out doleful and reminiscent persons, who can always remember a similar case which ended fatally. Allow only cheerful, sunny visitors in; repeat only cheerful gossip, and never allow the conversation to be exciting or depressing. Do not ask the patient what he wants to eat. Ask the doctor what he should eat, prepare it daintily and in small quantities and serve it to him, arrayed as temptingly as possible. Cover the tray with a spotless linen cloth, use the prettiest china and the brightest silver and glass and adorn the tray with a flower or two. Daintiness is a great appetizer.—N. Y. World.

An old cavalryman says that a horse will never step on a man intentionally. It is a standing order in the English cavalry that, should a man become dismounted, he must lie down and keep perfectly still. If he does so, the entire troop will pass over him without his being injured. A horse notices where he is going, and is always on the lookout for a firm foundation to put his foot on. It is an instinct with him therefore, to step over a prostrate man. The injuries caused to human beings by a runaway horse are nearly always caused by the animal knocking them down, and not by his stepping on them.

Baker City Democrat: The meanest person in the world, either man or woman, is the sneak, except some other person who is a bigger sneak. The man or woman who will smile into the face of another with friendship, and who, with soft words, will express solicitude for the health and prosperity of the person addressed, and with soft compliments will express the hope that the fortune of the other may be enhanced; and who then, behind the person's back will by whispers, innuendos, and where possible by open words try to break down the reputation of that person, to cast doubts upon that person's sincerity and try by the means of the sneak to weaken the respect of others for that person; to cause others to doubt the friendship of that person, such an individual in a community is a libel on humanity and is worthy of the contempt only, of decent people.

Science is on the threshold of being enabled to locate disease by means of photography. It is asserted that the new Reutgen photography will enable physicians to definitely determine the location and state of the disease in any part of the body.

Uncle Sam can buy the island of St. Thomas from Denmark "low for cash or country produce." The question is, does he want it? It is an island thirteen miles long and has a perfect landlocked harbor.

Germany seems to have a kind of Monroe doctrine of its own. It is a little harder to pronounce, perhaps, than Uncle Sam's but it is likely to answer the purpose in South Africa.

The Associated Press informs the world that John L. Sullivan has been on another spree. If trouble was taken to ascertain a time when he is sober it might make a readable item.

To the Public.

I have taken charge of the Cunningham livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from every where will remember me when they come to town. My rates are very moderate and the very best care is taken of stock left in my care. Give me a chance. J. F. THOMAS.

How to Cure a Bad Cold.
I had a bad cold and cough for several months and tried almost everything. Finally, Mr. Hunt, the druggist at West Chester, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A 50 cent bottle cured me entirely.—AMNER MERCEZ, Dillworthtown, Chester Co., Pa. For sale by all druggists.

The Doctor Out of town When Most Needed.
Mr. J. Y. Schenck, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl two years of age was threatened with a severe attack of the croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50c bottles for sale by all druggists.
