THE CONDON GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1896.

Many writers are urging that the horse will wake up some morning and find his occupation gone, that the trolly car, the horseless carriage and the wheel have thrown thousands of them out of employment and driven them to ignominious deaths at the slaughter house, after which they have been revenged by being palmed off upon mankind for beef. They assert that in Chicago only half as many horse shoers are employed as there were five years ago; but the Record disputes some of these statements, and argues that there never will cease to be a demand for fine horses, and that no new-fangled electric machine can take the place of old Dobbin on the farm or the old bay mule on the plantation. It says, the low market has almost stopped the breeding of horses, and that the imminence of a horse-famine is destined to soon set the market to booming as it has not boomed for a decade.

A Heppner correspondent of the East Oregonian says that there is now in the banks of Heppner at least $150,000 which is to be offered for sheep at last year's prices, which are $1 for yearlings, and $1.-50 for 2 year-olds. Sheepmen do not feel inclined to sell at these prices. It is estimated that the Heppner sheep market at the present time consists of nearly 150,000 sheep. Prospects for the coming wool clip, the wheat crop and the sale of sheep in Morrow county cause anticipation of the good old times.

France has an income tax that creates a revenue of $30,000,000 annually. Had it not been for the decision of the supreme court, the United States would have had a similar law that would have brought $40,000,000 into the treasury every year. This would have brought a balance on the right side in the treasury account, and instead of a deficit in the revenues of the government for the fiscal year there would have been a surplus.

Following is the cast of characters that will play the above drama at Condon within a short time, the proceeds of which will go to the Condon Brass Band, to be used in buying needed instruments:

Dr. Harlem—Principal of Greenlake Seminary—H. N. Frazer.
Harry Harlem, his son—E. W. Moore.
Fred Hasting's pupil—C. C. Henshaw.
Bob Winder's pupil—C. O. Portwood.
Johnathan Wild Butts, thieftaker—John Lyons.
Lucy Harlem, the doctor's daughter—Ella Kiely.
Mrs. Loring, housekeeper—Daisy Downing.
Dilly, outcast from the street—Katie Kiely.

Church Notice.

There will be a business meeting of The First Congregational church of Condon, at the close of services next Sunday evening, March 22d, to arrange for pastoral services for the coming year and to elect delegates to the Mid-Columbia Association, which meets at Weston, Oregon, March 31 to April 2, 1896. All members are expected to be present.

L. W. Darling Clerk.

Republican Call.

The republicans of Gilliam County Oregon, will meet at the usual voting place in their respective precincts on Saturday the 21st day of March, 1896, at 2 o'clock p. m. and nominate candidates for precinct offices and elect delegates to the republican county convention for Gilliam county, which is called to meet at Condon on Saturday, March 28, 1896, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for all county offices (except county judge and one county commissioner) and to elect 3 delegates to represent Gilliam county at the republican state and district convention for Oregon. The County Convention will consist of 43 delegates, chosen from the various precincts as follows:

Arlington	5	Blalock	2
Rock Creek	6	Condon	4
Ferry Canyon	2	Matney	2
Lone Rock	3	Idea	2
Trailfork	3	Mayville	4
Butte Creek	5	Crown Rock	3
Rowe Creek	2

The apportionment is one delegate at large from each precinct, one for every 15 votes and one for every fraction over one-half thereof cast for governor of Oregon at the June election, 1894.

By order of the Republican County Central Committee. S. G. Hawson, Chairman.

He "Stopped" the Paper.

A story told of Horace Greeley relates that an acquaintance of his got offended at one of his articles in the Tribune, went to the office and put an end to his subscription. Later in the day he met the editor and said: "Mr. Greeley, I've stopped your paper." "Have you?" queried Horace, adding, "Well that's too bad," and the old white hat went its way. The next morning Greeley encountered his former subscriber again and accosted him with: "I thought you had stopped the Tribune." "So I did." "Then there must be some mistake," replied Horace, "for I just came from the office, and when I left the presses were running as usual, the clerks were as busy as ever, and the compositors were hard at work, and the business was going on the same as yesterday and the day before." "Oh!" ejaculated the old subscriber, "I didn't mean that I stopped the paper; I stopped only my copy of it because I didn't like one of your editorials." "Pshaw!" retorted Greeley, "it wasn't worth taking up my time to tell me such a trifle as that. My dear sir, if you expect to control the utterance of the Tribune by the purchase of one copy a day, or if you think to find any newspaper worth reading that never expresses convictions at right angles with your own you are doomed to disappointment. The Tribune would not be deserving of respect if it could be coerced by the threat of the loss of one subscriber, or a hundred, or ten thousand, or even every one it has, to refrain from telling the truth as it sees it. My friend this is a free country, and the man that does not give freedom of opinion to others does not deserve it himself. Goodbye."

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for county clerk, subject to the decision of the republican county convention for the coming June election. I would agree to run the office for $1500 a year (the constitutional salary) and hire my own deputy, if one is needed, and allow all perquisites to go to the county.

Z. T. Dodson, Clem, Or.

Populist Call.

The populists of Gilliam county, Oregon, will meet at the usual voting place in their respective precincts on Saturday the 4th day of April, 1896, at 2 o'clock p. m. and nominate candidates for precinct officers and elect delegates to the populist county convention for Gilliam county, which is called to meet at Condon on Saturday, April 11, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for all county offices (except county judge and one county commissioner). The County Convention will consist of 31 delegates, chosen from the various precincts as follows:

Arlington	3	Blalock	1
Rock Creek	3	Condon	3
Ferry Canyon	2	Matney	2
Lone Rock	3	Idea	2
Trailfork	2	Mayville	5
Butte Creek	3	Crown Rock	1
Rowe Creek	1

The apportionment is one delegate at large from each precinct, one for every 10 votes and one for every fraction over one-half thereof cast for governor of Oregon at the June election, 1894.

By order of the Populist County Central Committee. J. R. Clark, Chairman.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Gilliam County

The Solicitors Loan and Trust Company, plaintiff, vs. James B. Sloan, Florence A. Sloan and Lewis M. La Pointe, defendants.

The State of Oregon, to the above-named defendants, James B. Sloan, Florence A. Sloan and Lewis M. La Pointe, greeting:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby required to be and appear in the above entitled court, in the above named suit and answer the complaint filed against you in said suit by the above named plaintiff on or before Monday, April 13, 1896, that being the first day of next regular term of this court; and if you fail so to appear and answer, the said plaintiff will take judgment against you and will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, which consists among other things, of judgment against the said defendants, James B. Sloan and Florence A. Sloan, for the sum of five hundred and fifteen dollars ($15.00) and interest thereon from October 1, 1891, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and fifty dollars ($50.00) attorneys fees in this suit and costs and disbursements, and of a decree against all of said defendants in said suit, foreclosing the mortgage given by said defendants, James B. Sloan and Florence A. Sloan on July 16, 1886, upon that certain piece and parcel of land in Gilliam county, state of Oregon, known and described as the northwest quarter of section four (4) in township two (2) north, of range twenty (20) east, of the Willamette Meridian; to secure the payment of the sums aforesaid; and barring and foreclosing said defendants and each and all of them of all right, title and interest of, in and to said land; and for general relief.

This summons is served by publication by order of Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, Circuit Judge, dated December 16, 1895.

C. B. Upton and H. H. & H. B. Hendricks, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

When are Canty's prices right?
When the daylight follows night,
When the winter proceeds spring,
When the song birds learn to sing,
When the deaf no longer hear,
When anarchists love beer,
When the chickens feathers wear,
When the sailors learn to swear,
When you want saddles repaired,
When you want collars repaired,
When the running streams are wet,
When the sheep begins to lamb,
When sheepmen packsaddles want,
When the farmers commence to plow,
When stockmen commence to brand,
If's then Canty's saddles you want,
Then are Canty's prices right,
You can find him in his shop day or night.
