The whole of the republic of Honduras has been placed under martial law, pending the settlement of the civil revolt in Nicaragua, in which the president of Honduras has espoused the cause of the Zelaya government against the rebels. The Cuban controversy in congress is giving the sugar trust some concern, for if the belligerency of the insurgents is recognized the trust may be cut off from receiving supplies from that source for an indefinite period, whereas, if the debate on the resolution is postponed the shipment of sugar from Cuba will continue for a while longer.

Frank Robinson, of Spokane, who was possessed of a comfortable home, an estimable wife and three interesting children, and who had always borne a good reputation, was shot by Horace Mann, a lawyer, while in the act of burglarizing his residence. He escaped from Mann's residence, ran two blocks, and was found after daylight with a bullet through his brain. Who fired the second shot, which must have caused instant death, will probably never be known.
