CLOSURES.

Circuit court next week.

Mrs. D. S. Brown is on the sick list this week and under medical treatment.

The Gilliam county populists will hold their county convention here on Saturday of this week.

Mrs. Dunlap returned home yesterday, after a ten days' visit with Mrs. Fred Tobey at Arlington.

There are 100,000 commercial drummers in the United States—the largest brass band on record.

Too many who cry hard times take a 10-cent cigar out of their mouths while pleading poverty.—Ex.

Mrs. A. Henriod of Walla Walla arrived here Monday on a short visit to her brother, S. D. Fletcher of Matney.

Mrs. Wilcox and children are visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. Pinkham on Pine creek, where they will remain for several weeks.

Geo. Gibbons this week papered the dining room and office of Maddock's hotel, ceiling and all, and as usual made a fine job of it.

Dr. Howard was summoned yesterday from Fossil to prescribe for Mrs. J. W. Blake, who has been very sick with la grippe for several days.

Rev. Barnhart of Fossil preached here Sunday, morning and evening. He expects to conduct a revival here, commencing in about two weeks.

Congress has authorized the expenditure of $20,000 more to make a projecting wall at Cascade Locks. When this work is done the locks will be ready for use.

Last Sunday was Easter. The GLOBE family was kindly remembered on that day by little Mary Danneman of Clem, who sent us a box of Easter eggs, some of which were beautifully colored.

The K. of P. and I. O. O. F. lodges of this place expect to give a grand invitation ball at Condon on Friday night, May 1st. They are determined to make it the grandest event of the season.

Several sheppens of the Antelope section at a recent meeting discouraged the use of poison in killing coyotes, by withdrawing the bounty, on account of sheep dogs being killed by the strychnine.

Circuit court for this county will convene at Condon next Monday, 13th. The docket is about of average length and it is presumed that it will not take over a week to dispose of all the business this time.

W. J. Edwards, of Gilliam county, who has been visiting with relatives here for the past few days, has gone to Corvallis to make his sons, Frank and Fred, who are students of the O. A. C., a short visit before returning home.—Eugene Guard.

We learn that J. H. Miller and family have moved their store from Caldwell, Idaho, to White Rock, a small town in Nevada, just south of the Idaho line. We believe John made a mistake by leaving here and he no doubt, knows it by this time.

The fastest mile ever ridden on a bicycle was by M. Dennis at Denver recently. He rode a No. 1 Crescent, 1896 model on a straight track in one minute, eleven and three-fifths seconds. Ride a Crescent and always be happy. Shurte Bros., agents.

The gallantry of Eastern Oregon men continues to assert itself, undiminished by the constitution. So far, ten ladies have been nominated for the county school superintendency, Morrow county heading the list with three—one for each party.—Oregonian.

Horse posters were printed at this office Friday for Mr. J. W. Ebbert's magnificent stallion, "Don Pedro." Mr. Ebbert will take the horse to Mayville on April 16th, and will keep him there a portion of the time. This is one of the best horses in the state.

Read the new ad on 1st page of the Wasco Warehouse Co. of The Dalles. It will particularly interest the sheppens. The warehouses of The Dalles are making a vigorous effort to induce the sheppens of the interior country to haul their wool to that city this season.

The nine head of horses belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Billing, that were sold at auction sale Saturday, brought something like $53, about two-thirds of which was cash, the balance on 6 months' time. Most Ward bought one, R. W. Crane two and Grant Wade the balance.

E. P. Weir of Mayville, a democratic delegate to the state convention, left for Portland Tuesday. We understand that he is the only one of the five delegates from this county who attended the convention, the others sending their proxies by him and L. O. Edwards, who also intended to go.

Last Saturday was the date for the populist primaries in this county. At Condon J. R. Clark was elected chairman and Chas. Fix secretary. A. J. Moore, J. W. Ebbert and J. R. Clark were elected delegates to the county convention, which meets here next Saturday. No nominations for precinct officers were made here at the primary.

Mr. Charles Weigard, of Arlington, spent Monday in the city visiting his old friend, Mr. Charles Schutz. He left on the Regular next morning for Portland.—Dalles Chronicle.

W. F. Settlemyer of Arlington, crossed the river Tuesday morning enroute to the mouth of Alder Creek, where he is fixing up a fruit ranch. He says there are several hundred acres of land there suitable for fruit growing if there can be enough water procured for irrigation.—Goldendale Agriculturalist.

We understand that the populists are yet undecided as to whether they will put a full ticket in the field in this county or not. There is one thing certain, they are in a position to hold the balance of power at present and can elect or defeat any of the nominees of the old parties, by their indorsement, should they not put out a ticket.

At the republican county convention held in Portland Saturday, Geo. C. Sears, the present sheriff of Multnomah county, was nominated for the same position. This will save him the trouble of running independently, as heretofore whenever he was not given the regular nomination he ran on the independent ticket and always won anyway. He's a hard man to down.

W. R. Boyer of Clem was in town Saturday. He informed us that he had a letter several days ago from the California gentleman who is on the lookout for government claims for about a dozen families, and who recently wrote to Henry Miller of Matney, saying that he expects to visit this section next week. If suitable homes can be had, the homeseekers will move here this spring.

There is a class of small bore fellows who are sailing under the misnomer of editor who would rather do job work and advertising at a loss than see a contemporary do it at a living profit. As long as this cut-throat policy continues, newspapermen will continue to be looked down upon in business circles for the reason that they lose cast by not being able to pay their debts.—Statesman.

All county officers who will be succeeded by others will be compelled to relinquish their offices the first Monday in July, with the single exception of assessor who holds until the first Monday in January following the election. This is in accordance with a recent act of the legislature, as the assessor is usually very busy in July making assessments, and his work cannot be profitably broken in upon.

A bill has been reported favorably in the house providing for the election of senators by a direct vote of the people. There is no probability of its passing this session, but a certain amount of agitation is necessary before any reform can be enacted. A change in the mode of electing senators is demanded by the people, the legislative squabble of different states the last two years giving new impetus to the movement.

We were informed this week of several cases of cruelty to animals that happened recently along the John Day river opposite Sherman county that for unadulterated cussedness beats anything we have yet heard of by white men or boys. A coyote that was skinned alive and turned loose was seen down there last week, also several coyotes with their ears and scalps taken off and turned loose. The grand jury should investigate the matter and treat the guilty parties in a similar manner.

What is Portland coming to, politically? At the republican primaries and convention held there last week it was a regular riot from beginning to end, all the policemen in the city not being able to keep order. There were scores of scuffling matches and several murders were narrowly averted. Several fights took place in the convention room between the opposing factions, the Joe Simon gang on one side and the Frank Home-Minto gang on the other. Simon's crowd is in the lead this time, about two to one.

A Corvallis husband advertised his wife as follows: "Notice—My wife having left my bed and board, I warn all persons from selling her any goods on my account, 'Alfred Horner.' Did she care? Not much. A while afterwards the following appeared: Notice—I would inform the public in general, and Alfred Horner in particular, that his credit is in no danger of being offered for sale by me. And as for the bed and board he speaks of my leaving, there is a mistake about that, for, from the unfortunate day we were married until now, he has never given me either, nor had he them to give. Therefore the matter is Gussie paddles her own canoe. Mrs. Gussie Horner."—Times.

Just as we go to press, a drummer arrived in town from Arlington and reported that Phil Heppner, the well-known warehouseman, committed suicide yesterday morning about 10 o'clock in his warehouse by shooting himself through the head with a 44-calibre revolver. We have not learned any of the particulars or the supposed cause that led him to take his own life. He certainly could not have been in distressed financial circumstances, as he had considerable property in his own name, and his brother Henry, of Heppner, who is worth a quarter of a million dollars, has never allowed Phil to want for anything. The deceased was about 50 years of age, unmarried, and was a member in good standing in the Masonic and K. of P. orders. Nearly everybody in Eastern Oregon knew Phil and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

Deeming it of vital importance that every political organization should express its views upon the issues of the day, both national and state.

Therefore, your committee on resolutions beg leave to submit the following:

2d. That we favor the election of United States senators by popular vote.

3d. That our representatives, both national and state, shall use their best efforts to open the Columbia river to navigation, by portage at obstructions at the dalles and such other improvements as may be necessary at other places.

Once more winter has let loose her frigid grasp and spring is holding high carnival, to the delight of this end of Gilliam county.

Three wayfaring christians passed through Olex this week, staying over night and telling of their religious belief. They are non-sectarian and have a very plausible argument to put to every one, and one that can be easily understood. They seem conscientious and do not charge anything. They wear their hair very long, reaching the shoulders, and they also sing very nicely. They are heading for Utah from Seattle.
