WOOL GROWERS

The Dalles is the Market for Eastern Oregon Wool

Prices Paid in 1895, 1 1-2 Cents a Pound More than anywhere else in Oregon.

Water competition by the Columbia River enjoyed by no other point east of the Cascade mountains, reduces freight to Boston from The Dalles. THE DIFFERENCE IN FREIGHT GOES TO THE GROWER IN INCREASE OF PRICE.

The low rates of 1895 will be still further reduced this year by the OPENING OF THE CASCADE LOCKS. THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES.

Having made arrangements with The Regulator Line for the use of their NEW and COMMODOUS WAREHOUSE, we are now prepared to offer patrons storage for their wool, adjacent to either RAIL or RIVER TRANSPORTATION WITH NO CHARGE FOR DRAYAGE.

We are now prepared to handle the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF EASTERN OREGON, in the MOST ADVANTAGEOUS manner. We solicit a continuance of the patronage we have heretofore enjoyed, and can assure patrons of our desire and ability to serve their interests.

We furnish SACKS and TWINE at the LOWEST MARKET RATE. We pay freight to teamsters and hold the wool subject to owners orders. We make liberal cash advances on clips that owners may desire to hold for better prices. Teamsters' receipt books sent free on application.

WOOL GROWERS!

The Dalles Is the Best Market for Eastern Oregon Wool.

THE WASCO WAREHOUSE IS THE SAFEST HOUSE IN EASTERN OREGON TO STORE YOUR WOOL WITH.

PRICES PAID IN 1895 1 1-2 CENTS A POUND HIGHER THAN ANYWHERE ELSE IN OREGON.

Prices paid for wool stored with the WASCO WAREHOUSE COMPANY 1 to 2 cents a pound higher than anywhere else in THE DALLES. The low freight rate of 1895 to Boston, New York and Philadelphia may be still further reduced this year by the probable opening of the Cascade Locks.

THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES, and make the WASCO WAREHOUSE their principal headquarters. We have made arrangements whereby all wool going by the Regulator line will be delivered at their landing FREE OF ALL DRAYAGE.

We cannot handle the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF EASTERN OREGON and do justice to our patrons. We CAN handle all the wool intrusted to our care, and last season handled two-thirds of all the wool that came to this market. We respectfully solicit a continuance of that generous patronage we have heretofore enjoyed.

We make liberal cash advances on consignments of wool, and those who patronize us WILL ALWAYS FIND THEIR WOOL IN OUR WAREHOUSE WHEN CALLED FOR, and strictly subject to their order.

We keep a supply of wool sacks and fleeces twine on hand, and furnish the same to our patrons at ACTUAL COST. We pay freight to teamsters, and furnish teamsters receipt books on application. Our warehouse is not a fire-trap, but nevertheless, we keep all wools fully insured, unless otherwise ordered by the owners.

Admiral McNear, in command of the Asiatic squadron, is contemplating a naval demonstration in Chinese waters. The fleet, consisting of the Detroit, Olympia, Charleston and Boston, will rendezvous at Shanghai during the summer, and will sail north along the coasts of China and Japan.

Undertakers of Chicago are interested in the propositions of an Indiana company to manufacture glass coffins on a large scale. In an interview George F. Kimball, the plate-glass manufacturer, stated that the idea is entirely practicable, and that coffins can be constructed in the cheaper grades for not more than 50 cents a running foot.

The officers of the Chartered South Africa Company in London are persistently representing that the situation at Buluwayo is not as serious as represented in non-official dispatches, and that the town is not in any real danger. The chartered company announces that the officials of Buluwayo are confident that they can hold the town, and that the town of Salisbury is also safe, and is organizing its defensive forces.

Deputy United States Marshal Sam Vinson and Secret Officer Harris made a raid on a den of counterfeiters near the Union Pacific depot, Spokane, Wash., and captured two. A complete plant for the making of half-dollars was found, with about thirty of bogus coins. They are splendid imitations, and have been in circulation freely in saloons and sporting resorts.

The national arbitration conference will hold a two days' session in Washington, D. C., during the coming week. Between 300 and 400 written acceptances of the invitations to attend the conference have been received from governors of states, judges, publicists, lawyers, leading business men, ministers of religion, philanthropists, educators and other eminent Christians. They represent in all thirty-eight states.

Captain-General Weyler has decided to release Rev. Alberto Diaz and his brother Alfred from custody, on condition that they will leave Cuba immediately.

The trial of Scott Jackson for the murder of Pearl Bryan has commenced at Newport. The speed made in securing a jury astonished the court and the counsel on both sides.

A dispatch from Panama says: Some fears are entertained here that trouble will occur when the elections for deputies takes place. The members of the liberal party will vote for the first time since 1885.

A dispatch from Ottawa to the London Times says: Sir Mackenzie Bowell, the premier, has announced the resignation of the ministers will be handed in in a few days. It is expected Sir Charles Tupper will be the new premier.

Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban junta, issued an address to the people of the United States, in which he declares that the introduction now of reforms in Cuba by the Spanish government will have no effect upon the revolution.

The Rome Tribuna, commenting upon the rupture of the peace negotiations between Abyssinia and Italy, violently attacks the government, declaring the ministers to be responsible for the "dishonor suffered by Italy through King Menelek's attitude."

The schooner Prosper, Captain Hulm, returned to San Francisco to have a leak repaired. She started for Cook's inlet on April 6 with a number of gold hunters, and was about 300 miles up the coast when a leak was sprung forward, on the evening of April 17.

An official dispatch from Batavia says the endangered post in Achin territory has been relieved, after a fight with the rebels under Toekodjohan, who lost 70 killed and had 200 wounded. The Dutch loss was one officer wounded and 33 soldiers killed and wounded.
