CLOSESITIES.

County Court meets next week. Our Mayville letter arrived too late for this issue.

Ed Nelson has been visiting his sick sister, Mrs. Spear, at Fossil this week.

General Coxe of Ohio is on his way to Oregon to stump the state for the populists.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson visited at the home of Geo. Hansen in Ferry Canyon Sunday.

Owing to the unusual cold weather the last month, more lambs have been lost than sheepmen predicted.

John A. Brown, formerly of Arlington, has again located at North Yakima, in partnership with J. A. Rochford in the practice of law.

A dispatch from Washington, dated April 23d, says that a pension has been refused to Sherburne D. Smith of Arlington, this county.

Rev. E. Curran has been appointed to preach this summer at Crocket, a city of about 4000 inhabitants, twenty miles from San Francisco.

There have been worse Aprils than this, but the oldest inhabitant's memory is severely strained by the effort to remember one of them.

There will be an illustrated sermon on Sabbath at 11 o'clock a. m. in connection with evangelistic services. All are cordially invited to attend.

Sheepmen feel somewhat encouraged over the price of sheep this spring. They say so many buyers in the country will force the price upward.

It is reported that Judge Bennett in his canvass for congress will declare for a protective tariff on wool. This ought to be pleasing news to the sheepmen.

John Maddock is having the streets around the hotel filled in with earth this week, making a decided improvement in the appearance of the place generally.

Anyone desiring to purchase a magnificent $160 organ, yet in the factory, for less than 1/3 that price, can learn of the snap by applying to the Globe man.

The county judge of Josephine county has been buying warrants under face value, which is contrary to law, and recently he was indicted and heavily fined.

Farmers report ground squirrels not quite so numerous this spring as usual. From the amount of poison that is being used, better grain crops will be grown this season.

Ed Compton of Lone Rock is in town on business. He informs us that from the result of his ad in the Globe he has already received over 200 bucks to pasture this summer.

Miss Ella Clark is able to be out again, after several days' sickness. Owing to the sudden changes in the weather recently, a great many people are indisposed with colds, etc.

We regret to learn that Mrs. D. S. Brown's condition appears to be growing more serious each day and her many friends are becoming alarmed. Bone erysipelas is one of her complaints.

Hon. Martin Quinn of Portland, People's Party nominee for congress from the 2d district, is advertised to speak at Arlington on May 15th. We have not learned at what hour he will speak.

We are requested to announce that all who are interested in having a race track at Condon are expected to meet at Barr's store next Tuesday evening, May 6th, for the purpose of discussing the matter.

The last legislature made a change in the method of marking ballots. The voter does not strike out the names which he does not wish to ballot for. A simple cross made at the left of the name of the candidate denotes his choice.

General Weaver, Jerry Simpson, J. R. Sovereign and J. H. Davis, populist leaders and orators of national fame, arrived in Oregon this week and will stump the state in the interest of populism. One of them will speak at Condon soon.

We noticed in the Heppner Gazette that on April 20th a Thos. Morgan was married at Eight Mile to Miss Lena M. Beymer. Whether this is our Tom Morgan, the school teacher, we are unable to say. If it is, the Globe hollers, "bully for him!"

Sympathy is the worst policy or principle that can influence a voter at an election. Electing men out of sympathy for their condition is on a par with a parent who gives a child matches to amuse itself with. One is a fool-voter and the other is a fool parent.—Ex.

The Methodist revival is still in progress here by Revs. Bryan and Barnhart, and large and enthusiastic congregations attend each evening. Intense interest is manifest in the meetings and it is likely that they will continue all next week. Our good people hope so at least.

Father Brody of Portland, a Catholic priest, arrived here last week and expects to remain in this county a month or more. He held services in the Catholic church here Sunday to a large congregation and will preach again next Sunday morning. He is an eloquent and interesting speaker.

The Newspaper Annual for 1896 by Ayer & Son of Philadelphia has just been issued and is by far the most complete and valuable book of the kind ever issued. It is replete with information that is indispensable to publishers. The Globe thankfully acknowledges receipt of one of them.

An exchange, speaking of an "enthusiastic county convention," in a neighboring county congratulates itself that "not a rifle appeared to mar the occasion." The "intelligent compositor," who set up the item has taken to the woods until the boss is able to explain to his readers that he meant to say not a "rifle" appeared to mar the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hamilton and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton of Fossil, all visited Condon Tuesday, returning home same day. Mr. Hamilton paid his taxes—something that he never allows to become delinquent. He is one of the few who never runs in debt, a practice that cannot help but insure prosperity and contentment of mind.

Mr. B. F. Keller of Clovis, Cal., arrived here last week in search of about a dozen new homes for that many families of that place who will move to this section this spring if suitable homes can be secured. Mr. Keller is highly pleased with this country and particularly this portion of Gilliam county. He is at present visiting his friend Henry Miller of Matney Flat.

We learn that Geo. Crane and his wife (formerly Mrs. Dennis Jones) who moved to Washington county last June from Pine creek, this county, were divorced shortly after reaching there, Mrs. Crane being the plaintiff. George is at work in the mines in Southern Oregon and his divorced wife is soon to wed a wealthy widower of Glencoe, Washington county.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson arrived home yesterday from the Willamette valley. He "bagged" two of the parties he was looking for—Rineason and Norris, who were indicted by our last grand jury on charges of horse stealing. Both gave strong bonds to appear for trial at the next term of court. This makes four already who are under bonds to appear for trial, with perhaps more to follow.

Ray Henson came over this week from Malheur county for the purpose of gathering up the balance of his cattle in this section—about 50 head, and will drive them over to his cattle range in Malheur, where he has a large herd of cattle, which he says are in first-class condition. His wife and child are visiting her two brothers and their families at Pendleton, where she expects to remain several weeks.

The following persons in this county have bought Home Comfort Ranges since our last issue: W. S. Thompson, H. H. Hendricks, Mrs. Z. T. Keys, Mrs. Geo. W. Hamilton, C. R. Neal, of Fossil; E. A. Stinchfield of Mayville; Frank Palmer, W. B. Smith, Mrs. E. Nelson, of Ferry Canyon; Geo. W. Smith of Olex; S. B. Barker, G. G. Parman, A. Hartman, A. Renner, D. M. Rinehart, D. C. Henry, H. B. Hendricks, of Condon.

Isaac Raddock of Umatilla county was arrested last week by the federal officers of Portland, charged with the crime of robbing Postmaster Johnson at Pendleton one night last fall of over $600, besides shooting him through the hand. He was taken to Portland and is in jail, in default of $15,000 bonds, with a long term in the penitentiary staring him in the face, as it is a clear case against him. Raddock was at Condon four years ago, a witness in circuit court for Melvin Green, who was tried for stealing Willie Metteer's horse.

The democrats of Grant county know a thing or two. They pledge their party, and every nominee for office, if elected, to exact only the salaries and fees allowed by law and no more, and put a stop to extra fees and perquisites which have been permitted in the past. Notwithstanding that such is the law it has been the custom and practice of the present county court, since their election to office, to allow salaries and fees far in excess of those allowed by the present salary system and now in force in this state.—Grant County News.

John Perrin of Pine creek was in town Tuesday on business and paid this office a pleasant call. Mr. Perrin and family moved back to Pine Creek last fall after a two-years' residence in Montana. He thinks this country is away ahead of anything he saw in Montana. One redeeming feature of that state is that everything is run on a cash basis, no business of any kind allowing accounts to run over 30 days—a system that ought to be practiced everywhere in the United States. Henry Panning and family who went to Montana at the same time, have returned also and are residing near Prairie City.

The preliminary trial of Wm. Baer and Richard Hinkle, charged with murdering G. A. Scott and burning his body to hide their crime, was held before Recorder Catanach in this city last Tuesday. A large number of witnesses had been subpoenaed from the country adjacent to where the crime had been committed, and the evidence, though purely circumstantial, was decidedly unfavorable to the defendant, Baer, and he was held to appear before the next grand jury, and committed to the sheriff without bonds. Hinkle was discharged from custody. The finding of Scott's watch in Baer's possession places him in a very unfavorable light.—Canyon City News.

Political Speaking.

Hon. A. S. Bennett, democratic nominee for congress, left The Dalles Tuesday on a tour of the 2d congressional district to speak on the political issues of the day. He is advertised to speak at 23 different towns and cities, commencing at Arlington Tuesday last at 1 p. m. and ending at The Dalles on May 30th. He will speak at Condon on Monday, May 11th, at 1:30 p. m. and at Fossil on Tuesday, May 12th, at 1:30 p. m.

Hon. E. B. Dufur, democratic nominee for joint senator for Gilliam, Sherman and Wasco counties, will speak in the Armory hall at Condon on the evening of May 18th; at Fossil on the evening of May 19th and at Arlington on the evening of May 20th. He will perhaps be accompanied by Hon. J. H. Cradlebaugh, democratic nominee for prosecuting attorney.

All of these gentlemen are distinguished lawyers of undoubted integrity and ability, and as they are recognized as being among the most brilliant orators in the state, no one can afford to miss the rare treat of hearing them speak.

Arlington Items.

M. Fisk is still confined to his bed.

Henry Heppner was here on Friday.

We have a fine bakery in town now.

Considerable wool is coming in now.

Several coyote hunters are in this vicinity.

Rev. Walbridge preached here Sunday night.

Elder Moore will preach here next Sunday.

A new "devil" is at work in the Recorder office.

R. T. Cox returned from Klickitat county last week.

Stock inspector Lee of Klickitat, was in town Sunday last.

Wm. Smith of Croy, was doing business in town last week.

Robt. Barfoot reports having marked 22 scalps one day last week.

Cashier Hurlburt is rushed with business at the Arlington National Bank.

The Condon photographer is here taking pictures of our good looking people.

The entertainment given on Wednesday of last week netted $20 for the band.

Mr. Osborne, a prosperous rancher of Eightmile, was here on business last week.

Charles Hatch is dispensing drugs during the absence at Baker City of Mr. Edwards.

Mrs. S. G. Hawson has in her yard an orange tree bearing a specimen of that luscious fruit.

Messrs. Royal & Smith of the Fossil flouring mills passed through here Monday night en route to the Willamette valley.

Judge A. S. Bennett, democratic candidate for congress, opened the democratic campaign here by making a speech on the 28th. A large and attentive crowd listened to the Judge, who is well known here and highly esteemed. While we are for Ellis and believe he will be elected, yet we are always glad to hear the Judge talk.

Last week a meeting of the Portage R. & T. Co. was held in Weaver's hall. C. A. Shurte was chosen chairman and S. G. Hawson sec'y. After remarks by Messrs. Mariner and Smith a committee of five, consisting of E. Tobey, A. A. Jayne, C. S. Wenner, R. H. Robinson and S. G. Hawson were appointed to attend to soliciting subscriptions for stock in the corporation.

Lone Rock Riplets.

Some of our boys have gone sheep shearing.

The weather has been rather mixed here the last week. A little snow fell here Monday morning but soon went off.

A few emigrants have passed through here lately. Some people migrate like geese—leave good feed just to be moving but such will always be the case.

Born, to the wife of Jas. Coleman last Sunday morning, a girl. "Jim Crow," as he is familiarly called, seems to be very proud of the circumstance.

Mr. John Madden is getting along fine with the new grade. He has got about 50 per cent of the road tax worked out already. John keeps the boys on the move—when he is in sight of them.

J. S. McKinney has sold his Lone Rock sawmill to Herbert Halstead of Lost Valley, to which place he will move it and run it in connection with the other mill. "Mac" has taken a position as traveling agent for a firm back east to sell books.

Mat Chambers and McKinney have completed the road work with the county grading machine in this section and have gone to the Ferry Canyon country. If people will go to work and plow the ground in advance of the machine into the neighborhood they will get a great deal more satisfactory work done. Unless about three plows are kept at work they cannot keep the machine running on rocky ground. The machine gave good satisfaction in this district. When there are no rocks it need not be plowed.

Wearing a face "long enough to eat hay," and gloomily assuring everyone you meet that the country is hanging on the ragged edge of ruin does you no good, discourages others and brands the wearer as a coward. Courageous men meet and overcome difficulties and wear a smiling face, even when fortune is against them.—Exchange.

How to Plant Fruit Trees.

CLEM, OR., April 25th. This is the season when orchards are usually set out. There are many ways to set out trees and it will interest the readers of the Globe to know which is the best.

The best plan is what is known as the hexagonal. By this system 15 per cent more trees can be grown to the acre than by the usual method, without crowding the trees, and the profits thereby are large increased.

The trees in the second row are set alternating with those in the 1st; six trees forming a hexagon and enclosing a 7th in the center.

I have my orchard set out in this manner, and am astonished at the flourishing condition of the trees and heavy yield of fruit each season.

CHAS. DAHLKE.

Delegates from Wasco, Sherman and Gilliam counties met at Rufus Friday for the purpose of nominating a populist legislative ticket. The result of the deliberations of the delegates was the nomination of J. S. Messenger, of Sherman county, and L. Henry, of Wasco county, for joint representatives for Wasco and Sherman counties. No nominations were made for joint senators.—Dalles Chronicle.

We are sometimes led to wonder if all the wild and picture-que fools are not in the newspaper business. Every few days we hear of some one who offers to print the county treasurer's report worth probably $50, for $3 or $4; will run the delinquent tax list for bare cost of composition, take job work at half price, if he can't get the regular price, and if he can't get it at half price will do it for less, and so on ad infinitum. A short time ago one of these cheerful idiots printed a $23 legal notice for $2.25 in order to keep it out of the Post. The idiot has vanished from sight, but we hope he is still alive and suffering at least a little of his wrong doing, and that he may yet repent, and be saved.

Who ever heard of a lawyer writing a $20 brief for $2, or a doctor writing a 50-cent prescription for a nickel? What newspaper men need more than anything else is a little horse sense in their business transactions.—Blaine Post.

Notice to Voters.

To the Taxpayers of Gilliam, County Oregon: I, the undersigned, regular nominee of the People's Party for sheriff, do pledge myself, if elected, to do all the work of the office required by statute for the constitutional salary—$2000 a year—and pay my own deputy hire.

L. P. DAVIDSON.
