THE NEWS RESUME
A DIGEST FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week Culled From the Telegraph Columns—At Home and Abroad.

It is said that the war costs Spain $100,000,000 annually and 10,000 soldiers every year.
A fight between negroes and Hungarians at Keystone, W. Va., resulted in two negroes and one Hun being killed. Wilson Worthington and Geo. Manard were also injured.
Rear Admiral Kirkland has been ordered to command the Mare Island navy-yard in place of Captain H. L. Howison, who is ordered to special duty in connection with the Oregon.

Carl Albrecht, who killed his wife in Marshfield, Or., February 18 last, was convicted in circuit court at Empire City of murder in the first degree. The jury brought in a verdict after fifteen minutes' deliberation.
The railroad station in Florin, Cal., was entered by burglars. The burglars robbed the railroad station, the postoffice and Wells-Fargo express office, which are all in the same building. A small sum of money was taken.
Crazed with drink and brooding over trouble which he considered a disgrace to himself and relatives, Frank Walton, aged 80, threw himself in front of an engine on the Rock Island track near Lincoln, Neb., and was ground to a pulp.

In the Canadian prohibition case, the privy council has decided that parliament cannot pass a general prohibitory law, nor can the provinces abolish the traffic in liquor, but they can pass laws to regulate it by licenses, under reasonable conditions.
Notice has been given by the Soo line of its intention to put into effect a round-trip rate of $60 from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Kootenai points. The tickets will have limits in both directions of forty days and final return limits of ninety days.

The city of L'Anse, at the head of Kewana bay, Michigan, has been wiped out by fire. The L'Anse company's lumber mill and nearly all the business houses were burned. Two hundred persons are homeless. The total loss is $260,000; insurance small.
A dispatch from Panama says: Puerto Vijo, the capital of Manabí, with a population of 10,000, has been entirely destroyed by two earthquakes. The shocks were succeeded by floods, inundating the city. Many lives are supposed to have been lost.

In a boxing match between John Houlahan and Pat Nolan, which came off in Farmington, Conn., Houlahan was knocked out in the eleventh round and rendered unconscious. He was not resuscitated, and it is believed his injuries will prove fatal.
It is stated in Kansas City that the firm of Swift & Co. will shut down their big packing plant at that point for an indefinite period. Their plant gives employment to 1,300 men, and in capacity ranks second among the packing establishments of Kansas City.

In Rome, N. Y., J. Watson Hildreth, the boy trainwrecker, received a life sentence. His companions, Plato and Hibbard, who pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, were sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment on two indictments, or forty years in all.
William Laverone and Jack Roberts, highwaymen, captured a few days since, overpowered the jailer in Madera, Cal., beating him severely over the head with a brick. They took his keys and arms and escaped. They are desperate characters and it is feared will kill some of the posse before they are captured.

News is received of a brutal murder committed in Oconto, Wis., in a dispute between two farmers about a team of horses, in which a man named Olsen shot one named Lisot. He then carried the body to a brush pile and set it on fire. A deputy sheriff arrested Olsen and had him handcuffed by one hand, but by a desperate effort the man escaped and hid in the woods.
By a vote of 425 to 98, the Methodist general conference, in session in Cleveland, O., decided the four women delegates might retain their seats. This does not mean that the women have won a complete victory. The decision was the result of a compromise, and with the understanding that it should not prejudice the claims of women in the future or establish a precedent for future conferences to follow.

The Vulcan iron works of San Francisco were destroyed by fire, and the loss is estimated at $100,000, with insurance at $31,500. The fire spread to the third floor of the Reliance machine works, damaging the building slightly and destroying considerable stock. The loss of the Reliance company is more than covered by the $35,000 insurance.

WOOL CROWERS

The Dalles is the Market for Eastern Oregon Wool

Prices Paid in 1895, 1 1-2 Cents a Pound More than anywhere else in Oregon.

Water competition by the Columbia River enjoyed by no other point east of the Cascade mountains, reduces freight to Boston from The Dalles. THE DIFFERENCE IN FREIGHT GOES TO THE GROWER IN INCREASE OF PRICE.
The low rates of 1895 will be still further reduced this year by the OPENING OF THE CASCADE LOCKS.
THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES.
Having made arrangements with The Regulator Line for the use of their NEW and COMMODIOUS WAREHOUSE, we are now prepared to offer patrons storage for their wool, adjacent to either RAIL or RIVER TRANSPORTATION WITH NO CHARGE FOR DRAYAGE.
We are now prepared to handle the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF EASTERN OREGON, in the MOST ADVANTAGEOUS manner.
We solicit a continuance of the patronage we have heretofore enjoyed, and can assure patrons of car despatch and ability to serve their interests.
We furnish SACKS and TWINE at the LOWEST MARKET RATE.
We pay freight to teamsters and hold the wool subject to owners orders.
We make liberal cash advances on clips that owners may desire to hold for better prices.
Teamsters' receipt books sent free on application.

WOOL CROWERS!

The Dalles Is the Best Market for Eastern Oregon Wool.

THE WASCO WAREHOUSE IS THE SAFEST HOUSE IN EASTERN OREGON TO STORE YOUR WOOL WITH.
PRICES PAID IN 1895 1 1-2 CENTS A POUND HIGHER THAN ANYWHERE ELSE IN OREGON.

Prices paid for wool stored with the WASCO WAREHOUSE COMPANY 1 to 2 cents a pound higher than anywhere else in THE DALLES.
The low freight rate of 1895 to Boston, New York and Philadelphia may be still further reduced this year by the probable opening of the Cascade Locks. THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES, and make the WASCO WAREHOUSE their principal headquarters.
We have made arrangements whereby all wool going by the Regulator line will be delivered at their landing FREE OF ALL DRAYAGE.
We cannot handle the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF EASTERN OREGON and do justice to our patrons. We CAN handle all the wool entrusted to our care, and last season handled two-thirds of all the wool that came to this market. We respectfully solicit a continuance of that generous patronage we have heretofore enjoyed.
We make liberal cash advances on consignments of wool, and those who patronize us WILL ALWAYS FIND THEIR WOOL IN OUR WAREHOUSE WHEN CALLED FOR, and strictly subject to their order.
We keep a supply of wool sacks and fleece twine on hand, and furnish the same to our patrons at ACTUAL COST.
We pay freight to teamsters, and furnish teamsters receipt books on application.
Our warehouse is not a fire trap, but nevertheless, we keep all wools fully insured, unless otherwise ordered by the owners.

West Madison street, Chicago, was shot twice, and died a few moments later on the sidewalk in front of his place. The robber escaped, after firing several shots to intimidate the people in the street. He wounded two other persons.
In Birmingham, Ala., Reddon Williams, a prominent white farmer, was lynched by a mob of forty masked white men. Williams was arrested on the charge of making a criminal assault upon his 16-year-old daughter. At the preliminary examination the evidence indicated his guilt and he was taken from the sheriff and hanged to the nearest tree.
Renters and owners of land in the Umatilla reservation met in Pendleton, Or., and organized a vigilance committee, to shoot down cattle straying upon grain lands. The movement is caused by the Indians tearing down fences and turning stock loose. It is expected this action will provoke a test law case to more clearly define to what extent the Umatilla Indian is a citizen.
As an indication of the unprecedented mining activity in the state of Washington, the records in the office of the secretary of state at Olympia show that there have been filed for record in the last three months articles for eighty-three mining corporations. These, in connection with others, have netted to the state an amount for recording fees little short of the running expenses of the secretary of state's office for the same time.
T. A. Phillips, a merchant at Latham, Mo., on returning home from his place of business, was shot from ambush by a neighbor's youth, aged 14 years, named Stout. The young robber was hid behind a tree, and, as Phillips passed by, he shot him, the ball taking effect in the arm. Phillips ran for his home, but was overtaken by his assailant and struck over the head with the weapon and felled to the ground. In the encounter, Phillips seized Stout by the throat and choked him to death.
Dr. Salmon, the oldest Freemason in the world, died in London. He was 108 years old.
According to the monthly crop report just issued, the average condition of winter wheat is 82.9 in May, 1895.
The last clean up of the Apollo mine, at Unga, Alaska, was $37,500, the product of a three months' run.
Anti-missionary riots have broken out in Kiang Yin. The British mission was looted and burned. The missionary escaped.
The dockers' strike in Rotterdam has assumed an ugly aspect. The civic guard, police and marines have been called out to protect the workers.
William Deering, the reaper manufacturer, has made a donation to the Northwestern university amounting to $215,000. The gift is in real estate and bonds.
Miss Maxie Todd, aged 20, daughter of Dr. Lyman P. Todd, was killed in Lexington, Ky., by a trolley car while she was bicycling. She was a cousin of Robert Lincoln.
The president has approved the act making provisions for the deportation to Canada of the Cree Indians from Montana, and their delivery to the Canadian authorities.
The Abyssinians in Massowah have liberated the Italians who were made prisoners at Agama, and it is said that Ras Mangascia will liberate the remainder within a week.
Mathias Jensen, of Astoria, has invented a machine for the manufacture of gillnets which, he claims, will knit 500 fathoms of net in ten hours. He intends to apply for a patent.
Jack B. Alexander, a great nephew of Jeff Davis, was shot and mortally wounded at his mansion in Paris, Ky., by John Steers, brakeman. He had refused to treat Steers for a drink.
Henry Caylor Banner, editor of Puck, died at his residence in Nutley, N. J., from tubercular consumption. Mrs. Banner and three children were at his bedside when death came.
