GLOBOSITIES.

Summer again.
Bushels of rain fell here Monday night. Geo. Vauganet was in Condon Monday.
S. A. D. Gurley was in Condon Monday.
Sheep shearing is in full blast at Rennera.
The Grove are to organize Thursday of this week.
Is Condon going to celebrate the 4th this year?
Edgar W. Moore made a trip to Mayville last Sunday.
E. W. Daggert was in Condon Tuesday last, shaking hands.
Ed Dunn made a business trip to Arlington last Friday.
Clare G. Morey left Tuesday for Arlington, on business.
Gen. Cooley the commonwealer spoke at The Dalles last Thursday.
J. W. Blake and Grider's sheep at the Spaulding place are being shorn.
Dell Rip moved his mother from the Hill house out on the farm Monday last.
Charley Fix had a horse to choke to death last Saturday night in his stable.
Teacher's Institute will be held in Gilliam county about the middle of July at Condon.
Mrs. Henshaw, has been under the weather this week with a gripe, but is improving.
Mr. Geo. Knox is reported at Fossil as dangerously sick, and his daughter Bana as being much worse.
Politics are as dead as Julius Caesar, and nothing short of "fusing" or "fusing" could resurrect them.
C. W. Shurte, candidate for county clerk was in Condon last Monday. See notice in another column.
J. O. Portwood left last Sunday with the big band of cattle being driven from Gilliam county to Wyoming.
The Wm. Farrar crew of sheep shearers of 14 men are shearing for The Dunn & Barr Bros. in Scotts Canyon.
Mr. E. W. Daggert accepted the nomination as candidate for School Supt. on the Republican ticket on the 15th inst.
Ballot boxes and tickets will be distributed among the several precincts by sheriff Wilcox the last of this week.
Grandma Halstead and daughter moved out to Frank Pitter's on Saturday last where they will spend the summer.
John Perrin and Ed Stinchfield passed through Condon with two 6-horse loads of wool on Monday bound for The Dalles.
E. E. Smith and W. A. Darling left Sat. to attend the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. which convened Wednesday at Astoria.
Mrs. Rose E. Brown, who has been seriously ill with erysipelas for a long time is, we are glad to chronicle, convalescing.
Big I and little u candidates who turn on the X rays will be surprised to see the alphabet all caps and small letters after election.
Nanie Ed Din, Shah of Persia, was assassinated on May 1st. His second son succeeded the throne, which is an absolute despotism.
A deadly cyclone swept over Grayson county, Texas, on the 16th, destroying $600,000 worth of property and killing 60 people, injuring 100 more.
Clare G. Morey, democratic nominee for School Supt. has withdrawn his name as candidate for said office. Truly politics makes strange bedfellows.
Chas. Earhart has been quite sick at Gene Smith's house with pneumonia fever, but is past all danger now. Dr. J. J. Hogan has been attending physician.
Miss Bessie Fitzwater made a flying trip to Fossil and back Saturday last. The whyness of her hurry was toothache. Bartholomew Kiely went over with her.
At the last stated communication of the Eastern Star Lodge (O. E. S.) Saturday last, H. B. Hendricks was elected as secretary and Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Ward appointed sentinel and warder.
The Condon Globe says the Government pays $900,000 for the weather bureau, and thinks it a big price for the weather they get in Oregon. We have always thought the same.—Santa Clara Journal.
Charles W. Shurte, in plain language tells the voters of Gilliam county what they can expect of him if elected county clerk: i. e., that he will run the clerk's office for the salary, which is $1500 per year. Charley is "True Blue."

S. P. Shutt, editor of the Globe in "fat on his back" with a serious attack of pneumonia this week, and if the Globe is not up to date this issue call at Hendrick's law office and see if it, B. don't dig up a hill or complaint against you, your sisters, cousins, aunts or your great grand uncle, and if he don't make it out of whole cloth it is because you don't help him.

Gen. Weaver at Condon.

The silver tongued orator, and standard bearer of the Populist party, Gen. J. B. Weaver of Iowa, delivered a two hours speech in the Armory hall Wednesday, to a crowded house, hardly standing room. The General said he was making his second canvass for his party through this state. His first tour was made in 1891. He said that the different parties were all on the equality as far as honesty was concerned. The General made an eloquent plea for his party. Space forbids further comment.

Public Speaking.

Messrs E. B. Dufur and J. H. Cradlebaugh, the former nominee for joint senator and the latter for district attorney on the democratic ticket, discussed the important issues of the hour in the Armory hall, on the 18th, as per their previous notices. These gentlemen were introduced to the audience by Prof. Clare G. Morey, in a formal and courteous manner. Mr. Cradlebaugh, speaking first, said he was not a political orator, that he had naught but kindly words for his opponent; that he hoped his opponent would be elected, provided he was defeated, that he was a John H. Mitchell man (as for as circumstances would permit him to be,) that his father fought in the Rebellion in the Union army, and received wounds which afterwards caused his death. He also paid effective tribute to Harry Scott's "Harp of a thousand strings," touched upon the silver question, etc. Mr. Dufur then spoke at considerable length, although not so fluent as his colleague, showed not a little research on his part into the history and statutes of the free silver question of which both candidates ardently support.

Olex Explosions.

W. H. Moore and Mr. Hosford passed through Olex on their to Lone Rock. They speak in Olex on Sat. May 23d.

Hon. E. B. Dufur is billed to speak in Olex Friday afternoon at 10 a. m. 23d.

We noticed Tom Johnson on the creek last Sunday. He acted like he might be hunting for a prisoner. He might get "Schott" if he don't look out.

There was quite a populist gathering at Olex school house on Tuesday last. A Mr. Surtis being the orator. He delivered quite a good address and says he will lecture here 1st Sat. after the June election.

A flour man from Mitchell was talking roller process for the Olex mill this week. We hope he may succeed in locating here as a roller process mill would be a paying investment for all parties.

A stock book for the Columbia Portage & Transportation Co. is open at Olex. Parties desiring s'ares in this company can get accommodated at Olex. It should be well patronized as a reduction in freight is what we need and must have.

The Last Day of School.

Last Friday was the last day of Prof. Morey's and Edith Taylor's nine months school—the best conducted, and the best attended school Condon ever had. There were recitations in the afternoon by the primary and in the evening by the grammar school. The house in the evening was crowded, many having to stand. Space forbids us saying any more than the recitations and songs were good and appreciated by the patrons, and visitors present.

Mr. Walter Moore of Moro, nominee on the Republican ticket for joint senator, Hon. J. E. David, of Gilliam Co. and J. B. Hosford, Atty. at Moro, arrived in our town Wednesday. These gentlemen address the people at the Armory hall on Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m. from a republican view of the issues of the day. As we go to press Thursday morning this time we will comment on the speaking next week.

Max Putz of Mitchell, Crook Co., Or., was in town Monday on the lookout for a grist mill location. A meeting convened at Mayville, Saturday last to discuss the matter of petitioning up a grist mill there. They meet again Saturday next to further discuss the subject. A rustling committee was appointed to take subscriptions and see what the farmers will do. They meet again Saturday. Putz says some great fish stories have been told about Condon water, dry wells etc. He offered to erect a grist mill at Mayville for a bonus of $1500. Condon should wake up, for we are sorely in need of a mill here.

A new townsite plat was accorded at the county clerk's office in Gilliam Co., on the 14th inst. The name the place is Twickenham and is situated about a mile above Contenton at Parsons dwelling on the John Day river. This newly born town promises to be a rival to all other towns in the county. We note 7 lots changed hands last week, in this new town sold by J. H. Parsons to A. Helms for the consideration of $1. There is nothing very small about Mr. Parsons, and he is giving great inducements to this new town as it will take a slice off of his excellent farm. The John Day bottom is almost a mile wide of the river at Twickenham, with good prospects for water power, and not very far to timber which extends to both the river bank on the north side and could be easily rafted down to Twickenham, the city of destiny.

Arlington Items.

Sunday was a bright day.
Mr. Benedict is clerking in the bank.
D. Sweetin is painting the front of Smith's store.

Miss Deborah Redford has returned from Portland.
Rev. Moore lectured in Wenner's hall Saturday night on "Romanism."

The United Artisans completed their organization here last week.

The populist candidate for congress, Quinn, spoke here last Wednesday.

The Baptist entertainment last Wednesday night was quite a success.

C. W. Shurte democratic candidate for clerk, went to Condon on the 18th.

Win. Grant crossed a large band of horses from the Washington side last week.

A band of 1300 head of cattle from the southern part of the county, passed through town Sunday en route to Montana.

W. J. Edwards, populist candidate for the legislature, and Mr. Davidson, populist nominee for sheriff were both here last week.

E. B. Dufur J. H. Cradlebaugh candidates for district attorney and joint senator on the Democratic ticket, were here on Sunday en route to the Southern part of the county.

Mr. Cooley of Cleveland, Wash., is here for treatment: having been severely scalded last fall while dipping sheep. Dr. Geisendorfer last Wednesday resorted to skin grafting in order to heal the wound. Cooley is convalescing.

The monument to be placed over the grave of W. Fran, late a member of this W. O. W. camp, is here and was placed in position last week. It weighs 1700 pounds. Everybody is invited to be present to witness the exercises which begins at 2:30 p. m. June 7th, when the monument will be unveiled.

Arlington Camp No. 56 W. O. W. at its regular meeting last Wednesday elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Commander, S. A. D. Gurley; Advisor, E. W. Daggert; Escort, C. S. Wenner; Sentry, C. W. Shurte; Warden, O. S. Eli; Physician, J. A. Geisendorfer; on board of managers, F. C. Hindle.

Lone Rock Riplets.

A mob of Lone Rock sheep shearers started for the John Day county last week.

Dr. Honlock's baby has been very sick for a few days but is better now. Also Jack Andrews' boy has been very sick.

There was a "cheap John" show in town last week. The managers were of the dark makeup. The attendance was small.

Our old saw mill man, Ed Wineland has purchased a new boiler for his mill, and will soon put it in and start his saw running.

Hon. J. E. David, Moore, and Mr. John Hosford, addressed the people of Lone Rock last Monday on the political situation. They are a very interesting combination to listen to. As our people are such quiet kind of folks everything passed off fine. The speakers are well posted and good talkers.

Mr. Dufur gave us a good waking up speech here last Wednesday to a large audience. His remarks were well chosen and to the point he has many friends here.

C. W. Shurte and his wife were in the valley this week. His wife is visiting their old friend Mr. and Mrs. Colwell. Charley of course made a trip or two through the country with some of his very best cigars as an inducement to get the boys attention, to read their countenances as to the way they were going to vote.

Silas Brown, one of our oldest and most respected citizens passed from this world to the next last Tuesday. He was about 70 years of age, and is the father of Doc and Billy Brown of this county. He and his wife came to this county several years ago and lived on Rock creek for a long time, and some 10 year ago moved to Lone Byek. His wife died the 1st of January, so one by one our old friends leave us. He was everyone's friend, and all mourn the loss of this good and faithful friend. The deceased leaves quite a fortune which he has accumulated since in the county.

Notice.

Owing to late decisions of the supreme court of the state of Oregon showing the ineligibility of ladies to hold the office of County Supt., I withdraw my name as Republican candidate for same; but would not forget to thank the people who honored me with the nomination, and all those who tendered me their pledge of support, and hope the same be extended to my successor.

Mrs. LILLIAN K. STEPHENS.

To The Democratic Electors of Gilliam County.

While thanking the party for kindly conferring upon me its nomination for superintendent of schools, I am now compelled to resign the same for the following reasons:
First—I did not seek the office and now feel that it would, if elected, perhaps militate against my success as a teacher.
Second—My present appoint Mr. E. W. Daggert is so very anxious for office, as to have shown himself willing to accept anything from head to tail of ticket, for the sake of obtaining it, and I do not wish to be the straw in his path to this great ambition. CLARE G. MOREY.

To The Voter's of Gilliam Co. Oregon.

Gentlemen: Owing to a rumor now being current in this county by my political opponents, I deem it my duty to say to my friends that it was my understanding when I accepted the nomination for county clerk from my party, that I would run the office for the salary if elected, and I unequivocally stay with that proposition. C. W. SHURTE.

Notice To Voters.

I wish to state that I propose to stand by the pledges made for me in the Republican County Convention at the time I received the nomination for the office of county clerk, relative to pay for conducting the office, and that the statements to the effect that I have gone back on my word are untrue.

H. N. FRAZER.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given that an execution and order of sale was issued out of the circuit court of the State of Oregon, for Gilliam county, on the 18th day of May, 1896, upon a decree rendered on the 13th day of April, 1896, in favor of Susan E.
