

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1896.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance, $2 will be charged. A blue pencil mark around the notice indicates that your subscription expires with this issue. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

C. G. Morey visited Fossil this week. Miss Goldie Darling visited Fossil the first of the week.

J. S. McKinney wants to furnish you with wood. See his ad.

Billy Brown of Lone Rock was over to the county seat Monday on business.

Joe Anthony of Butte creek was visible to the naked eye on our streets Monday.

Sheriff Wilcox has been out over the county this week distributing ballot boxes.

The Woodmen Circle at Condon is flourishing and will soon be a strong grove.

Messrs. R. G. Robinson and Lewis A. Miller of Lone Rock went to Arlington yesterday.

Misses Birdie Henshaw and Cora Myers visited friends at Fossil several days this week.

Ohas. Earhart has recovered from his attack of pneumonia and is out shearing sheep this week.

Election next Monday. Can't you hear the hearts of the candidates going thumpety thump?

The Gloom thankfully acknowledges receipt of a package of garden seeds from Senator Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dunn's little son Johnny has been very sick for several days with pneumonia.

Maggie Maddock has suffered considerably the last week or so with erysipelas in the face, but is now recovering.

The playful Arizona Apaches have started on their summer vacation. They have killed only about a dozen men so far.

The ballot boxes have been distributed, one to each of the 13 precincts, and all is in readiness for the "conflict" next Monday.

Miss Ina Gorton, who attended our school all winter, returned last week to her home near Douglas. Her father came up after her.

Mr. Al Henshaw is still suffering terribly with rheumatism, to which he has been a victim for a long time. At times he can scarcely walk.

Since the warm weather started in, grain, grass and everything looks more encouraging. Spring wheat is looking fine and will make a heavy crop.

Ed Bell was confined to bed at Maddock's hotel several days within the last week with pneumonia, but Dr. Hogan has him up and around again.

Mr. Hugh Gourlay, a republican orator of The Dalles, is billed to speak at Condon on Friday of this week at 1:30 p. m., on sound money and protection.

The County Central Committee refused to accept Mr. Clare G. Morey's resignation, and so he is still a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of schools.

There are no hostile Indians in South Carolina but the natives carry their guns to church—for use upon each other. Forty shots were fired at a recent Sunday School scrap.

Hon. E. B. Dufur returned Saturday night from a tour through Gilliam county; says excellent grain crops and democratic success are two things certain in Gilliam.—Times-Mountaineer.

An error appeared in the court proceedings last week. It should have read that H. N. Fraser received $250 salary for March and April, but the 2 having dropped out, made it read $50.

We understand that Reva Bryan and Barnhart are having a glorious revival at Fossil. W. S. Myers is a great admirer of Mr. Bryan and has gone to Fossil several times to hear him preach.

The roads are again lined with teams hauling wool to Arlington. A great deal of wheat is also being hauled from the Mayville country. The price paid for wheat at Arlington now is about 45 cts.

L. C. Edwards of Arlington, democratic candidate for representative, made a trip out through the county on the stage Tuesday, returning next day. He is very popular and will poll a heavy vote Monday.

A terrific cyclone swept over portions of Iowa, Illinois and Kansas Sunday night, killing over 100 people and destroying millions of dollars' worth of property. That is a pretty good country to stay away from.

The editor of the Globe, under the treatment of Dr. Hogan, is recovering from his recent severe illness from pneumonia and is able to be around a little, but it will be a long time before he will be "at himself" again.

Geo. W. Harrington, sheriff of Morrow county and administrator of the estate of James Stewart, made final proof on a timber culture for the estate Monday before County Clerk Fraser, with Chas. Lluellen and Mr. Bullis of Hardman as witnesses.

Billy Keys writes us from Hamilton, Montana, that he arrived at that place on May 23d and went to work for the firm next day, branding and spaying cattle. He does not know how long he will remain, but orders his Globe sent to that address indefinitely.

J. W. Vanborn of 30-mile was over to town yesterday with a load of wood. He says there was a terrible hail storm and waterpout at the head of Pletti canyon a few days ago that caused considerable damage. The ground was covered with hail to the depth of three inches.

J. B. Huntington's and J. E. David's names were not omitted on purpose last week. The former lives at Burns, Harney county, and is stamping this district for W. E. Ellis. J. E. David is an Ellis and Mitchell man from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet.

We desire to again caution our readers about marking the ballots next Monday. Remember that no scratching of names must be done. Simply make a cross or X just before the name of the candidate you wish to vote for. If you scratch the names out your vote will be lost entirely.

An exchange says that apples may be kept two years by wrapping them in newspapers in such a way as to exclude the air. The newspaper must, however, be one which the subscription has been paid in full or the dampness resulting from the due will cause the fruit to spoil.

While in Portland last week Gene Smith and W. A. Darling saw I. S. Vanvleet, formerly of Condon, who has been under treatment in St. Vincent's hospital several weeks for abscesses in the head. He was rapidly recovering and intended to return home to La Grande in a few days.

Marriage licences were issued by the county clerk on the 20th instant to E. W. Daggett and Katie Reed, Chas. Hannah and Lulu Ballen, all of Arlington. Mr. Daggett and Miss Reed were united in marriage on the 21st at Arlington by Rev. Van Scoy of Portland. May you live long and prosper.

It would be well for the judges of election Monday to caution the voters who have not been in the precinct 30 days of the danger of illegal voting, the penalty for which is very severe. No one has a legal right to vote for precinct officers unless he has been a resident of the precinct 30 days or longer.

Mrs. Mattie Greulich left yesterday for her home in Pendleton, after a two weeks' visit with relatives here. Her aunt, Mrs. M. J. Johnson and her son Charley Rice accompanied her and will spend the summer at Pendleton. G. W. Rinehart took them to Arlington with private conveyance.

Governor Morton has signed the "Greater New York" bill which consolidates New York, Brooklyn and a number of other cities, making a city of over three million people. The consolidation takes effect Jan. 1, 1898, and the mayor of the consolidated cities will be elected in the fall of 1897.

Ervin M. Shutt, of the Antelope Herald, arrived here Thursday of last week and remained until Sunday with his sick brother S. P. He received the news of his brother's sickness on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock and rode that night to Fossil, reaching Condon next morning—a pretty quick 52-mile trip.

Several sheep sales were made here this week. J. W. Blake and F. M. Plier sold all of their sheep, aggregating 8000, to Harry Clay; Geo. Wright bought about 5000 head from the following persons: S. B. Barker, J. M. Cameron, J. K. Fitzwater, Blake Bros. and Wilson Bros. He will drive them to Montana.

By one stroke of the presidential pen nearly all of the government positions, including most of the postmasters, have been placed under the civil service rules. It means that they cannot be removed except for cause, unless the next president sees fit to change the order. If he does not, the good postmasters may stay for life.

In the mention last week of Hon. E. B. Dufur, an error occurred in setting the type, making it read "statutes" of the silver question, when it should have read "status." Messrs. Dufur and Cradlebaugh made many friends during their canvass in this county, and they will be remembered by a heavy vote next Monday.

We note in No. 4 Pocket edition, of the Martindale Mercantile Agency Guide 1896-7, that the population of Arlington is given at 955, Condon 500, and Fossil 253. This was considerable of a stretch on the imagination of whoever furnished the information, as all of these towns are about equal in population, neither of which will exceed 300.

While Oregon has a surplus of bachelors to the number of 50,000, Massachusetts has a surplus of maids, old maids and typewriters to the number of 70,781. If these could be gotten together, what a grand match-making there would be, increased joys and good results generally to the country; besides there would be more work for the census taker. Why not import a few thousand of them out here?

The Columbia river has had three names. It was first called the Oregon and afterwards it was called the Saint Roque, but when it was discovered by Robert Gray, in 1792, it was given the name of his vessel, the Columbia, in place of the two floating appellations—Oregon and Saint Roque. According to Whitney, the original name of the river was the Oregon, "big ear" or "one that has big ears," the allusion being to the custom of the Indians, who were found in its region, of stretching their ears by boring them and crowding them with ornaments.

C. H. Reis, who owns one of the best farms on Rock creek, one mile above Olex, was up to town yesterday with a load of garden vegetables, which he sold as fast as he could hand them out. He will be up again Saturday with more. Mr. Reis has a beautiful home, well furnished, and has everything almost that the heart could wish for—except a wife, and he will perhaps invest in one of those before long.

Charley Bain, who was sent to the St. Vincent hospital in Portland from this place a month ago, returned home this week, safe and sound and looking better than he ever did in his life. He is loud in his praise of the kind and excellent treatment he received at the hands of the Sisters in the hospital. Nobody in the world knows better how to take care of the sick than do the Sisters and thousands of people owe their lives to them.

Mr. R. G. Robinson of Lone Rock, president of the Sheepmen's Protective Union, was in town yesterday and requests the Globe to say that a general call for a meeting of the sheepmen will be made soon for the purpose of making another levy, with which to pay the bounty on all coyote scalps now on hand and also for all that may come in. Mr. Robinson says that as far as he can learn, very little loss is being experienced from coyotes and all the sheepmen are anxious to keep up the bounty.

C. G. Morey, returned from his trip Sunday to Arlington and Douglas. Mr. Morey has been looking up the prospects of extending a telephone line from Arlington to Olex, Clem, Condon, Mayville, Fossil and perhaps Twinkham on the John Day. The intention is to organize a joint stock company immediately after election and push the matter to completion. This will give the citizens in every town along the route a chance to invest in the shares and thereby be interested in keeping the line up and work for the cause. The enterprise no doubt will be a paying investment and will be a lasting benefit to the county. The capital stock of the company will be placed at $3500, at $10 per share.

The burial of Silas Brown of Lone Rock took place on Rock creek at the private cemetery of the Browns, on the 21st, among the sorrowing relatives and a few friends. The weather being bad prevented many from going. Rev. Drake preached the funeral sermon. The deceased was born Dec. 17, 1820, in Franklin county, Mo., and was therefore 75 years old. He came to Oregon in 1851. He lived sometime in the Willamette valley, and moved to Lone Rock many years ago, where he resided until his death on the 19th of May. The deceased accumulated a handsome estate in this county, and his estate in the world to come is that of a joint heir to his savior, as he was always a kind father, a loving husband, a good neighbor and a consistent christian.

The Republican Rally.

The speaking at the Armory hall on the 21st was indulged by J. B. Hosford, S. A. D. Gurley, J. B. Huntington and brief remarks by W. H. Moore and J. E. David. The boys were pretty well posted and seemed to be loaded for bear, coming as they did on the heels of the great populist orator, General Weaver. Of course there was sitting room for all present. The speakers all surprised us, especially the smooth-faced, brilliant and majestic orator from Burns, who was posing as a cowboy. He seemed to be intensely in earnest for Ellis and awfully opposed to Harvey Scott running the politics of Oregon. The writer does not agree with the first speaker, Mr. Hosford, that the place for a free silver man was the populist party (for if it were so the People's party would surely win in Oregon). We believe that Hon. J. H. Mitchell and Hon. A. S. Bennett are as true as steel to the party ties, and both as far from each other and as far from being populists as the North Pole is from the South Pole. The silver question is not a party question proper, yet it has as much right in one party as another and ought to be settled, and brought to a focus "to once," as Nasby says, and the sooner the better for our country.

Lone Rock Riplets.

The Hays boys marked 90 per cent of lambs this spring.

Mrs. James Vickers, who has been sick for two weeks, is improving we are pleased to state.

Bill Matlock has started to Umatilla with the drove of cattle that was bought here for the Montana country.

Coyotes still lose their ears in this section, about 30 having been turned in within the last few days. Dig up, sheep men, or the boys will quit the good work.

There was a very heavy thunder and rain storm the middle of last week in this vicinity which played havoc with the roads in Buttermilk and Rock creek canyons.

Next Monday will thin out the candidates for office to some extent. That is our opinion at least. All of them will be elected—some of them to stay at home, however.

Over two inches of rain has fallen here within the last two weeks, wetting the ground in fine shape. Crops of all kinds look fine and promise a large yield. The fruit crop will be large if there is no frost within the next few days.

To Whom It May Concern.

ARLINGTON, OR., May 26, 1896.
Whereas, Mr. A. A. Jayne is a candidate for prosecuting attorney in the 7th judicial district, and it having come to our knowledge that certain members of the A. P. A. order in Arlington are attempting to defeat him by placing him in a false position and representing that he is antagonizing, that order and that he is a Catholic at heart, and that he used corrupt means in the city election in Arlington to defeat what was known as the A. P. A. ticket at the last city election;
Therefore, we the undersigned, citizens and voters who participated in the last city election and know Mr. Jayne and the part he took therein, respectfully submit that no fraud or corruption was practiced in that election and we know of our own personal knowledge that Mr. Jayne does not antagonize the principles of the A. P. A. as propounded by the principal leaders of that order.
And we believe that the personal enemies of Mr. Jayne have prostituted the order so far as they could to gratify their personal enmity to Mr. Jayne.
Very respectfully,
JAMES M. JOHNS,
W. A. MAXWELL,
S. CARLENE,
J. C. SWEET,
S. G. HAWSON,
A. C. HAWSON,

C. S. WENNER,
J. W. REDFORD,
O. S. EHL.

STATE OF OREGON,
County of Gilliam, ss.
I, L. S. Davis being first duly sworn, say that I have conferred with a large number of representative citizens of Arlington, the home of Mr. A. A. Jayne, candidate for prosecuting attorney, and that they have all endorsed the statements made in the foregoing statement, regardless of party or membership in the A. P. A. order, and that one of the names attached to said statement is that of the president of A. P. A. council at Arlington, and that he signed the same in my presence. I further swear that the members of the A. P. A. whom I have interviewed say that the resolutions passed by Arlington Council were passed during the impetuosity of excitement caused by the city election in January, 1896.

Signed L. S. DAVIS.
Subscribed and sworn to before me a Notary Public this 26th day of May, A. D. 1896.
JAMES M. JOHNS,
[SEAL] Notary Public for Oregon.

Notice.

Several persons in this precinct, through malice, are circulating false reports about the manner in which I have conducted the office of Justice of the Peace, with a view to injuring my chances in the coming election. I desire to state for the information of those interested that the records show that where the justice's office in this precinct formerly cost the taxpayers, in criminal cases, hundreds of dollars each year, for needless litigation, during the last two years it has cost the taxpayers but $28.80 justice fees. The fact that the office has paid me only about one-fourth as much as my opponent, Mr. Tatom, made out of it during his term, is pretty good evidence that I have not encouraged needless litigation.
S. P. SHUTT.

To The Voter's of Gilliam Co. Oregon.

Gentlemen: Owing to a rumor now being agitated in this county by my political opponents, I deem it my duty to say to my friends that it was my understanding when I accepted the nomination for county clerk from my party, that I would run the office for the salary if elected, and I unequivocally stand with that proposition,
C. W. SHURTE.
