

THE GLOBE

FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1896.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

During the last couple of months the excitement of election caused sort of a stagnation in business matters, which was almost snowed under by politics. Now that the contest is over, let us all get down to business again. Let bygones be bygones, and prepare for the harvesting of the largest and best crops this country has ever had. We are all one people, whose principal object ought to be for the general advancement and upbuilding of our county and country generally. Do not get selfish and fret because your neighbor does not think the same as you. Everyone is entitled to their opinion, no matter what that opinion is. It is a free country and the conditions here are quite different from those in Russia.

Arlington Items.

The river is rising rapidly.
 Rev. Green and his bride are in our midst.
 W. R. Baker of Blalock, was in town on Tuesday.
 Mrs. A. C. Hawson has returned from her Walla Walla visit.
 Judge Bennett and E. B. Dufur spoke here last Thursday night.
 Revs. Walbridge, Motor and Daggett and families are at Wasco attending a district conference.
 M. J. Canty has been doing a good business selling saddles and harness during the past month.
 Our citizens are preparing to have a grand celebration here on the 4th. Over $300 has already been subscribed and still the good work goes on.
 Elder Moore baptised three persons, Mr. and Mrs. Seale and Mrs. Roes Beardsley last Sunday at this place. The exercises were witnessed by a large concourse of people.
 The Woodmen of the World will unveil the monument to their deceased brother, Wesley Fran, next Sunday. Exercises will begin at 2:30 p. m. All are invited to attend.
 Election passed off very quietly here. Party lines seemed to be forgotten and men who claimed to be ardent republicans were shouting and voting for democrats, much to the delight of the latter.
 Dan Thomas and Miss Minnie Ward were united in marriage last Sunday. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents in Klickitat county, Wash. Elder Motor officiated.

Rollo, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood had the misfortune to fall from a clothes line last Monday, sustaining a fracture of the left arm. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Irvine, and the little fellow is getting along nicely.

A gloom was cast over this entire community Tuesday afternoon by the death of Lucien Parker. He was stricken with appendicitis on Thursday of last week and last Sunday. Drs. Howard Fossil and Geisendorfer of this place performed a surgical operation upon him but he did not rally and continued to grow worse until death relieved him. A young and energetic man, a kind father and husband has been ushered into the presence of his God. His wife and two little children have the profound and universal sympathy of all our people. His father came up from his home in Lane county several days before his son's death and remained until after the burial, which took place in the cemetery here Wednesday. The deceased was a member of Fossil Camp, W. O. W., and the United Artisans of this place, also the I. O. O. F. and K. of P. orders.

State Sunday School Convention.
 The annual State Sunday School Convention will be held June 9-11 at Portland, in the Centenary M. E. church, on the East Side. The program this year has been prepared especially with a view to giving practical assistance to every school represented.

This is a mass convention to which all Sunday-school workers are invited. The number of delegates from each school is not limited. Free entertainment will be furnished all who present credentials as delegates from their superintendent or secretary, but names of all such must be mailed at once to the State Secretary. Delegates paying full fare over the O. R. & N. Co.'s railway will be returned at one-fifth fare; but note carefully, that in every case the delegate must take a receipt when paying fare to Portland, showing that the holder is a delegate to the Sunday-school convention, and this receipt must be countersigned at the convention.

Copies of the Oregon Sunday School Tidings, containing the program and further particulars, may be secured by addressing the State Secretary, Mr. F. R. Cook, at Portland.

Mrs. Millie Bennett made Ervie a present of a 13-lb girl last week, of which he is very proud.
 The fruit crop still promises to be very large and the grain and hay crop never was better. Rye will soon be ready to cut for hay.

Sheepshearing is in full blast here. Sheep are shearing well and turning off a fine quality of wool, but as the price of wool has gone populist we don't know how the sheepmen will come out.

If it required an annual outlay of $100 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Anyone can get this insurance for 25c, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by all druggists.
