The Grecian government, in a circular note to the powers, repudiates responsibility for the rebellion in Crete unless the porte restores Cretean autonomy.

A Nuremberg dispatch says the first four prizes in the international chess-masters tournament, to begin July 20, have been increased to $750, $500, $375 and $250 respectively.

It is reported in Windsor, Ont., that the tug Lorimer, of Detroit, owned by Alexander Buell, has gone down in the middle ground off Pelee island and all hands lost. The report cannot be verified.

John F. Caples and R. A. Booth, of Oregon, were on a visit to Cleveland, O., and presented a gold nugget to Mark Hanna, McKinley's manager. Speeches were made by Mr. Hanna and the Oregonians.

The Diario, published in Buenos Ayres, says that when congress has approved the unification of the Argentine debt, Dr. J. Romero, the minister of finance, will elaborate a scheme for the conversion of the paper money.

In Los Angeles, Cal., an electric car ran over and killed an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, whose identity is unknown. The belief is that the old man was placed on the track by hoodlums, though it was apparently a case of suicide.

The Pittsburg and Indiana manufacturers have closed down all the window-glass factories in the territories controlled by them. This throws 4,000 skilled workmen and about 1,500 laborers out of work a month earlier than usual.

The Prohibition national convention held in Pittsburg, nominated the following ticket: President, Joshua H.
Levering, of Maryland; vice-president, Hale Johnson, of Illinois. The silver plank was rejected and also the woman suffrage plank.

The Madrid correspondent of the London Standard says it is made a condition of the French and Spanish bankers, who are largely interested in Spanish railways enterprises, to assist the government to obtain loans for the Cuban campaign.

The Bank of New England, of Manchester, N. H., has suspended business for the first time, being by a vote of its directors and with the consent of the bank commissioners of the state.
Creditors are being paid with an idm of clearing up the deposits. The bank had not recovered from its loss in 1893.

Judge Hanford, of Seattle, has signed a decree foreclosing the mortgage held by the Bay State Trust Company on the Washington & Idaho railroad, and ordering the sale of the entire property of the road. The mortgage was dated September 2, 1889, and the entire amount of indebtedness is now $5,277.

In Berlin, it is said a resolution passed by the socialist evangelical congress, warmly approving the course of Dr. Stoeker, may be regarded as a pronouncement against the emperor's dispatch of censure against the former court chaplain. The passage of the resolution has caused the greatest sensation there.

An Athens dispatch says: The be-siegiers of Vemos have rejected the terms offered by the foreign consuls, that the arms and supplies be surrendered and that the garrison of troops be removed. A high Turkish official who was an eye witness of the Canea massacre, admits that a Turkish soldier deliberately shot the Greek cavas dead.

A private letter received in Prescott, Ariz., from South Africa confirms the telegraphic news of the killing of H.
N. Palmer and W. H. Johnson, near Bulawayo. They were in the mines thirty miles from Bulawayo, when the party was attacked and massacred.
Palmer was one of the best known mining and mill men on the coast, and was a warm personal friend of John Hays Hammond.

Upon the arrival of the steamer Signal in Astoria announcement was made of a change in the programme of handling Chinese coming to the Pacific coast by the Canadian Pacific line of steamers. Instead of being landed at the nearest point to their destination, they will be held on the Sound and the identification papers will be forwarded by mail to the custom house officials at the points where the Chinese seek admission.

The body of a woman was found floating in the Columbia river, in front of Astoria. The head and neck had been horribly mangled with some sharp instrument, presumably an ax. There was a large gash extending from the top of the forehead to the bridge of the

GROWERS

for Eastern Oregon Wool

Prices Paid in 1895, 1 1-2 Cents a Pound More than anywhere else in Oregon.

Water competition by the Columbia River enjoyed by no other point east of the Cascade mountains, reduces freight to Boston from The Dalles. THE DIFF-ERENCE IN FREIGHT GOES TO THE GROWER IN INCREASE OF PRICE.

The low rates of 1895 will be still further reduced this year by the OPENING OF THE CASCADE LOCKS.

THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES.
Having made arrangements with The Regulator Line for the use of their NEW and COMMODIOUS WAREHOUSE, we are now prepared to offer patrons storage for their wool, adjacent to either RAIL or RIVER TRANSPORTA-TION WITH NO CHARGE FOR DRAYAGE.

We are now prepared to handle the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF EASTERN OREGON, in the MOST ADVANTAGEOUS manner.

We solicit a continuance of the patronage we have heretofore enjoyed, and can assure patrons of our desire and ability to serve their interests.

We furnish SACKS and TWINE at the LOWEST MARKET RATE.

We pay freight to teamsters and hold the wool subject to owners orders.

We make liberal cash advances on clips that owners may desire to hold for better prices.

Teamsters' receipt books sent free on application.

WOOL GROWERS!

The Dalles Is the Best Market for Eastern Oregon Wool.

THE WASCO WAREHOUSE IS THE SAFEST HOUSE IN EASTERN OREGON TO STORE YOUR WOOL WITH.

PRICES PAID IN 1895 1 1-2 CENTS A POUND HIGHER THAN ANYWHERE ELSE IN OREGON.

Prices paid for wool stored with the WASCO WAREHOUSE COMPANY 1 to 2 cents a pound higher than anywhere else in THE DALLES.

The low freight rate of 1895 to Boston, New York and Philadelphia may be still further reduced this year by the probable opening of the Cascade Locks.

THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES, and make the WASCO WAREHOUSE their principal headquarters.

We have made arrangements whereby all wool going by the Regulator line will be delivered at their landing FREE OF ALL DRAYAGE.

We cannot handle the ENTIRE OUTPUT OF EASTERN OREGON and do justice to our patrons. We CAN handle all the wool intrusted to our care, and last season handled two-thirds of all the wool that came to this market.

We respectfully solicit a continuance of that generous patronage we have heretofore enjoyed.

We make liberal cash advances on consignments of wool, and those who patronize us WILL ALWAYS FIND THEIR WOOL IN OUR WAREHOUSE WHEN CALLED FOR, and strictly subject to their order.

We keep a supply of wool sacks and fleece twine on hand, and furnish the same to our patrons at ACTUAL COST.

We pay freight to teamsters, and furnish teamsters' receipt books on application.
Our warehouse is not a fire trap, but nevertheless, we keep all wools fully insured, unless otherwise ordered by the owners.

nose, and there were several other wounds on the back of the head, any of them sufficient to cause death. The woman was identified as Esther Gunton, a quarter-breed, who is said to have been living in a scow near Wood-ly island with Sam Maylandt, a fisherman. It is thought that the latter murdered her.

The National Brewers' Association has voted to contribute $50,000 for the St. Louis storm sufferers.

A dispatch from Constantinople says Russia has warned the porte that a Christian massacre in Crete would unite the whole of Europe against Turkey.

News is received of a disastrous cyclone in Eastern Colorado that blew down the postoffice at Lansing. The schoolhouse and a number of residences were also damaged. A lady was seriously injured, but will recover.

A two-story building in Astoria, Or., was gutted by fire. The occupants of the upper floor barely escaped with their lives. The loss on the building is $3000; insurance, $1,000, and the loss to the tenants is about $10,000.

Every day reveals great distress among the people in Seneca, Mo., as the result of the cloudburst, and immediate aid is imperative. At first all were engaged in recovering lost bodies, but attention is now being given to clearing the wreckage and establishing homes. This task becomes formidable and is retarded by the demolition of many houses. Scores of residents have lost all their effects, and in other cases furniture not destroyed is damaged by water and mud so as to be unfit for use, but people are too poor to replace it. An appeal has been made for assistance and says $100,000 is needed to repair the damage.

At Wallace, Idaho, while a workman named Hutchinson was engaged in wiring a house for electric lights, a joist on which he was standing broke, and he fell to the floor, sustaining injuries which will probably prove fatal.

G. W. Boggs, the ex-city treasurer of Tacoma, who was convicted last November of having misappropriated funds belonging to the city, and who was sentenced to six years' imprisonment, has been released on $10,000 bonds.

It is alleged that George Hickey, a constable of Oakesdale, Wash., has exorted money from merchants of that town, by threatening to arrest them for having sold lemon extract to Indians, which, he claims, is in violation of the liquor-selling laws.

The body of the late James G. Blaine will be taken from Oak Hill cemetery, Washington, and will be brought to Augusta, Me. Mrs. Blaine has decided to have both the body of her husband and her son, Walker, buried there, and the removal will occur probably this month.

A special from Livingston, Mont., says: East-bound passenger train, No.
4, on the Northern Pacific railroad, left the track five miles east of there, wrecking the engine and five coaches.
Three tramps were killed, and several trainmen injured. No passengers are reported seriously injured.

A Pretoria correspondent says President Kruger is anxious to commute the death sentence of the reform leaders to a heavy fine, but the other members of the executive council object on the ground that the government would be charged with mercenary motives.
They suggest that they should be confined for five years in prison.

The glorious Fourth will be celebrated in Portland, Or., this year as never before. The patriotism of the citizens has been aroused thoroughly and the committee appointed to arrange the celebration has met with spontaneous encouragement on every hand.
The celebration will begin Wednesday, and continue uninterruptedly for four days, ending in a blaze of glory Saturday night. Each day will be crowded as full as it will hold with events of all kinds.
