

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1896.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance, $2 will be charged. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription expires with this issue. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

Condon will not celebrate this 4th. Neither will Fossil.

Tom Johnson is in Portland this week as a delegate to the Masonic grand lodge.

The town council of Canyon City has imposed a tax on one-hoss shows, also peddlers.

Frank Clark has started in to learn the art of photography with our artist, W. L. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hendricks visited relatives at Fossil last week and at Lone Rock this week.

Father Briody will conduct services in the Catholic church here next Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

Bill Dunlap has sold his neat little two-seated hack to E. A. May and intends to buy a buggy.

Frank Bellard writes us to send his GLOBE to San Francisco, where he and his wife are now residing.

County Clerk Frazer made a business trip to The Dalles the first of this week, returning home Tuesday.

Herbert Stephenson has just received a fine new "Globe Trotter" bicycle, which is for sale at his store.

Miss Ella Clark is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennie Graham, at Oregon City and will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Clara Darling went to Portland this week as a delegate to the grand lodge of the order of Eastern Star.

Tom Johnson is having a cellar built this week at his residence, which is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson.

It is said that Geo. C. Sears, the defeated republican candidate for sheriff at Portland, spent $5,000 on the campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Harrison and little daughter are on a two weeks' visit to their old home at Hood River.—Eugene Guard.

Advice from reliable Portland authorities, are to the effect that wool this spring has commenced to sell at only 7c per pound.

Charley Earhart left Saturday for Montana, where he will shear sheep during the season. A California shear-er went with him.

Pendleton school directors have chosen Lawrence L. Lewis, of Illinois, principal of the schools, at a salary of $85 a month.—East Oregonian.

J. W. Morrow has just sold his clip for 9 cents a pound. He made the sale some time ago and it is better than the market price.—Heppner Gazette.

Homer Propert left last week for the Palouse country, where he expects to work until fall, when he will return to this section and file on a homestead.

Joseph Parrazo, the blacksmith, has severed his connection with Mr. Thorn-able and has formed a partnership with G. S. Clark in the blacksmithing business.

Al Henshaw has just had a large substantial culvert built over the ditch in the street fronting his residence property—an improvement that was much needed.

Antelope is preparing for a grand celebration on July 3d and 4th, which promises to be the best ever held at that place. Nearly all the Fossilites expect to attend.

Persons elected to office must apply to the county clerk for their certificates of election, as he cannot send them out without an order on him for the same. Don't forget this.

Newt Livingston, populist, was elected sheriff of Grant county. He is a brother of J. D. Livingston of Mayville. J. D. Titus, formerly of Gilliam county, was elected assessor of that county.

Miss Argie Jones began teaching at Trailfork Monday last. One of her pupils will be Roy Taylor of Condon, who will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Spalding during the 12 weeks' term.

Dal Reed of Arlington visited his parents at Fossil the first of this week, returning home Tuesday. He has made several trips to Montana this spring with cattle shipments and expects to make another trip next month.

John Lyons of this place and his brother T. R. of Heppner left Tuesday for a two-weeks visit to their home near Walla Walla. Legal business is not very brisk at present, it being the slackest time in the year in that line.

Ex-County Clerk Jay P. Lucas expects to visit his relatives and many friends in this county about the 1st of July. He expects to come over the mountains, just for the novelty of the thing.

The Dalles papers say that all of the school teachers who taught there the last term have been re-elected for the next. Miss Lena Snell is among them and is considered one of the best teachers in that city.

The Woodmen of the World of the 4th district will hold a convention in Pendleton on June 17. Every lodge in Eastern Oregon except those in Malheur county will be represented, the delegation numbering about 40 in all.

Ranchers down about Dayville shipped potatoes from The Dalles, hauling them by wagon a distance of about 150 miles. For shame farmers.—Grant County News.

J. G. Stephenson circulated a subscription paper here last week and secured quite a respectable sum of money for Geo. Knox, who is sick at Fossil, also his wife and little girl. The Mayville people also subscribed liberally.

J. W. Dyer of Beecher Flat left Wednesday for a two weeks' visit at his old home at Gervais, Marion county. Some of the boys think that Jim will bring back a better 1/2 with him this time, and it wouldn't 'prise us if he do.

See the new ad of Robinson Bros. Last week they purchased their father's interest in the store and are now sole proprietors. They keep in stock only the best of everything and as they sell for cash only they are prepared to sell at bedrock prices.

The Dalles Chronicle says there are 755 more republican than democratic voters in Wasco county. Hon. E. B. Dufur, democrat, ought to feel very much flattered over the vote he received in his home county—having run nearly 200 ahead of his ticket.

S. A. Chapel has sold his Ajax ranch and 1500 head of sheep to Fred Leloh, who came over from Washington last fall and located near Ajax. Mr. Chapel expects to visit his brother at Hardman about a month and then go back to his old home in New York.

It has been said time and again during the recent campaign that the result in Oregon would have an effect upon shaping the financial plank to be adopted by the republican national convention. If this is true the platform will have a silvery ring about it.

The United States grand jury at Portland Thursday returned a true bill against Isaac Ruddock, charging him with having, on January 6, robbed the Pendleton postoffice of $766, and shooting Postmaster Johnson through the hand, during the commission of the deed.

Owing to their low prices, Shurtz Bros. are doing a very extensive business in farm machinery of all kinds. These boys are chuck full of energy and are making it pay. If more people were afflicted with the same kind of energy there would not be much complaint of hard times.

J. H. Downing returned home Monday, after an absence of a couple of months in Idaho, selling patent medicines. His wife, who was with him a portion of the time, is now visiting her father, who is sick at his home in Palouse City. She will return in a week or two.

Mr. C. G. Morey informs us that the proposed telephone line through this county is progressing serenely. He says there are three offers from that many men, either of whom are willing to furnish all of the poles and take their pay all in stock in the concern, which gives it quite a boost.

Sylvester Pennoyer said nothing during the campaign and was elected mayor of Portland. Now the ex-governor talks and says he will except only 1/2 of the $5,000 salary of that office during his incumbency. He will give that city the most economical administration it has ever had.

Bart Kiely and his two sisters, Ella and Katie, returned this week to their home on Eightmile, after spending the winter here for school advantages. They will be greatly missed here as they are very popular with our young people, who hope they will come back again this fall.

Rev. Clapp of California, of the Latter Day Saint faith, is conducting a revival over on Eightmile. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, their daughter Lida and Mrs. Dunlap went over the first of this week to attend the meetings a couple of days. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clark also went over, starting today.

The sealed bids for furnishing 25 cords of 24-inch wood for county use, as per advertisement, was let Saturday, Emmet Armstrong being the successful bidder. There were four bids, as follows: Emmet Armstrong, $4.55; J. G. Stevenson, $4.90; J. S. McKinney, $4.94; J. R. Frazer, $4.95 per cord.

We learn that the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Knox at Fossil, who was so severely burned several months ago, is very near death's door, the doctor having given her up. Geo. Knox is worse also. Misfortune has pursued this family with a vengeance this spring. Misfortune never comes singly.

While potatoes are selling for 20c a sack in the Willamette valley, they are said to be selling at $100 a sack in some of the Alaska mining regions, and are scarcely to be had at any price in Canyon City. Gold or silver nuggets are good to have around but to a hungry man a cold potato is better.—News.

Our public school will commence on Monday, August 31st, for a nine-months' term, with the same teachers we had last winter—Prof. Morey and Mrs. Taylor. The school under their management has grown to such proportions that we understand it is the intention to have three teachers a portion of the term.

A. A. Jayne of Arlington is elected district attorney by nearly 500 majority. As the 7th judicial district—Gilliam, Sherman, Wasco and Crook counties—has a majority of over 1000, the defeated candidate, J. H. Cradellbaugh, can find some consolation in the fact that he ran ahead of his ticket nearly 600 votes.

Wm. Fry, who murdered his wife up near Caleb a few months ago, was last week convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of 99 years. It is thought by some that the sentence was too light, and that the old man should have been sent up for life.—Antelope Herald.

Our brass band is reconsidering the matter of playing at Olex on the 4th and have about concluded to go anyway and do the best they can. The boys had only a couple of months' practice, so no one will expect as much of them as if it were an old band. The band will decide at its next meeting whether they will go or not.

Frank Shurtz, of the wide-awake firm of Shurtz Bros. of Arlington, made a trip out through the county this week in the interest of the Arlington-Fossil stage line, of which he is now manager. Before Mr. Parker's death he asked Frank to manage the stage business until all of his affairs are settled. The business could not be in safer or better hands.

On Wednesday evening last Ed Hale and Chas. Dobbins became involved in a fight at the Belvedere saloon, during which Hale stabbed Dobbins in the neck, nearly reaching the jugular. Dobbins made a good fight, however, with nothing but nature's weapons for defense. Hale was arrested but some sort of a settlement was reached.—Heppner Gazette.

The beauties of our election laws were well illustrated on election day when a lot of transients who were employed on the Oak Grove ditch were allowed to vote, and one of the oldest residents of The Dalles was disfranchised because his family is temporarily living outside the city. If Oregon needs one thing more than another it is a strict registration law.—T.-M.

We learn that Geo. Wright, who shipped 6000 head of sheep from here to Montana a couple of weeks ago, had the entire shipment quarantined for six weeks at some point in Montana, owing to some of the sheep being afflicted with scab. Geo. came back madder than a wet hen, and he cannot be blamed for being mad either, for it is all at his expense, besides.

L. W. Darling, H. N. Frazer and Ed Nelson attended the unveiling of the W. O. W. monument at the grave of Wesley Funn in Arlington Sunday. They say the exercises were very beautiful. The monument is about 6 feet high and is made of sand stone but represents a stump, with limbs cut off, and is beautifully engraved with letters and emblems of the order.

Since the election returns are all in and the official count made, there is considerable of a change in the congressional vote. Both the republican candidates are elected—Tongue, in the 1st district, by a majority of 64, and Ellis, in the 2d district, by a majority of 689. This is a sad blow to both the populist candidates—Vanderburg and Quinn, who were certain a week ago that they were the lucky nuldoons. "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." It was a close shave, especially for Tongue.

Max Putz, the Mitchell miller, has accepted the proposition recently made him by the people of Mayville and will move his mill over at once to Mayville. The Mayville people agreed that if he moved his mill there they would loan him $1500, he agreeing to pay within five cents of the Arlington price of wheat and to give 30 lbs of mill feed in exchange for a bushel of wheat, the mill to be in running order for this year's crop. This will be a decided improvement and a great benefit to the whole Mayville country.

Hon. E. B. Dufur, democrat, defeated his republican opponent Moore for joint senator 111 votes in the three counties—Gilliam, Sherman and Wasco, which have a republican majority of over 700. This is a remarkable victory for a and a nice compliment to Mr. Dufur, who is one of the brightest lawyers in the state. He beat his opponent in the latter's own county (Sherman) 58 votes. The interests of the three counties will be in safe hands and carefully looked after by the new senator, as they were also by the retiring officer, Hon. W. W. Steiwer.

The long-looked-for Examiner prize drawing took place last week. Very few Oregonians won anything of any value this time, and Gilliam countyites were ignored almost entirely. The only persons in this county whose names are on the list are Joe Anthony of Fossil, a silk umbrella, and Albert Smith of Condon, a fishing rod. The $10,000 farm was won by F. H. Steele of Los Angeles; the $5000 gold nugget by John O'Donnell of Grass Valley, Cal., and the winner's weight in silver went to W. J. O'Neil of Butte, Mont. Every subscriber will get a picture of some kind.

Bud Willingham and A. Fosher, of Wyoming, drove two large bands of sheep, comprising about 13,000 head, through Northern Grant last week. While they were driving through on a trail between the John Day river, Mr. Willingham informs the Eagle that he came near getting a large number of his sheep poisoned. He happened to ride out in front of his band, and discovered that some one had just put out salt-peter across the trail. He examined the trail thoroughly and buried all that he found, being fortunate, he said, to find all that was put out, as his sheep passed over the territory without any loss.—Eagle.

Arlington Items.

Fine growing weather.

The new bakery is a success.

Some strawberries are coming in.

Henry Heppner was in town last Saturday.

Rev. Bryan is holding services here this week.

The 4th will be observed here in grand style.

Several of our sheep shearers have returned home.

Frank Shurtz made a trip to the county seat this week.

Hon. J. E. David, representative-elect, was in town Monday.

W. B. Ewing of Morrow county, was doing business here Tuesday.

Considerable drift wood has been caught during the past ten days.

Capt. Nelson was on the sick list last week but is about the streets now.

John Downing passed through here Monday to Condon on his return from Idaho.

The muddy water clogs the water pipes, causing considerable inconvenience.

M. J. Canty's business has increased to such an extent that he employs a good workman to assist him.

S. G. Hawson presented his wife with a fine new range stove last week. It is a fine addition to the kitchen.

Mrs. Parker and children went to the valley last Friday night to reside with her father-in-law Jas. Parker.

The unveiling ceremonies of the W. O. W. of this place Sunday were well attended. The band was present and played appropriate music. Messrs. Darling, Nelson and Frazer, of Condon Camp were the only visiting neighbors present. Our boys are taking considerable interest in the order and are determined that the Camp here shall be a credit to Woodcraft.

Inspector Fred Hale was in this section last week looking after the sheep.

John Blake has delivered 3000 head of sheep to Park Bros. here this week, to be driven to Idaho.

The appraisers met this week to appraise Silas Brown's property. We did not learn the amount it was placed at.

Some of our moneyed people went to Heppner last week to see the circus. They claim to have had a good time over there.

The last sheep were shorn here this week and the wool will soon be in the market. Some has already been hauled off.

The Perden family left Haystack last week for their new home in North Yakama. They all took their stock with them.

The people of this place will have a picnic on the 14 on the creek below Ed Wineland's saw mill. Everybody is invited to be there and have a good time.

There is something strange but it is a fact nevertheless that every man you meet and ask about the election has this to say: "I told you so." Wonderful how knowing every one is after the returns come in.

The Hays Bros. have joined fences with Andrew Neel and closed the road on the ridge east of Lone Rock, causing all parties going to the mountains from the lower country to go by way of Hardman with their sheep.

Claude and John Randall started for the mountains Tuesday for wood.

E. P. Weir returned home this week to Mayville from a business trip to Portland.

There will be a school meeting in Olex in 30 days to say if the district shall be bonded or not.

The crops still look promising, and well they may, for the people are about worn out waiting for the good years to come.

M. O. Clarke is doing the city this week interviewing the different ones who are unfortunate enough to have property to be assessed.

There will be another song service at Olex church next Sunday evening. This is the last for the season and a good time is anticipated.

There is a stock book open at Olex for the Columbia Portage Co. This should be patronized by every resident of Gilliam and adjoining counties.

The arrangements for the 4th of July celebration are progressing nicely and Olex will have the banner celebration of the county this year, as it will have assistance from Condon, Arlington and Eightmile.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair.
