

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1906.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance, $2 will be charged. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription expires with this issue. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

Next Sunday will be the longest day in the year.

A new M. E. church is soon to be built at Antelope.

Miss Carrie Danneman of Clein visited friends in town this week.

Little Banna Knox died Thursday evening of last week at Fossil.

Hon. W. R. Ellis will deliver the oration at Pendleton on the 4th.

Hon. W. W. Steiwer of Fossil was in Condon several hours Saturday on business.

Mayville has concluded to celebrate the 4th also and is preparing for a grand time.

Mrs. Herbert Halstead and two little daughters of Lost Valley are visiting her parents in town.

The census of London just completed shows a population of 4,411,271, an increase of 200,528 since 1891.

A great many of our sheepmen and herders left this week for the mountain pastures, to remain until fall.

Sheriff Wilcox brought his family home Monday from Pine creek, where they had been visiting relatives several weeks.

Two sheriff sales will be made at the court house on Saturday of this week. Read the notices in the GLOBE for particulars.

Tongue beat Vanderburg only 37 votes in the former's own county, running about 150 votes behind most of the rest of his ticket.

The cold weather has prevented any rapid rise of the Columbia and there is no fear of the railroad being damaged any this year.

D. A. Vance and Chet Caldwell, formerly of Arlington, last week sold their hardware store at Baker City to C. M. Sage of that city.

A phonograph man was in town several days this week. His machine succeeded in talking a good many dimes out of our people.

A new daily paper is to be started in Portland. It is to be an evening paper, and will be conducted by the Metropolitan Printing Company.

Ed Bell left last week for his old home at McCoy, Polk county, where he will remain until next spring, when he expects to return to this section.

Seventy-four law students were examined by the supreme court on the 5th and were admitted to the bar. What is going to become of all the lawyers?

Probably the owner of the largest number of dogs is Gustav Jovanvitch, a Russian cattle king, who has 35,000 sheep-dogs to look after 1,500,000 sheep.

We understand that a shoemaker with his family is expected here in a few days from the Sound to locate in Condon. There is a good opening here for one.

Over $1,200 was subscribed toward the Portland Fourth of July fund by political candidates. Some of them now, no doubt, wish they had their money back.

A man in Philadelphia wants $50,000 from a dentist for pulling the wrong tooth. The dentist does not seem to have deprived him of any of his nerve.

Assessor M. O. Clarke has purchased the Hill residence in Southeast Condon and moved his family into the same Monday from the Claude Henshaw house.

Geo. Strong of Independence, a German baker by trade, has been in this section for several days on the hunt for work. He expects to go to Pendleton next week.

Mr. Demaris of Dixie today sold to the scouring mills his entire clip of '96 wool for 8c. This is the highest paid this season anywhere in Eastern Oregon.—East Oregonian.

A service pension bill giving every man who served 90 days $3 a month and 1c a month additional for each day served in excess of 90, has been favorably reported to the house.

An exchange says that "science is about to show us the exact size of the earth." We don't care much about that, but we wish science would show us how to get our share of it.

We learn from the Monmouth Monitor that W. A. Cahoon, of Olex, who expected to graduate in the State Normal school of that place in a few days, is sick, but not seriously.

Frank Belliard's address is 805 Kearny street, San Francisco. He is running a cigar store down there and writes us that he is doing well, which his many friends here are glad to hear.

The new battle ship Oregon, a product of the Pacific coast, bids fair to be the greatest naval craft of her class afloat. This is an advertisement of Pacific coast productions not to be sneezed at.

Father Briordy did not hold services in the Catholic church Sunday, as per appointment, owing to his having been kicked on the leg last week by a horse, which has laid him up for several days.

W. L. Richards will move his picture gallery to Olex next week and remain until after the 4th. As his work is first-class and his prices very reasonable we bespeak for him a large patronage there.

A mill company over in Washington recently issued $360 in scrip. Within 3 days $250 of it turned up in the saloons of the town.—Exchange.

The sliding mountain near Bonneville is again causing the O. R. & N. much trouble. The river washing underneath has caused the land on which the road is built to slide toward the river.

Mrs. Clara Darling, who attended the grand lodge of the order of Eastern Star at Portland last week, was elected grand Ruth by the delegates. This is the same position formerly held by Mrs. Rose Brown.

The republicans will have in the next legislature a majority of 24 in the joint assembly. On joint ballot there will be 57 republicans, 18 populists, 5 Mitchell republicans, 3 union-bimetallists and 7 democrats.

A little Condon girl concluded her little prayer thus, after praying for the whole town: "And now, O Lord, take good care of yourself, too; for if anything should happen to you, we would all go to pieces!"

Those owing the GLOBE on subscription need not be afraid of slighting us by settling up. Surely no one could be more lenient in that respect than we have been, but oftentimes "patience ceases to be a virtue."

We have promise of the greatest wheat yield ever known in our country. In every part of the county the waving fields are looking their best, and if saved from the hot north winds of July, we will harvest an immense crop.

Judge M. L. Pipes made a great run in Portland for district attorney. Although defeated he ran 3000 votes ahead of the democratic ticket. Judge Pipes attended circuit court at Condon three years as attorney for Ebal Clarno.

Mrs. H. N. Frazer and two little children left Saturday for a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. V. E. Houston at Pendleton. Mrs. Frazer's brother, Clarence Houston, will be married next Wednesday, 24th, to a young lady of Union.

J. K. Fitzwater last week left a bunch of rye at this office which was grown on his his Ferry Canyon ranch, without irrigation, that measured seven feet in height. No land in the world is equal to our bunch grass land for productiveness.

Rev. U. S. Drake preached here Sunday, and on Wednesday he and his family moved over to their new home at Lexington, Morrow county. They have many friends in this county who regret their departure, but all wish them well in their new home.

Mrs. N. J. Hendricks, vice-president, requests us to announce that the Ladies Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Darling next Wednesday, 24th. This will be a business meeting and all the members are requested to be present.

A friend tells us that he recently went into a store of a business man who did not advertise, and was surprised to find him busy. The storekeeper, it transpired, had the itch and a Waterbury watch, and when he wasn't scratching himself he was winding his watch.

Our people are clamorous for the repeal, or amendment, of the law creating the sheep inspector. It is a burning shame that Kliekitat has to pay for the inspection of Oregon sheep. The sheep men should elect and pay for their own inspector.—Goldendale Sentinel.

The Condon Brass Band will play at Olex on July 4th, having so decided at its last meeting. The boys will leave Condon early Saturday morning, the 4th, and will likely get there about 9:30 o'clock. A great many other persons from Condon expect to attend also.

Misses Dora Downing, Ethel Parman and Blanche McHaffie, who have been attending school at Forest Grove since last summer, will arrive home on Friday of this week. Mrs. Parman, who had been visiting her daughters for the last three weeks, will return home with them.

Mrs. Fred Adlard, mother of the valedictorian of this year's public school graduating class, arrived Sunday morning, and is the guest of her sister Mrs. W. A. Buchanan. Mrs. Adlard is a resident of Ajax, Gilliam county, and will remain two or three weeks.—Corvallis Times.

It never occurs to people to feel grateful for what we do not publish. There is always news of a sensational character which would furnish interesting reading, but of course not complimentary to reputation or the community, and it is such news that we decline to publish.

A fine little son was born on Thursday of last week, 11th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Barker of Condon. Some of the boys tell it on "Sime," perhaps as a joke, that since the event he has been caught several times with his head in a barrel hollering "dad," just to hear how it sounds.

Frank Byrne went to The Dalles last week to meet his 14-year-old son, who just came up from San Francisco, and will remain here with his father. Mrs. Byrne owns and runs a fine 4-story brick hotel in San Francisco and it is not likely that she will come up here this summer.

Don't lick the adhesive on envelopes. The habit is pernicious and extremely dangerous. Formerly the adhesive compound used was made of gum arabic. It is now manufactured from the carcasses of dead horses and other animals. Several cases of poisoning and deaths as a result are reported.

Charley Fix has just had erected on top of his livery stable a large Goodhue windmill, which he will use for the present in running a chop mill. He expects to have a water tank built soon and will attach it to a pump, to use in case of fire—which will be better than half a dozen such fire engines as we have.

Read the new ad of Shurte Bros. and then buy something from them, but avoid running over each other in the wild rush to get in first. These boys believe in the liberal use of printers' ink and of course they are becoming prosperous, as all do who advertise in the GLOBE, which is the best advertising medium in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gibbons visited friends in town Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Gibbons' sister, Miss Mariah Harrington of San Francisco, who has been up here on a visit for several months. Miss Harrington is a cripple, the result of an accident she met with a number of years ago by a runaway team.

Posters were printed at this office last week announcing an auction sale on Monday, June 29th, at 10 a. m., of 15 head of horses and several Cassidy gang plows, the property of the N. G. Sayre estate, by B. F. Tennis, administrator. The sale will take place at John Phillips' ranch, near Mobley, on the Arlington and Hardman road.

The merchants whose ads appear in the GLOBE are never troubled with old, shoddy, shelf-worn goods, which are dear at any price. Goods that are not worth advertising are not worth having, and our readers will find that they can always get the best bargains by dealing with the merchants and business men who advertise in the GLOBE.

Previous to his departure to St. Louis Hon. Chas. Hilton gave it as his belief that the National Republican convention would declare for the gold standard. "While the republican party is in favor of the largest possible use of silver," said Mr. Hilton, "there can be no such thing as a double standard. One metal or the other must be the standard of value."

The heroic act of a Kansas City woman who jumped into a cistern and saved her baby from drowning illustrates the promptness with which women act under pressing emergencies, as well as the devotion of mother love and the unselfishness of her sex. There are many similar cases on record, whereas a man would most likely in such an emergency look around for a ladder or a rope.

A Portland drummer who was in town last week says that Ed Copner is now traveling salesman for Wadham & Co. of Portland and that Ed and his wife have separated. Mrs. Copner and little daughter Dot have been making their home with relatives at Berkeley, Cal., since last spring. Their many friends in this county will regret to learn of their unhappy married life.

Sylvester Pennoyer says: "If the policy I advocated had been adopted, and Vanderburg had withdrawn from the field when the democrats agreed to pull off Myers, and Judge Waldo made the congressional nominee, he would have had such a majority over Tongue that he could not have been counted out. No other is to be blamed for the election of Tongue than the populists themselves."

We stop the press long enough to wonder what in thunder has become of that Venezuelan commission that was sent down there last winter to see what "ails" the people of that country. Their promised monthly letters to this paper, explaining their investigations, have failed to show up and we are considerably annoyed thereat. If they get off without a heavy damage suit they will be very lucky.

A prize consisting of Tennyson's poems has been presented to Mr. Frank Edwards for winning a contest held April 25th, in the Agricultural College at Corvallis. The object was to use the word "saw" the most times in an essay containing 150 words. Mr. Edwards used the word 149 times, and so won the prize.—Eugene Guard. [Frank Edwards is a son of W. J. Edwards of Mayville and is one of the brightest young men in the state.]

Miss Louella Maddock visited friends in the Mayville country last week. On Friday she and Miss Susan Dunn were riding in a cart, when the horse became frightened and ran off, upsetting the cart, also the girls, who were bruised and skinned up pretty badly, Miss Dunn the worst. Where they lit, great furrows were plowed into the road by their heads for a considerable distance. Had the accident occurred several rods further, where there is a short bend in the road, the occupants would have been thrown against a barbed wire fence and would not have fared so well.

Hon. A. D. Stillman, Head Watchman, Pacific Jurisdiction, Woodmen of the World, will deliver an address on Woodcraft in their hall at Condon next Tuesday evening, 23, which will be a grand treat to all who hear him. All of the members of the camp are particularly requested to be present, as a meeting of the lodge will be held, commencing at 6:30 o'clock—before the lecture, which will begin about 9 o'clock. The doors will not be open for the public until 9 o'clock and a cordial invitation by the lodge is extended to everybody to come out and hear this distinguished orator. The brass band will furnish music for the occasion.

Arlington Items.

Farmers report hay cutting in full blast.

Squire Ebi received a car load of ice last Saturday.

Dr. Griffin is again in our midst after an absence of several months.

Stanley Coffin is here for a few days. His many friends are glad to see him.

Chas. Ebi was introduced to the mysteries of the W. O. W. at the last meeting.

W. A. Maxwell and wife spent several days last week at Columbus visiting relatives.

F. G. Hawson and C. W. Shurte made a trip to the Southern part of the county last week.

The O. R. & N. Co. is doing a great deal of work on the road here in anticipation of the expected flood.

A. T. Yancy of Blalock, returned Monday from Michigan, bringing with him a wife. May his shadow never grow less.

F. C. Hindle will attend the W. O. W. district convention to be held at Pendleton this week as a delegate from this camp.

Miss Ricks, day telegrapher at this place, has returned and is now at her post. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back.

Head Watchman Stillman, of Pendleton, will be here on the 20th to deliver a public lecture in the interest of Woodcraft. All are invited.

Rev. Bryan left Tuesday morning to spend a short time with his family in Portland. His sermons here were appreciated by our people.

Several of our cyclists went to Cleveland last Sunday. They report that nearly everybody in that section will come to Arlington to celebrate the 4th.

It was rumored that another wedding was to take place in the M. E. church last Sunday evening, but for some reason it failed to materialize. The unusually large congregation was unable to determine whether the couple lacked sufficient courage or whether it was due to the exceedingly warm weather that the event was postponed.

Olex Explosions.

A surprise party was given the Miss Kieleys last Monday evening.

Mrs. Avery of Corvallis is visiting her brother and sister Mr. Mobley and Mrs. Schott.

Jim Brown and his father-in-law, D. C. Downer, was doing business in the city one day this week.

Mrs. Hugh Strickland and daughter were guests on the creek. Mrs. S. was in attendance at the song services.

The song service given at the church Sunday evening was a decided success, the church being overcrowded. The speaking was good, in fact the declaiming reading, recitations and solos in every particular were well rendered. These song services will long be remembered in Olex, and will likely be taken up again after harvest.

There is not much news to pen this week as most of our people's time is being put in looking after the 4th July arrangements, etc. Committees met Monday night and all had favorable reports. As it looks now, there will be a very enjoyable time for all on that day. "Where there's a will there's a way" and with cooperation of so many influential people from other parts of the county a good time is insured.

Lone Rock Riplets.

James Vickers is very sick and partially paralyzed.

Dr. Hogan visited his little son here from Saturday until Wednesday.

Deputy Stock Inspector R. M. Johnson is dipping some scabby sheep here this week.

M. O. Clarke and wife were in the valley last week calling on friends and attending to some business.

Sheep from the lower country are going to the mountains by the thousands. Grass is good just now.

James Heastin and Hugh Neal and their families started to California the middle of the week, where they expect to live for awhile.

The Lone Rockers are making preparations for the 4th of July. They will meet in the city of Lone Rock and have a good time—if such a thing is possible.

John Madden has had a crew of men out working on the new road all week. He has done a lot of work this spring and expects to get it opened this summer.

Dr. Hanlock and Billy Colwell went fishing the other day and caught 200. "Doc" says Billy doesn't give a man only a half a show when it comes to fishing.
