

THE GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JULY 24, 1896.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The Dallas Times-Mountaineer notes and comments as follows: The Telegram announces that Bryan is a weak man in his own state, and that he cannot even carry Nebraska this fall.

The gold reserve in the national treasury has fallen below the $100,000,000 limit, and at the rate gold is being drawn out another bond issue will be inevitable before the end of the year.

When tempted to rail at the hard times and complain of poverty, remember the words of Garfield: "Poverty is uncomfortable, as I can testify, but nine times out of ten the best thing that can happen to a young man is to be tossed overboard and compelled to seek or swim."

Judge Stearns, of Portland, has rendered a decision that will be of interest to those who have been divorced and have remarried. It is in effect, that no person can legally marry in the state of Oregon within six months after he or she has been divorced, but if the marriage takes place outside the state it is legal.

The University of Oregon at Eugene is rapidly becoming the foremost institution of higher learning in the Northwest. Tuition is free and the literary and scientific courses are equal to the best.

Arlington Items.

G. W. Rinehart of Condon was in the city Monday.

Harvesting is the order of the day with our farmers.

Russell Stillwell and family have returned to Arlington.

Capt. Nelson and Frank Babbe are back from their outing.

Mrs. R. H. Robinson returned home Monday from her Mayville visit.

Constable Sweetin had been very sick for several days but is improving now.

W. A. Testerman was here on business last week. He will commence heading this week.

Rev. Bryan is holding services here, and will act as local minister until an appointment is made.

An Indian farmer brought in some fine new potatoes Monday, which he sold to Robinson Bros.

John W. Brown and others who had been at work in Montana, are all back again. They report dull times and warm weather up there.

The many friends of J. W. Smith were pleased to welcome him back last Monday morning. He enjoys better health than when he left here a year ago, and is well pleased with California. He will remain here for a short time only.

J. H. Miller of Condon passed through here Monday, enroute to Caldwell, Idaho, to close up his business there, preparatory to going to Southern Oregon to locate. John is an enterprising citizen and genial fellow and he and his family will be missed by their many friends in this county.

James W. Smith has the largest line of agricultural implements to select from in Gilliam county. Oliver plows and extras a specialty.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

Garret A. Hobart, the republican nominee for vice president, bolted the nomination of James G. Blaine and supported Gen. B. F. Butler for president. There is a slight suspicion that the state of Maine will not give an unusually large majority for McKinley next November.—Roseburg Review.

The other day a juror was reprimanded for inattention to the case he was supposed to be trying. He promptly arose in his seat and rebuked the lawyers in charge of the case for "asking silly questions and wasting time." It is unfortunate that there are not more jurors like him who would assert their right not to be afflicted with the irrelevant talk of glib lawyers, and vindicate the right of intelligent citizens to be intelligent even in the jury box.

NOTICE.

A number of the people of Gilliam county having demanded that the salary of deputy county clerk be abolished, and being now without pay for a deputy, I will hereafter be unable to attend to the numerous inquiries not pertaining to my official duty as clerk, such as necessitate correspondence—searching the records, etc., without a reasonable compensation for the same.

I am anxious to comply with all reasonable requests and wish to be accommodating to the public, and in order to do so I am compelled to employ help.

I therefore ask that those wishing accommodations from this office, outside of my official duty, such as searching the records, answering correspondence, etc., to enclose with their request a reasonable fee for the work and time necessary to comply with same, and I will give it attention. In this way I hope to be able to employ the necessary help to do the work in the office and accommodate the people as has been done in the past.

Very respectfully, H. N. FRAZER, County Clerk.

She then sent to me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her.
