A New Way to Propel a Boat.

To be alone in a boat which is in the very middle of a great lake, and to have neither oars nor any sort of substitute for oars with which to propel that boat to shore, would seem about as awkward a predicament as could well be imagined.

A Cannon Used as a Spile.

In some towns along the coast and in inland towns, too, one may still see planted at street corners cannon; relics of the revolutionary war, or of the war 1812, or, perhaps, the Mexican war.

Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week Cullied From the Telegraph Columns.

Cleveland, O., is celebrating its centennial with due ceremony. News comes from the Washington state Republican headquarters that the state convention will probably be held at Tacoma, some time between August 15 and September 15.

Hon. Samuel Layman, a prominent and well-known Oregonian, died at his home near Woodburn from the effects of injuries which he sustained some weeks ago by falling from a cherry tree. Mr. Layman was 63 years of age.

A meeting of representatives from the large foreign banking-houses was held in New York, to consider plans for the protection of the treasury gold reserve. It is understood a plan was arranged to ease the exchange market until the crop movement starts the balance in our favor.

A San Francisco dispatch says: Edwin B. Webster, the young paymaster who was recently court-martialed at Mare Island and found guilty of a charge of embezzlement, does not intend to abide by the judgment of the court. He will appeal to President Cleveland for clemency before the navy department shall have an opportunity to pass upon the recently found verdict.

Percival Lowell, Boston's famous astronomer, who is now on his way to Flagstaff, Ariz., is at the head of the most important scientific expedition planned for more than half a century. The object of the expedition is to make observations on Mars, and to procure, if possible, evidence to support the theory held by Mr. Lowell and other astronomers that the "red star of war" is inhabited by human beings.

Three members of the revolutionary committee have just arrived in Athens from Crete on a special mission. In the course of an interview they made the following statement on an authority of their committee: "We wish to say it has been decided that we must have granted to us the demands we have sent to the sultan or else we shall fight. The powers must either give us autonomy or see us crushed. Should our demands be neglected, then within fifteen days of July 15, the date at which they were made, we shall break the armistice."

Advices from Hong Kong say that imperial Chinese troops were recently sent to Lanchow to suppress the Mohammedan rebels, who had risen against the authorities. The rebels surrounded the imperial troops and seem to have totally annihilated them, although the imperial troops were better provisioned and equipped. There were 8,000 troops sent to subdue the rebels and all are either killed or missing. The rebels are now mad for blood, massacring all in authority, killing and pillaging on their triumphant march through the country.

Chinatown in San Francisco is in a fever of excitement and another high-binder war has been declared.

Cloolin's sawmill, situated on Deep creek, near Medical lake, Wash., was burned to the ground. The loss is $3,500.

Cholera is abating in Egypt. Battles in Crete are almost of hourly occurrence, and the Turks have suffered heavy losses.

Near Dryden, Mich., George Swayne, a farmer, about 45 years old, killed his three small children and set fire to his house, then blew his brains out. His wife died a short time ago. It is thought that this deranged his mind.

The barkentine Herbert Fuller, Captain Nash, from Boston for Rosario, has put into Halifax, Nova Scotia. There had been a mutiny on board. The captain, his wife and the second mate were killed in their berths in the night. The first officer, who was on watch, knew nothing about the affair. The murderer or murderers crawled aft to the cabin, descended, and with axes chopped the victims to death. Upon the arrival of the barkentine all the crew were looked up in the police station to await trial.

POPULISTS MEET.

Permanent Organization Effect-d-Senator Allen Chairman.

St. Louis, Mo.—The first day's session of the Populist national convention was not marked by any unusual occurrences. Permanent organization was effected, and Senator Butler, who had been chosen as temporary chairman by the national committee, was seated. He addressed the convention, and in the course of his remarks said he favored a plan to harmonize the forces of free silver by adopting a Populist platform and nominating upon it Bryan, with a Southern Populist for vice-president. His speech strongly upheld the demand for the perpetuation of the Populist organization, which he described as having driven the Republicans to gold and the Democrats to silver. To be swallowed up by the Democrats, he said, was a danger only equalled by the danger of being made the direct allies of the Republicans in the present campaign. Ignatius Donnelly made a middle-of-the-road speech in reply to Governor Stone's address of welcome. There was no night session, owing to an accident which destroyed the electric light connections.

The Second Day. At the second day of the convention somewhat of a sensation was created in the morning by a squad of the middle-of-the-roads, headed by Delegate Branch, of Georgia, who suddenly plunged into the hall through the main entrance, whooping down the center aisle. Branch bore aloft a big white banner with the inscriptions "Middle-of-the-Road," "A Straight Ticket." At the sight of it the Texas, Georgia, Maine, Missouri and Mississippi delegations mounted chairs, and yelled at the top of their voices.

General J. B. Weaver, of Iowa, was selected as chairman of the platform committee. The Bryan supporters were jubilant when they demonstrated, after a division in the convention, that they had a majority of 194. They perfected their permanent organization, installed their candidate, Senator Allen of Nebraska, as permanent chairman, and took charge of the machinery of the convention and committees.

The third day's session of the Populist national convention at St. Louis was marked by a partial victory for the middle-of-the-road men, they having secured the consent of the convention to consider the vice-presidential nomination before the question as to who should have first place upon the ticket was taken up.

The early part of today's session was devoted to the same sort of fiery oratory, interspersed with songs and music by the band, which characterized the sessions of the two previous days. The argument among the delegates finally resulted in a roll-call of the states being ordered upon the question as to whether the vice-presidential nomination should be made prior to that of president, and by a vote of 785 to 615 it was decided to give the vice-presidential nomination the precedence.

A committee of one from each state to confer with the silver committee of the silver convention was appointed. THE SILVER CONVENTION. Committee of Seven Appointed to Confer With the Populists.

St. Louis, Mo.—At the first day's session of the silver convention not much headway was made. The programme of the conference was all arranged in advance. It included simply the adoption of a 16-to-1 platform and the nomination of Bryan and Sewall, but those in charge of it deemed it good policy to go slow in the belief that they might, by remaining in session, be able to exercise an influence in shaping things in the Populist convention. To this end, they appointed a committee of seven, headed by Judge Scott, of California, to meet a similar committee of the Populists for the purpose of reaching a common plan of action. The convention was called to order by National Chairman Mott, who introduced Francis B. Newlands, of Nevada, as temporary chairman. Mr. Newlands addressed the convention at some length, and was followed by other speakers setting forth the claims of the silverites.

The Second Day. The second day's session of the silver convention was given over to speeches and songs. No business of any importance was transacted. The ladies were in evidence, and the assembly was addressed by Mrs. Helen Conger, of Indiana, who denounced the gold-bug monopolists as "Wall street plutocrats" and "English bond sharks" and said the only salvation of the people from serfdom was to declare for the free coinage of silver.

The Third Day. It was ten minutes to 11 o'clock when Chairman St. John called the silver convention to order. G. W. Baker, of California, said that the People's Party convention had appointed a conference committee and moved that the convention defer action on the platform and postpone the nomination until 3:30 P. M. The motion prevailed.

No business was transacted during the day, the time being taken up in the rendering of silver speeches, poems and songs. Action on the platform was deferred.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED

Sad Ending to a Vancouver Picnic Party.

THE BOAT UPSET IN AN EDDY

Corporal Edson, Private Morris, Miss Laura Guard and Miss Emma Young Lost Their Lives—Bodies Were Found.

Vancouver, Wash., July 27.—Corporal Edson, of the Fourteenth infantry; Private Charles Morris, of the Fourteenth infantry band; Laura Guard and Emma Young, two girls of this city, while out on a boating excursion on the Washougal river, in this county, all drowned this forenoon near Fleming's mill, by their boat upsetting in an eddy.

The details of the drowning were learned from Private Irvin, Fourteenth infantry, who reached here about 4 P. M. A party of young people crossed the Washougal this morning, and went blackberrying. They started to return about 10 o'clock. Four got into the boat, which dipped water, frightening the inmates, and in some way the boat upset. Mrs. Lipscomb, the only witness of the accident, heard the screams of those upset all the way from the camp. She rushed out and saw Morris and Miss Guard clinging to the overturned boat. The others had already sunk. Before she could reach the bank, Morris and Miss Guard too had gone down.

The bodies were in the water over an hour before the other members of the party returned to camp. The bodies were plainly seen on the bottom, through the clear water.

Young Morris and Miss Guard left yesterday to join the campers.

Washougal creek is not over forty feet wide where the drowning took place, and about sixteen feet deep in the eddy at the foot of the falls.

All were well known here. Henry L. Edson enlisted in the Fourteenth infantry four years ago at Seattle. He was a member of Harmony lodge, A. O. U. W., and of the Regular Army and Navy Union. Charles Morris, son of William T. Morris, a musician in the Fourteenth infantry band, was a member of the Fourteenth infantry band, and was 21 years old. Laura Guard was the daughter of Mrs. Peter Guard, whose husband died here a few weeks ago. Emma Young was the daughter of Henry Young, a prominent farmer in this county.

The news was telegraphed to Colonel E. P. Edson, a prominent Seattle attorney, who is a brother of Corporal Edson, and the parents of Young Morris at Fort Sherman. The hospital ambulance and an escort wagon were dispatched to the scene tonight, to bring the bodies to this city.

ANOTHER JAPAN LINE.

Agents of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Will Visit Portland.

Seattle, Wash., July 27.—Following closely in the wake of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, which announced Seattle as its American terminus only a few days ago, comes the accredited representatives to this city of another Oriental steamship line, the Toyo Kisen Kabushiki Kaisha, which is also seeking American connections. The party consists of Sochira Asano, president of the company; H. Okawa, director in the Oji Paper Company, near Tokio; Shunjiro Tomika, a captain in the service of the steamship company, and Hirouyki Kobayashi, interpreter for Mr. Asano.

The visitors, who represents great wealth, came to the city quietly, spent the day in making an investigation, and left this evening for Tacoma. Thence they go to Portland for a day, thence to San Francisco. From the latter point Asano will proceed to London and place contracts for the construction of twelve 5,000-ton vessels, to be used on the line, which will run from the American terminus to Tokio and Hong Kong.

The result of the day's investigation, while nothing definite has been announced, leads to a belief that the terminus will be either Seattle or Portland.

Terrible Spanish Brutality. Key West, July 27.—Private letters from Matanzas, Cuba, to responsible merchants in this city, give shocking details connected with the capture by the Spanish of rebel hospitals located in that province. Dr. Isquerdo, surgeon of the Cuban army, with assistants and corps of nurses, were all, it is alleged, put to the machete while the helpless sick and wounded were assassinated in their cots and the buildings then burned over their heads to cover up the crimes. Rios and Montanera, the two men who were imprisoned on account of the discovery of arms in San Rafael street at Havana yesterday, have been barbarously whipped by the Spanish police. The first one was tortured. A woman was arrested who has been confined for three days in a cell.

A Fatal Accident. Chicago, July 27.—By the falling of a portion of the interior dome of the old postoffice building N. B. Smith, a workman, was instantly killed, and Amos Stringer perhaps fatally crushed.
