OF INTEREST TO OUR READERS

Comprehensive Review of the Important
Happenings of the Past Week
Culled From the Telegraph Columns.

In a severe thunderstorm near Omaha, Neb., three people were killed by lightning.

A dispatch from Neath, announces that forty miners were entombed in the Brinscote pit by an explosion.

Miss Ida Fuller, a New York actress, while in bathing at Manhattan beach, was grasped by an octopus and nearly drowned.

Governor Altgeld has issued a manifesto declaring that eight hours shall constitute a day's work on park improvements in Chicago.

Miss Anna Pritchard, a widow from San Francisco, left $1,250 in greenbacks done up in a newspaper on the Oakland ferryboat, and has not been able to find the package since.

John Hazel jumped from an Illinois Central passenger train that was running forty miles an hour and was instantly killed. He was in custody of an officer and was wanted for horse-stealing in Missouri.

A detachment of company I, who were guarding the Brown hoisting works, near Cleveland, O., fired upon a mob of strikers and wounded one of them. Excitement runs high, and more trouble is feared.

A sale on the courthouse steps of Elizabethtown, Ky., was a reminder of ante-bellum days. Instead of a negro slave being transferred to another owner, it was a white man sold at auction for vagrancy under an old law seldom enforced.

The administration of President Pirola, of Peru, is to be credited with another triumph in effecting a loan of 80,000,000 francs. The loan, which will be guaranteed by a salt tax and other revenues, will be subscribed partly in Paris and partly in Lima.

Bill Doolin, the outlaw who escaped from the jail in Guthrie, O. T., four weeks ago, was surrounded by deputy marshals at Wewoka. A desperate fight took place, and during a fusillade of shots Doolin escaped. Deputies Gregor and Reynolds were killed.

In Chicago, twelve persons succumbed to the heat in one day. Two or three of these are not expected to recover. It was the hottest day of the year, the signal service thermometer registering ninety-four in the afternoon. Thermometers on the streets registered four and five degrees more than that in the tower.

A bloody affray occurred among a crowd of school boys at Bushville, Ark. Robert Chew and Beuregard Poole became involved in a fight. Friends of the belligerents joined in the fray. Pocket knives were used. Several boys were dangerously wounded. Poole was stabbed in the breast several times and died of his wounds.

The Chicago stock exchange will remain closed until the Moore Bros. failure has been settled. The action of the governing committee in closing the doors is said by some financiers to have averted a panic. "There is no telling where it would have ended," said a member of the stock exchange. "It might have resulted in the ruin of a dozen business houses and banks."

A special from Madrid says a great fire rages at Rueda de Medina, a town of about 4,000 inhabitants, twenty-five miles southwest of Valladolid. Hundreds of buildings are said to have been destroyed. The inhabitants are reported as being in a state of panic.

The syndicate of foreign bankers which came into existence to check the drain on the United States treasury reserve exerted by Europe has been signally successful in its efforts in that direction, but the withdrawals of gold for shipment to Canada continues.

James Fulton Shepard, a one-legged boy of Alameda, Cal., saved a 13-year-old lad named Durant from drowning in the tidal canal. Shepard rescued Durant as he was sinking for the last time. The boy had swallowed a quantity of water, and it required an hour's hard work to bring him to.

Another rebellion is reported from China. Two powerful bandit societies are in revolt. Several villages have been captured. Helpless inhabitants have been foully murdered and their homes destroyed. Foreign missions have been attacked, and two French priests narrowly escaped with their lives.

Governor McIntyre, of Colorado, has received a letter purporting to be from William Smeiduth, for the murder of whom Columbus B. Sykes is serving a life sentence. What were supposed to be Smeiduth's remains were found on his ranch, near Dallas, Colo., March 13, 1894. The chief of police of San Francisco has been requested to find the man claiming to be Smeiduth, who writes that he is staying at the What Cheer house on Sacramento street, San Francisco.

THE SITUATION IS SERIOUS

Republican Sentiment Cropping Out in Spain.

CAN NO LONGER BE CONCEALED

The Government's Ease of Blaming the United States for Its Failures Will Not Much Longer Answer the Purpose

Madrid, Aug. 10.—Trouble of a serious nature is being fomented in Spain, particularly in the province of Valencia, by agents of the Cuban insurgents. The minister of the interior, Senor Cosgaya, yesterday replying to a question in the chamber of deputies admitted that riots had occurred in Valencia, caused by the friends of the Cuban insurgents, who hoped thereby to prevent the departure of reinforcements of troops for Cuba.

Hitherto the popular demonstrations have been attributed to protest against imposing new taxes, made necessary by the financial strain the government has been subjected to, through carrying on the campaign against the insurgents in Cuba, but while the government is only willing to admit that the riots have been instigated by the agents of the Cuban revolutionists, it is generally admitted that the root of the trouble is much deeper and that it is being nourished by a natural feeling of alarm and dismay at the apparent utter inability of the government to cope with the situation in Cuba.

That the large Spanish army in Cuba must be still further heavily reinforced is looked upon here as being a confession of weakness on the part of the administration and as an admission of the growing strength of the Cubans. In addition, many letters have been received in different parts of Spain by the relatives of the Spanish soldiery serving with the army in Cuba, and they tell such terrible tales of sickness, privation, incompetency and mismanagement, to say nothing of lack of pay, that a dangerous feeling against the government has arisen, and is gaining strength day by day. Under these circumstances, agents of the Cubans do not have much difficulty in carrying out their plan of causing popular outbreaks. They steadily fan the flame of discontent by pointing to the apparently unnecessary hardships which the Spanish troops in Cuba are compelled to endure.

The republicans also are taking advantage of the situation to push their propaganda, and the combined movements are making more headway with the masses than the government will admit, although it is already betraying symptoms of alarm and has sent stringent instructions to the prefects to suppress promptly and effectually demonstrations which occur in their districts, and to have no hesitation in calling out the military for support.

A number of conflicts between rioters and the police and soldiers have already occurred, shots have been exchanged, several persons have been wounded on both sides, and a number of arrests have been made. This the revolutionists hope will serve to call attention to their cause and enlist in their behalf the sympathy of the people. The roads in Valencia are being patrolled by the gen d'armes, troops are pursuing armed bands of revolutionists in the mountainous districts of the same province and further trouble is apprehended.

Madrid up to the present has been quiet, but signs are not wanting that the spirit of discontent is abroad, and that the efforts of the government to gain support by trying to throw the blame for everything upon the United States, the chief bugaboo of Spanish politicians, will not much longer avail. In a factory near the city of Valencia the authorities have discovered a quantity of arms and ammunition, and similar stores are believed to be in existence in different parts of the province. The arms referred to are known to have been smuggled into Spain quite recently, and are of foreign manufacture, showing their shipment to be part of the plan of campaign being conducted by the Cubans in Spain.

The Spanish officials, as usual, are blaming the United States for the troubles in this country, basing their assertions upon the fact that among the leaders of the recent riots was Dr. Bernardo Toledo, said to be an American citizen, whose brother is in command of a force of Cuban insurgents. It is claimed that money, arms and ammunition, were served out to the rioters from the house which he occupied, and a series of spying is said to have resulted in the discovery of letters from the United States, Cuba and the Argentine Republic, showing that the outbreaks here have been planned by the leaders of the Cuban insurgents, and that the movement is widespread and capable of assuming serious proportions.

Death of Mrs. Annette Hicks-Lord.

New York, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Annette Hicks-Lord, who was in her day one of the most notable figures in New York society, died last night, aged 67. Mrs. Hicks-Lord was descended on her mother's side from a titled English family, and was related to General Robert Schenck, once United States minister to Great Britain.

Pursuit Is Abandoned.

Pursuit of the bandits who held up the Wilhoit stage has been abandoned, as their trail was lost in the mountains about fifteen miles from where the crime was committed, making it well nigh impossible to further trace them.

Nicaragua Must Give Up.

A government organ declares that if Nicaragua refuses to relinquish Islas Mangla, which she seized contrary to the wishes of the inhabitants, the Colombian government will regard the refusal as a casus belli.

Boy Murderer Surrenders.

Amos Decker, the boy who murdered a playmate near Findlay, O., has given himself up to the authorities. He successfully eluded capture for several days by hiding in a corn field, but hunger drove him out.

The Boiler Exploded.

A traction engine boiler exploded on a farm near Anderson, Ind., and one man was instantly killed and several others seriously injured.
