Speaker Crisp Dead.

Charles F. Crisp, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, died in Atlanta, Ga. His death was not altogether a surprise in political circles, as it has been known for some months that he had not long to live, and never again could be an active figure in public affairs. The speaker had several spells of illness in Washington. He suffered from asthma and later from heart trouble. His ill health, however, did not become a matter of public notoriety until the past spring, when he was compelled to abandon a series of joint debates arranged with ex-Secretary Hoke Smith by reason of the advice of his physician. Crisp had been in the sanitarium for five weeks, suffering from malarial fever. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure.

A CONGRESS OF BRAINS

Notable Gathering at Princeton's Sesqui-Centennial.

A THREE DAYS' CELEBRATION

President Cleveland Delivered An Address on the Duties and Responsibilities of Our College Men.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 26.—The history of Princeton during the last three days will be a part of the history of the United States. Primarily, the event was the celebration of the university's sesqui-centennial. Historically, it was a congress of nations, formed by the best brains of those nations. Learned savants from the shores of France, renowned scholars from Germany, living personifications of the centuries of lore embraced within the walls of ancient Oxford touched elbow to elbow and drank toasts together. Pre-eminent among all stood the chief executive of this nation, President Cleveland.

Necessarily, the president was the main speaker of the day, and nearly every man is saying here tonight that he made the oratorical effort of his life. He spoke in Alexander hall to a multitude comprising representatives of nearly every great institution of learning in the world, and men of mark in all other walks of life. His theme was "The Duties and Responsibilities That College Men and Educated Men Generally Owe to the Cause of Good Government." Mr. Cleveland spoke without any attempt at oratorical effect, and with very little emphasis even, but the points in his address were quickly grasped by his hearers, and he was frequently interrupted by hearty hand-clapping and cries of "Good, Good," from the platform and body of the house. On each occasion of this sort the great crowd of students in the balcony yelled, "Cleveland! Cleveland! Cleveland!"

Mr. Cleveland spoke for half an hour, and when he concluded, the exhibition of enthusiasm was remarkable. Cheer upon cheer was given with hearty good will, and as a wind-up the college yell was given for Mrs. Cleveland. She occupied a chair in the front row of the seats facing the benches on which the university delegates sat, and the unexpected attention of the students caused all eyes to turn in her direction. All present joined in the applause, and as Mr. Cleveland caught his wife's eye he gave her an approving smile, receiving one from her in return.

The great three day's celebration closed tonight with a banquet in the assembly hall given to the university delegates. There were present more than 300 persons. Probably never in the history of the country has such a gathering of renowned men been seated around the same board. It was an international assemblage, and included the most eminent educators of both sides of the Atlantic.

BURNED TO DEATH.

One Li' Lost in a Brooklyn Fire Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 26.—A disastrous fire occurred in Brooklyn tonight, resulting in loss of life, the injury of several persons and destruction of property amounting to $250,000. The five-story brick factory at Seventh street, between Second and Third avenues, where destroyed. The first and second floors of the building were occupied by O. A. Wissner, manufacturer of iron and spring bedsteads, the third floor by J. Krim and Wauther Bros., diamond setters, and the fourth floor by the Etta knitting mills. It was shortly after the fire began that Otto Beauman, a fireman, with the assistance of Foreman Birby and Fireman John Quigley, was carrying a hose through the building when they were caught in a back draught. Birby and Quigley managed to gain the street, but Beauman was unable to do so. A rescuing party, consisting of J. J. Ryan, Franklin Ferguson and Louis Blair, attempted to make their way through the burning ruins. They were all severely burned, but managed to reach Beauman, who, however, had been burned to death.

The building was owned by Wissner, who places his loss on the building, stock and machinery at $200,000, partly insured. Krim and Wauther Bros. lost $10,000, and the Etta knitting mills about $40,000 fully covered by insurance.

Car Inspector Killed.

Los Angeles, Oct. 26.—Moses B. Morey, car inspector of the Terminal Railway Company, was killed in the switch yards of the company this morning by being run over by a freight-car. He was working underneath the car, and failed to put out a flag. A switch engine backed a number of cars on the switch, which bumped against the car underneath which Morey was. His head was crushed to a pulp.

Declared Unconstitutional.

Orange Park, Fla., Oct. 26.—The Sheats law, prohibiting whites and negroes being taught in the same school, has been declared unconstitutional.

WEYLER'S LATEST ORDER.

Once More He Will Try to Starve the Insurgents.

Havana, Oct. 26.—Captain-General Weyler has issued a proclamation containing the following provisions: First—All of the inhabitants of the country or outside the lines of fortifications of the towns must betake themselves to the towns occupied by troops within a period of eight days. Those who are found outside the towns after the expiration of that period will be considered rebels and will be taken and tried as such.

Second—The withdrawal of groceries from towns is absolutely prohibited, and also the transportation of them by sea or land, without permit from the military authorities, violators of this provision to be tried and punished as aids of the rebels.

Third—Proprietors of cattle must carry them to towns or make application immediately for protection.

Fourth—Eight days after the publication of this proclamation, all rebels surrendering in every municipality will be subject to the captain-general's disposal to order them where to reside, and it will be a commendation in their favor for them to give available news about the enemy and to surrender with their firearms; and, moreover, to surrender collectively in their organizations.

Fifth—The proclamation is only enforceable in the province of Pinar del Rio.

The insurgents during the past two weeks have been continuing the work of devastation, particularly in the province of Matanzas, where they have reduced to ashes eight tobacco and sugar plantations, together with many farm houses and huts of laborers, the total value being about $2,000,000. Hundreds of families are rendered homeless.

GOLD FROM AUSTRALIA.

Two and a Half Millions Arrived on the Monowal.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—The steamer Monowal, which arrived from Australia today, has on board about $2,500,000 worth of English sovereigns, consigned to Assistant United States Treasurer Berry, to be melted down and milled into double eagles here and stored away in the subtreasury.

About a month ago a shipment valued at $1,500,000 was received here from Australia, and at that time Assistant Treasurer Berry was authorized by the treasury department at Washington to receive the coin at bullion value for storage in the subtreasury and to accept additional shipments to the amount of $6,000,000. Soon afterward dispatches announced that the second shipment from Australia, amounting to $2,500,000 bullion value, had started on its way from Australia.

The treasure will be taken to the mint where the gold will be tested for weight and fineness and afterwards either coined into $20 pieces or stored in the subtreasury as bullion.

The gold thus shipped from Australia is placed to the credit of merchants who are buying in New York and Europe to make up the balance of trade, which is naturally in favor of New York at this season. A dozen years ago this plan was devised by Hugh Craig and others, and by it the annual saving in the exchange between here and New York amounts to a large sum. The next shipment, which will arrive before the first of the year, will probably be larger than either of the two preceding.

INFORMATION SUFFICIENT.

Conviction of C. O. Downing of Embezzlement Sustained.

Olympia, Wash., Oct. 26.—The supreme court today affirmed the lower court's judgment in the case of State of Washington, respondent, vs. C. O. Downing, appellant. This was a case wherein the appellant, as clerk of Spokane county, was convicted of embezzlement. Counsel for Downing urged that the information was insufficient to charge an offense, under the act of 1893, making it embezzlement for any county officer to whom a salary is paid to fail to pay to the county treasurer all sums that shall come into his hands for fees and charges in his office; also that the information did not charge an offense under section 57, of the penal code. The supreme court held contrary to this contention in the case of the State vs. Innes, the defaulting city treasurer of New Whatcom, and concludes upon the authority of that case, that no error was committed in the lower court in overruling the demurrer in this case. The exceptions taken by the appellant to certain charges of the lower court are held by the supreme court to be untenable.

A Bloody Japanese Duel.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—Kata Nishamoto and Harry Nismato, Japanese, and cousins, fought a bloody duel today at their boarding-house. As a result, both are at the receiving hospital, Kata with one side of his head sliced off and his left cheek amputated and his left arm almost severed from his body. Harry got off better, but his body is covered with wounds and gashes. The row began over the payment of a debt, and Harry used a big butcher-knife, while Kata wielded a Japanese naval sword. Both fainted from loss of blood, but they may recover.

Ben Hagen, a farmer living near Pendleton, came into that city one day last week with a load of wheat. While descending Bourke canyon he found the straw that had been placed on the road on fire. He was into the fire before he discovered it. The banks were too steep above and below, so that he could not turn out, so he whipped up his team and ran his horses all the way through the fire. It was rather hot, and four sacks of wheat were set on fire while the team was dashing through the flames.

Tons of fish are going to waste on the beaches in Uppertown and Alderbrook, says the Astorian. Within the past few days millions of sardines have been thrown up by the high tides on the shore along the city front, and it has appeared to spectators that something should be done towards packing this magnificent article of food. The fish are as fine in quality as any ever put up in oil, and it would seem that a new industry of remunerative and large proportions only awaits the energy of some practical man.

The farmers around Colfax have begun seeding and the amount of fall-planted grain which will go in this year will be greater than that of any previous year if the weather continues favorable. The rise in the price of wheat is stimulating the farmers to increased activity, and nearly every inch of summer fallow land will be planted by election time.
