

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1896.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

To whom do all our great men owe their present standing and influence but to their mothers? The mother is infallible in the eyes of the little one—she cannot err; the ideas she may advance are received as infallibly correct. Then what an opportunity is offered for the mother to advance her child in the first rudiments of education. Let her, as she goes about her work, encourage the little one into inquiries. Where is the child who does not ask a thousand little questions daily? Put it not off as an impertinent enquirer, or as too talkative. Answer its questions so as to draw from it ideas of its own, and thus assist it in the development of its mental faculties. Then teach it the name and use of things comprehensible by its infantile mind. Who so ready to second the appeals of a son in behalf of a thorough education as the mother? Then let the mothers of Oregon come forth in their strength and the next generation will be an ornament to, as well as an assistant in, spreading abroad the fame of this growing republic. In the nursery begin the arduous task; daily, hourly persevere in the work and in due time you will reap the reward due for your exertions. If we depend upon our children to succeed in life, they should be trained for the work mentally, morally and physically.—West Side.

It is not too frequent for a publisher at least once a month or two to impress on the minds of the business men of his town that outsiders judge its go-aheadiveness and prosperity by the appearance of its papers. If they are well patronized and have a thrifty appearance, it is a pretty safe guide to an intending settler or investor that it is just about the place he should pitch his tent. On the other hand, if a paper or papers have a shabby appearance, however bright the town may be, it is again a safe indication that a number of first-class funerals of its "prominent citizens" are needed to ever bring it out of a state of mossbackism.—Publishers Guide.

Here's a short sermon that Li Hang Chang delivered to a pretty young woman who told him that she wasn't married: "A woman can afford to be capricious as long as she is young, but even American women, beautiful as they are, must eventually grow old. Time creeps on, even in the case of the fairest, and when a woman reaches forty she will find that she cannot make the conquest that she did at thirty. Every woman should get married. Marriage is her mission, and she will be happier with a good husband than alone, wandering about the world."

Up in the higher Alps the snow is sometimes piled up so high, and is so evenly balanced, that the crack of a whip or the shout of a voice may give sufficient vibration to the air to bring down the whole mass upon the travelers below. So in our moral world there are souls just hovering over the abyss of ruin; a word or even a look from us may cause them to plunge down into the depths from which there is no return; or a helping hand stretched out to them in a moment of peril may lead them back to a safe, sure path to virtue and peace.

There were 1,823 employes killed on the railroads of this country last year, but among passengers there was but one half sacrificed for every 1,668,791 carried by the railroads. The man who looks upon railroad travel as dangerous will do well to consider that he has a million and a half chances for a safe journey to one chance of being killed.

"Husband, what did the doctor say about me?" "He said you must give up religion and take to drink." "What!" "Well, he said you must stop doing so much church work and take a tonic."

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

PHOTOGRAPHS.

W. L. Richards, the Condon artist, is prepared to make all sizes of photographs from stamps to enlargements. Orders taken for crayon, water colors or India-ink enlargements, with or without frames. All work will be finished at my new gallery just north of the drug store at Condon. I guarantee all work that is paid for when taken.

Remember that Liverine is a first-class remedy for the liver, and one of the very best for constipation. Liverine is an Oregon remedy. Patronize home industry by buying a bottle of Liverine at L. W. Darling's.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by druggists.

To The Public.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine. "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by druggists.
