

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1896.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

A discovery not pleasing has been made in regard to our crack naval cruisers. It has been found that they will not hold ammunition enough to carry them through a regular sea fight. This after so much time and money having been spent on them, and so many reams of paper covered with mathematical calculations, looks as though there was not so much brains to the cubic inch in an expert's skull after all. It is not likely our cruisers will be called on to fight a battle. Still, we would like to think they could do so if they had to, especially as they cost over $1,000,000 apiece.

Mr. Bryan's overwhelming defeat no doubt is due to his free trade views more than from the money or any other cause. The people of this country have learned from bitter experience that free trade benefits no one except the foreign countries, and particularly England, their bitterest enemy. Much better have the factories of our own country running day and night, furnishing bread for the millions of poor families than that they remain idle while the foreign countries revel in luxury at our expense.

The New York Mail and Express says: If Spain succeeds in raising another loan of $200,000,000, she ought to put about half of it aside to use in paying for the property of American citizens in Cuba which has been destroyed by her incompetent soldiers. A heavy expense bill is being piled up against Spain in this matter, and unless she provides the cash to meet it, there is likely to be serious and variegated trouble for her.

Now that the election is over, the hundreds of millions of dollars that have been lying idle in the vaults for so many months, owing to lack of confidence, ought to and likely will come out of its hiding place and seek investment. We ought to now have the good times that have been promised so faithfully all through the campaign by the thousands of republican orators and newspapers if McKinley is elected.

Arthur Bird of New York has 11 living children. He was 74 years old a few days since, and had all his children to a birthday dinner. When the guests uncovered their plates each one was favored with 10 crisp $1000 bills as a birthday present. The editor of this great weekly would be pleased to attend a dinner of that kind every now and then.

The country has grown tremendously in a century. Still, although the country is 3,000 miles wide, the center of population is as yet only 600 miles west of the Atlantic coast, being somewhere near the center of Indiana. It has followed almost the same straight line westward veering neither to north nor south.

"Can any of you tell me why Lazarus was a beggar?" asked the female teacher in a West Side Sunday school. "Why was Lazarus a beggar?" she repeated, sternly. "Please, ma'am," replied a small boy, whose father was a merchant, "because he didn't advertise."—Buffalo Times.

William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska now has a better chance to realize where he "is at" than at any time during the campaign. He is already being boomed for the United States Senate from Nebraska.

Henry Ward Beecher once said that if one were to pursue and hunt down all the slanders emitted by idle and vicious gossip, life would be a perpetual flea hunt.

The dull, sickening thud of last Tuesday leads one to believe that something heavy must have dropped. Did you hear it?

How to Prevent Croup.
Some reading that will prove interesting to young mothers—how to guard against the disease.
Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easy and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by L. W. Darling, druggist.
