GLOBOSITIES.

How does the election suit you?
Mont Downing left today for his home at Bourns.
Charley Earhart opened his new saloon here Saturday night.
Palmer and Buckner did not receive a single vote in this county.
Born, on Nov. 31 to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frazer near Lone Rock, a 14-lb. boy.
John McMorris began work this week on E. A. May's fine new dwelling house in town.

Oregon will give McKinley a majority of about 5,000, according to the latest returns.

The infant daughter of Mrs. Lucien Parker died on Oct. 27th at Pleasant Hill, Lane county.

The wheat buyers feel sure that within a couple of weeks wheat will be up to 75c a bushel or higher.

Father Brigidly will conduct Catholic services at Fossil next Sunday, 8th, and at Condon on Nov. 15th.

Mrs. S. P. Shutt and little son Percy visited their relatives at Fossil this week, J. H. Putnam and family.

About a dozen wagon-loads of hogs from the Mayville country were delivered at Arlington today for shipment.

Teachers' examination will be held at Condon next week. About a dozen or more applicants are expected to be present.

Owing to not being able to get the result of the election sooner, the GLOBE is printed one day later this week than usual.

Billy Keys returned home the first of the week from Portland, where he purchased a large stock of goods for his Mayville store.

A fine little son was born on Thursday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stricklin. They say Frank will pull through all right.

Dr. Nott, the dentist, has concluded to remain here only until Nov. 14th, so if anyone wants dental work done they must call at once.

Mrs. L. A. Henderson of Mayville left last week for Colfax, Wash., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Hagen, several weeks.

Berril Morey, son of Prof. Morey, came down this week from Johnson, Wash., and will remain here this winter with his father and attend school.

See L. W. Darling's new ad. The people of this section will be pleased to learn that he has reduced the price of his drugs to about 1/2 the former prices.

A match game of football will be played at Condon on Thanksgiving between the Fossil and Condon boys, which will be worth coming many miles to see.

W. L. Barker has bought of Andy Carothers of Rock creek 130 head of young hogs, which he will fatten for the market. Frank Caldwell brought them up last week.

We learn that a tremendous crowd will attend the Thanksgiving ball at Condon on Nov. 26th. It will doubtless be the grandest affair of the kind ever given in this county.

A bouncing 11-pound son was born on Saturday, Oct. 31st, to Mr. and Mrs. John Knox, and it tickles John so that he acts just a small boy with his first pair of now red-topped boots.

Halloween was vigorously observed in this place Saturday night. Everything in town that was unpeppable was turned over, and nearly every thing loose at both ends changed locations.

W. C. P. Breckinridge of Kentucky, of Madeline Pollard fame, was elected to Congress Tuesday, while his equally notorious brother, Gov. Altgeld, was defeated for governor of Illinois.

Dr. Hogan this week had his house moved forward about ten feet and will have an addition built onto it, rustic put on the old part and the whole building painted and improved generally.

Miss Birdie Downing, teacher of the Winlock school, visited her home here this week, having come over Saturday with her brother Mont and sister Dora, who went over to Winlock Friday.

Fred Cornett, our enterprising butcher, now wears the marshal's badge of this excellent town. Fred is an experienced butcher and keeps only the choicest beef and other meats. Buy some.

Dr. Holmes, who it will be remembered, fought a duel with pistols with a physician by the name of Anspind at Portland about a year ago, died last week at the good Samaritan hospital in that city.

Harry Clay of Olex, Gilliam county, passed through Long Creek Thursday en route to Heppner. Mr. Clay will ship 50 carloads of sheep, containing 5000 head, from that point to Minneapolis.—Eagle.

Mr. Buckingham, a brother of one of the proprietors of the stage line, is now driving in the place of Bill Thurngale, who quit last week and who expects to embark in the blacksmithing business at Fossil. The other stage driver is Wm. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Ehl of Arlington visited in town several days this week, the Judge having brought out the election ballots and assisted the clerk in the official count, a job he has held down for many years.

Mrs. T. B. Hoover of Fossil returned home this week from her visit with relatives at Portland and in Washington county. She stopped with her relatives at Condon, Sheriff Wilcox and family, Wednesday night.

John A. Walker of Ferry Canyon lost from his wagon in Lost Valley about ten days ago three double blankets. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning them to the owner or leaving same at this office.

Attorney S. A. Gurley of Arlington is in Walla Walla this week on professional business before the U. S. circuit court. Mr. Gurley is an able and successful attorney, whose business is not alone confined to this district.

We learn that several of our young people are preparing to abandon single cussedness on Thanksgiving, and that one young man has already rented a house here, in which to reside with his intended better 1/2.

W. P. Gray of Heppner was in this section this week trying to buy sheep, but whether or not he secured any we have not learned. Charley Shurte of Arlington was out through here last week on a similar errand.

The locks at Cascade Locks have at last been completed, after waiting a quarter of a century and at a cost of millions of dollars. The Dalles people had a tremendous celebration Wednesday in honor of the event.

W. L. Richards, the artist, expects to leave here in about two weeks for Lexington, where he will spend the winter, and will not likely come to Condon again to reside. Those wanting pictures must call soon, before he begins packing.

Mr. Andrew Palmer and wife of Ajax, Gilliam county, expect to start for Corvallis in a few days, and intend to spend the winter here. They are the parents of Mrs. Cal Thrasher of this city and are well acquainted in this section of country. They are old Oregon pioneers, having crossed the plains in 1847.—Corvallis Times.

One of the best campaign jokes we have yet heard of is this: The day before election Mrs. Bryan was introduced to a large crowd as "the next mistress of the White House." An Irishman present bellowed out: "And b'Jasus if she is she'll have to shlap with McKinley!" The applause that followed is still reverberating in the valleys back there.

The report that the First National Bank of Heppner had suspended is entirely without foundation. County Clerk Morrow of Heppner has informed Clerk Frazer that the bank never was in sounder condition than at present and that "Old Conser," as he is familiarly called, can always be found at the bank counter with plenty of cash to pay everybody.

The election is over, and what a blessed relief it is to everybody. They will all have a chance to quit talking now and go to work again. These presidential elections should not come oftener than every eight or ten years, as the country never has time to recover from the terrible effects of a national campaign until it is plunged into another.

About the worst-disappointed crowd we have seen for some time, excepting the Bryan voters, was the crowd that gathered at the postoffice yesterday to learn the election news from the Portland papers, and found that not a bit of mail came from the west, owing to a freight train wreck near The Dalles, which delayed the mail. All the election news yet received was dispatches sent out from Arlington.

Miss B. Smith of Independence, state organizer of the ladies' branch of the order of Maccabees, arrived here Tuesday for the purpose of organizing a lodge at this place. She will deliver a lecture in the hall here on Saturday afternoon of this week at 2 o'clock, to which all of the ladies in this vicinity are cordially invited. The organization will take place in the evening. At the lecture in the afternoon, gentlemen are invited to attend, as well as ladies.

Mr. O. P. Taylor, the well-known fruit man, whose kind and familiar face will always be remembered by our townpeople, died on Thursday of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Danffer on Rock creek, of kidney troubles. The burial took place at Olex next day and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends. One of his last requests was that T. C. Mobley act as administrator of his estate. Mr. Mobley was up to town Wednesday and was appointed by Judge Mariner as administrator.

The verdict of $40,000 in favor of Mrs. Robert Walker, rendered by the jury in Dayton the other day, is said to be the largest amount of damages ever awarded for a death. Mrs. Walker's husband was an engineer, who was killed by his engine overturning where the road was defective. The trial lasted four days, and after it was given to the jury they deliberated on it but two hours, rendering a verdict for the full amount sued for, $40,000. Judge Bennett spoke for forty minutes, his words therefore possessing an average value of $1000 a minute. He is said to have made a very eloquent and touching plea in behalf of the widow, which affected the jury to tears. Mr. Bennett was opposed by the railroad attorney, W. W. Cotton of Portland.

McKINLEY IS ELECTED.

It Was a Republican Landslide.

The greatest political contest in the history of the country is over at last and resulted in a complete victory for the republicans. The returns up the hour of going to press give McKinley 277 and Bryan 170 of the 447 electoral votes, subject to slight change by the official count. According to the dispatches sent out yesterday, McKinley carried the following 23 states: New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Maine, New Jersey, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, West Virginia, Kentucky, Iowa, Michigan, Maryland, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Delaware and California. Bryan carried the balance of the states.

Following is the vote of the county by precincts:

- Fossil—McKinley 104, Bryan 67.
- Arlington—McKinley 100, Bryan 65.
- Condon—McKinley 77, Bryan 71.
- Rock Creek—McKinley 56, Bryan 50.
- Mayville—McKinley 41, Bryan 72.
- Lone Rock—McKinley 35, Bryan 32.
- Matney—McKinley 22, Bryan 16.
- Ferry Canyon—McKinley 17, Bryan 28.
- Blalock—McKinley 21, Bryan 34.
- Crown Rock—McKinley 21, Bryan 9.
- Trail Fork—McKinley 31, Bryan 8.
- Idea—McKinley 13, Bryan 9.
- Rowe Creek—McKinley 11, Bryan 12.

Total vote for each—McKinley 551, Bryan 471; republican majority 80.

The total vote at the June election in this county was 921, and at this election 1022, an increase of 101.

The editor of one of our exchanges recently offered a prize of $50 for the best written proposal of marriage by a lady. He selected one written by a rich East-earn widow and answered with a letter of acceptance, and when the lady refused to marry him he sued her for breach of promise. Pretty good investment, if he makes it stick.

About 1 o'clock one night last week Edgar Moore, who clerks and sleeps in S. B. Barker's store, heard a man trying to open the front store door, and failing in that he made a similar effort at the back door. Edgar was about to turn a Winchester loose on him when he went away. Whether or not he was a drunk staggering around has not been learned, but it was a dangerous experiment and one that cannot be repeated with safety. A man with a young cannon sleeps in every store in town, which is news that will interest any one who might think it would be a snap to burglarize them.

Last Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Dodson of Clem, who were recently married, were returning home from Mayville with a 4-horse load of lumber, and while coming down the steepest place on the hill beyond Thirtymile the brake broke and all fell or rolled to the foot of the hill at a frightful rate of speed. The wagon struck a large rock at the side of the road and was badly demolished, but, strange to say, neither Mr. Dodson or his wife were very badly hurt. Both were more or less bruised and cut by falling on rocks, as were also the horses. The editor of this paper and his family in a buggy met them on the hill only a minute or two before the accident, which was lucky for all, as the result would have been more disastrous had a collision occurred.

The Locks Open At Last.

Monday's Times-Mountaineer.

Sound the grand tidings throughout the land that the big gates in the canal at Cascade Locks will be swung open on Thursday, Nov. 5, at 2 P. M., and that at that hour the first boat ever to come from the lower to the upper river will pass through the canal; that there will no longer be an obstruction to the navigation of the great Columbia from The Dalles to the sea; that the fetters that have bound Eastern Oregon and retarded its progress will be severed. This welcome news was received today in a dispatch from Capt. Fisk, engineer in charge of the government work at the Cascades, to N. Wealdon of the Commercial Club's committee on commerce. For twenty years The Dalles has waited for these glad tidings, and now that our fond hope seems to be realized, is an event over which all feel elated. Old men who have grown gray in waiting seem to call back ten, yes twenty years of their lives and assumed the buoyancy of youth. Even in these exciting times of political strife, politicians laid aside partisanship for the time and united in the general good cheer. Go where you would on the street, and all you could hear was "the locks will open next Thursday." All The Dalles is happy over the news, and the committees in charge of the celebrations (on the 4th inst.) will begin with renewed efforts to make it the grandest event that ever has or ever will occur in Eastern Oregon.

The Astoria Budget is as bitter as gall against life insurance agents. Here are some samples: The city is infested with insurance bores. They are worse skimmers than three-card monte dealers. They don't give you a living chance at anything and rob the widow when you die. There should be a law against these confidence operators. An insurance agent—one of the confidence men—called at this office today and wanted to insert a twenty-dollar advertisement. He was refused the space. The Budget likes to make all the money it can legitimately, but it does not like to become a partner in robbery or a booster for confidence men.
